Mielke continues win streak

Justin Bertschinger of Norfolk could not catch a break last week, as flat tires on both his Grand National and his Street Stock hampered his night.

In the Street Stock main event, Bertschinger had led the first 10 laps when the first tire went down sending him to the back of the pack.

Eric Haase of Norfolk inherited the lead and it became a battle between Haase and Mielke for the final five laps, which was ironic because, Haase loaned Mielke parts.

Mielke broke in Albion Friday night and Haase helped get Mielke back running for Saturday night.

On the restart, Mielke challenged for the top spot and was leading on the next lap. Mielke ran the high side as Haase went low.

Haase was able to dive in strong, but Mielke had the momentum off the corners, which was the difference at the finish line.

Troy Bruns of Wayne finished third.

Bertschinger came back to take fourth and Chad Bruns of Wayne crossed the line fifth.

Chad Bruns (11) races with Neil Bruns (74) in their heat race. Chad Bruns won the heat and later finished fifth in the feature.

Eric Haase (20) did what he could but came short and finished second in the feature.

Eric Sloan (27) and Cody Relitz (51) exit turn four during their heat. Sloan won the feature and Relitz was third.

Sloan, Meyer battle to the checkered

Sport Compact driver Eric Sloan of Norfolk took advantage of a penalty given to Cameron Meyer of Pierce to help win the Sports Compact class.

Meyer started on the outside of the fifth row, but jumped the start, which put him challenging for the third spot by the end of the first lap.

On the next caution, Meyer was sent back four spots, the four spots he gained on the jump.

Cody Relitz of Norfolk led the first six laps, as Sloan and Meyer worked their way through the field. Sloan got by Relitz on lap seven for the lead with Meyer in tow.

Sloan was able to hold off Meyer for his second win of the season. Relitz finished third, Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk was fourth and Michael Ronnfeldt took fifth.

Bristol Arneson (51) took his first heat race win.

Wyatt Lehman (6) leads Chris Brummels (42) and Adam Wagner (17) on the backstretch. Lehman was fourth in the feature.
