Chris Johnson won his second feature of the season.

Johnson doubles his win count

Bloomfield Grand National driver Chris Johnson won his second feature of the season.

The 25-lap feature was slowed six times. Justin Bertschinger of Norfolk led the first eight laps, which saw three of the cautions.

and one lap later he broke into the top 3. Two more cautions, Johnson locked horns with Chad Jensen of Norfolk for the second position. By lap nine, he was side-by-side with Bertschinger for the lead.

His quickest lap came on lap seven with a time of 16.85 seconds.

Johnson, who started on the outside of the fifth row, was running fifth after only five laps. Johnson said his car came alive on the third lap.

One caution

Johnson led the remaining 17 laps with his quickest lap coming on circuit 16 at 16.90 seconds.

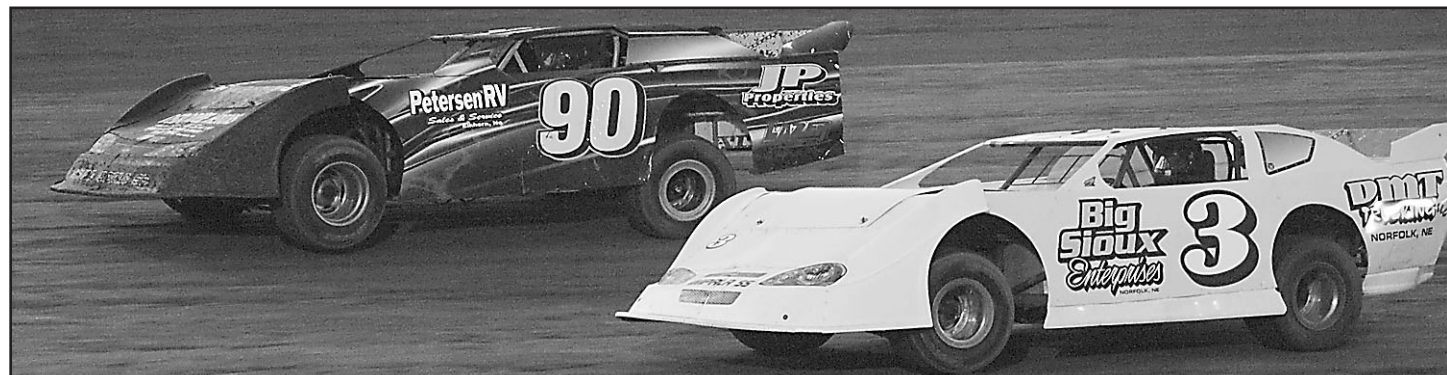

Johnson pulled away for the win. Bertschinger held off hard charging Tad Pospisil of Norfolk for second.

Pospisil again started dead last in the 16-car field. He was 10th after six laps, seventh after 14 laps. He broke into the top 3 on lap 20, but was unable to pass Bertschinger.

Mike Benson (71) took his second top 5 finish after finishing fifth. Dean Doug Tomka (3) runs with Justin Bertschinger (90) during their heat race. Bertschinger finished second in the feature after leading eight laps.

Gage Koch (96) got himself a ding in the heat race and later duke it out for the win in the feature.

Bristol Arneson is hard on the brakes to miss Joey Haase (02) in their heat race.

K.C. Wilkinson (52) tried to avoid Gage Koch (96), but they collided.

Bristol Arneson (51B) picks his way through his heat race.

Koch, Haase fight to the end

The Junior Hornets "wowed" the crowd, when youngster Gage Koch of Norfolk went for the lead on the last lap. He flew through turns one and two and ended up tagging Joey Haase of Norfolk.

The nudge gave Koch the lead, but Haase returned the favor going into turn three.

It became a drag race / slamfest to the finish. Koch went airborne over Haase's right front fender, which launched him to his second straight win of the season.

Bristol Arneson of Norfolk finished third. Miles Roepke of Norfolk, who finished second in the heat race, placed fourth. K.C. Wilkinson of Neligh rounded out the top 5.
