Roepke wins first feature; four repeat

Last week, Miles Roepke was the only first time winner. The Norfolk teenager held off Damien Timm, also of Norfolk, in the closing laps to make the drive to victory lane.

The other classes had repeat winners.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk won the Grand National division, increase his points lead to six.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk captured his 11th win of the season and when he pulls on the track tonight he will win the second straight track title.

Jason Wilkinson of Neligh will also win his second straight Hobby Stock title when he lines up on the front row in the feature. Wilkinson won the feature last week for his sixth win of the season.

Pierce's Ramsey Meyer took over where his brother left off and goes into the final night with a 14-point lead over 2007 and 2009 track champion Shannon Pospisil.

Meyer won last week for the fourth time.

The closest battle of the night comes in the Junior Hornet division. Colby Kaspar and Bristol Arneson, both of Norfolk are separated by four points.

Each driver has led the points throughout the season. Kaspar currently is the points leader.

Miles Roepke (m16) celebrates his first feature victory last week.
