Tracy Buck (28) captured his first feature of season, leading all 15 laps.

Buck victorious

Hobby Stock driver Tracy Buck picked up second career win, one year and 363 days after his first win.

Buck's last win came June 4, 2010 when he held off Jeremy Brabec of Stanton at the line for a photo finish.

This win was no cake walk either. Buck run the low side in turns one and two and the higher line in turns three and four as the slick track continued.

Each of Bucks lap looked liked the last one and slowly moved away from the second place car of Tate Weinrich of Hoskins at the start.

Buck had two bad corners. First, when a slow car forced him on the low side in turns three and four and then struggling off turn two - that put Weinrich back on his bumper.

Buck got his rhythm back and pulled away again. Weinrich eventually was caught by Derek Sehi of Neligh. On lap 10, Sehi made the pass and set out for Buck.

Sehi made it to Buck's bumper, but Buck had the preferred line and was able to hold off the charge.

Buck won, Sehi was second and Matt Haase of Norfolk placed third.

Tate Weinrich of Hoskins was fourth and Kevin Haase of Norfolk was fifth.

Matt Haase (81) took a third place finish in the feature.

Derek Sehi (16) captured second in the feature, as Tate Weinrich (46) grabbed fourth.

Gage Koch (96) took his fourth win of the season and claimed his second heat race.

Miles Roepke (16) and Joey Haase (02) run their heat race. Haase took third in the feature, as Roepke finished fourth.

Tanner Uehling (58T) made his first start last week.

K.C. Wilkinson (52) finished second in both his heat race and the feature. He led three laps in the feature.

Koch holds off Wilkinson

Gage Koch of Norfolk won his fourth feature of the season, passing an improving K.C. Wilkinson of Neligh for the victory.

Wilkinson started on the outside of the front row and led the first lap with Miles Roepke of Norfolk second.

The Neligh driver led the second lap before Koch dove to the inside and edged Wilkinson at the line for the lead.

However, Koch pushed in turn three on the next lap and Wilkinson crossed under to regain the lead.

Both cars pushed in turn two and the advantage went back to Koch on the exit.

Wilkinson was unable to catch back up to Koch and they went one-two.

Joey Haase of Norfolk placed third, Roepke fourth and Bristol Arneson of Norfolk fifth.

Koch also won the heat.
