Troy Bruns (75) and Chad Bruns (11) finished first and second in both the heat race and the feature.

Bruns victorious

It was the Bruns show in the Street Stock division last week with three Bruns finishing in the top four spots.

Eric Haase of Norfolk was the only outsider to break up the group.

Troy Bruns started on the pole and led the entire 18 laps in the featured event.

Eric Haase ran second for the first eight laps, before

Troy's brother Chad Bruns of Wayne got by to finish second.

Jason Wilkinson of Neligh moved into third on lap 12, but faded back in the final laps.

Haase got back to third where he finished.

Neil Bruns of Norfolk finished fourth and Brad Green of North Sioux City rounded out the top 5.

Right, Eric Haase (20) took a third place in the feature after winning his heat race. Below, Neil Bruns (74) finished fourth to give the Bruns family three out of the four top positions.

Haase takes win

In his second season in the Junior Hornet division, Joey Haase of Norfolk came to race.

The young Haase is the defending champion in the class with three wins last season.

After one night, Haase has added another feature win, as well as heat race win.

Many of the juniors last season moved on, but joining Haase from last season is Gage Koch of Norfolk.

New drivers are Kyle or Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh, Bristol Arneson of Norfolk and Miles Roepske of Norfolk.

The two sophomore drivers started on the front row with Haase on the pole.

Haase took the win with Wilkinson taking second. Third went to Arneson. Koch placed fourth and Roepke was credited with fifth.

Joey Haase (02) made quick work of the Jr. Hornet class with a win in the "A" feature.
