

Shannon Pospisil (00) and Ramsey Meyer (21r) go between lapped cars during a battle for the top spot in the feature. Pospisil won his fifth feature.

Pospisil scores fifth win

As the field fought for the bottom of the track at the start of the feature, Norfolk driver Shannon Pospisil drove around the field on the top side to win his fifth feature of the season.

The race went caution free. Pospisil had several close calls with lapped traffic. The second time was on lap eight when Ramsey Meyer of Pierce had caught Pospisil.

by-side when they drove between two lapped cars, making it four wide out of turn two.

Meyer bounced off Pospisil several times in the final laps, but Pospisil kept it straight for the win.

Third went to Kandie Smidt of Norfolk and fourth was Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus.

Rounding out the top 5 was Jayme Bargholz of Pender.

Jayme Bargholz (50) goes around Riley Williamson (25r) in their heat race. Bargholz was fifth in the feature.

In a new ride, Kevin Heppner (29) and Dustin Jackson (22x) head into turn three during their heat race.

Brooke Fluckiger (2B) and Kandie Smidt (2) compete for position in the feature. Smidt finished third and Fluckiger was fourth.

Tiffany Bittner (95) won her third feature of the season and her fifth heat race.

Bittner captures third victory

It was not an easy road for Tiffany Bittner to pick up her third win of the season.

The Norfolk driver had to hold off powerhouse Jason Wilkinson of Neligh the whole race as she marched to the front.

Tracy Buck of Neligh led the first four laps before Colby Langenberg of Norfolk led the next nine.

The second of two cautions erased Langenberg's half straightaway lead after the completion of lap 9.

Langenberg got a good restart, but did not quite have the handling he had before the caution.

Bittner got the inside line working and took the lead and the white flag at the same time.

Langenberg tried the cross-over move, but over rotated the turn and Bittner pulled away to her third win of the season.

Langenberg was second and Wilkinson finished third. Travis Coover of Neligh placed fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk.

Travis Coover (7-11) took home a fourth place finish in the feature, his sixth top 5.

Jeb Dunklau (65D) and Kaleb Jasperson (4x) suffered damage in their heat race.

Vanosdall captures first victory

In one of the quickest races this season, Eric Vanosdall led 24 of the 25 laps to win his first feature this year.

The Winside driver has run a limited schedule at Riviera Raceway, but has posted three top 5s in five nights at the track.

The feature started with two cautions before the first lap was completed; however, it was 25 straight laps after that.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk led the first lap. Vanosdall worked the low side on Osborne as the two went side-by-side for two laps.

Once out front Vanosdall simply pulled away from the field, as the rest of the positions shuffled out.

Chad Jensen of Norfolk finished second when he slipped past Osborne on lap 8.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield and Rusty Glosser battled it out for third. Glosser had the position until lap 13.

Birkley managed to run down Jensen, who was running the high side. Once Birkley made a look under Jensen, Jensen then moved his line to the bottom.

Birkley tried the high side, but lost ground to Jensen.

Glosser finished fourth.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk and Jim Johnson not only raced for the fifth spot, but for the points title, as well.

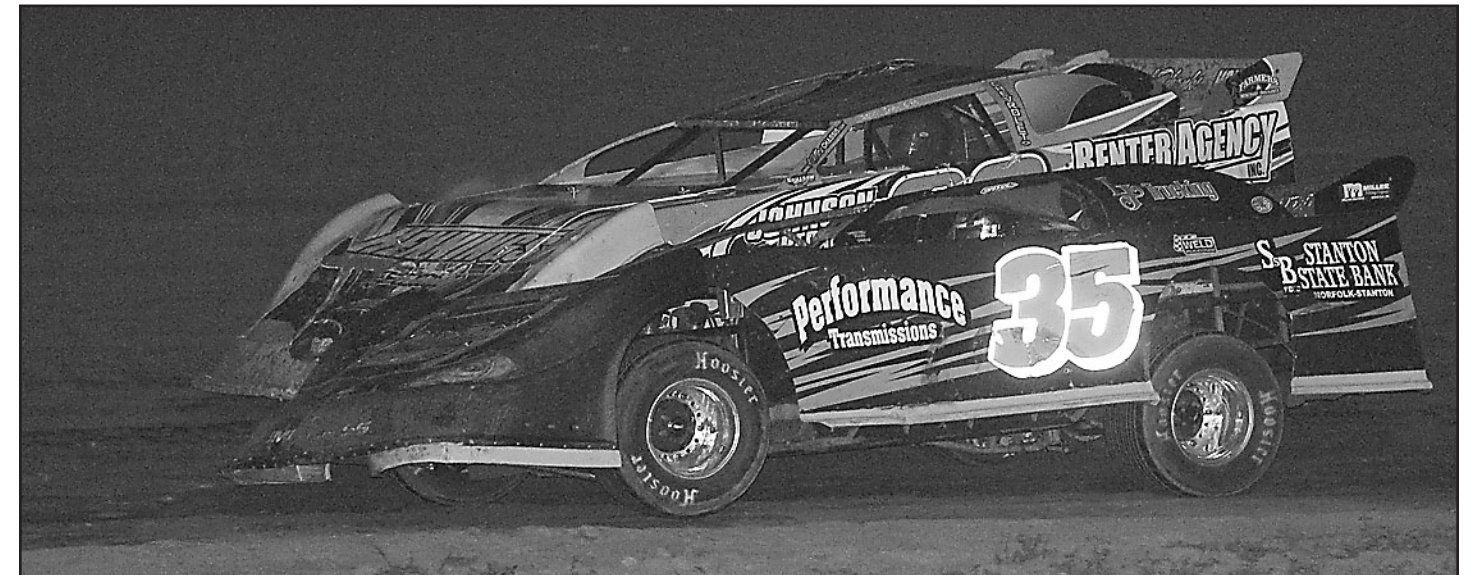

Osborne finished fifth and gained one point on Johnson in the standings. Osborne now leads by two points.

Chad Jensen (73) passes Chase Osborne (14). Jensen placed second in the feature. Osborne led the first lap and finished 10th.

Travis Birkley (78) gets to the inside of Rusty Glosser (02). Birkley finished third in the feature and Glosser finished fourth.

Robert Osborne (35) and Jim Johnson (36) battled in the feature and in the championship race. Osborne finished fifth in the feature one spot better than Johnson, to take a two-point lead in the championship.
