Kirk Beatty (21B) worked his way through the field to finish second in the feature.

Colby Langenberg runs the middle of the pack in his heat race. He later finished the feature.

Langenberg first

IMCA Hobby Stock driver Colby Langenberg of Norfolk started the feature last week deep in the field and alongside the winner of the first two feature this season – Jason Wilkinson of Neligh.

It was a battle between those two drivers who could make it to the front first.

Tate Weinrich led the first lap, as Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk led the next four.

Langenberg broke into the top three just after the first caution on lap three. He was second after the next lap.

Two laps later, he was pacing the 15-car field

Wilkinson broke into the top 3 after the final caution on lap seven.

He managed to let Langenberg know he was there, Langenberg never flinched and held off Wilkinson for the win.

Third went to Jim Kimmel of Norfolk. Battle Creek's Mark Arduser placed fourth and Travis Coover of Neligh rounded out the top 5.

Mark Arduser (4) placed fourth in the feature.

Jim Kimmel (17) took his second top 5 finish with a third in the feature.
