Third win for Meyer

Cameron Meyer of Pierce won his third race of the season in the Sport Compact class.

Meyer was caught up in a crash on the backstretch that took out six cars. Meyer slid into one car and was rammed from the backside.

He made the repairs and from the rear of the field, which consisted of nine remaining cars, he made quick work of the field.

Three laps after the restart he was battling Jordan Uehling of Norfolk for second.

With four laps remaining, Meyer was pacing the field, passing Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk for the position.

Pospisil, who led six laps, never gave up and challenged Meyer back for the lead. However, Pospisil struggled getting off turn two and watched Meyer drive away.

Meyer won, Pospisil was second and Ramsey Meyer of Pierce third.

Adam Wagner of Norfolk grabbed fourth and Jayme Bargholz of Wayne fifth.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) and Jordan Uehling (58J) battle in their heat last week. Meyer later finished third in the feature.

Shannon Pospisil (00) and Cameron Meyer sandwich Anthony Nelson in their heat race, as Cody Relitz (51) leads the group. Pospisil placed second in the feature and Meyer won.

Vollbrecht doubles his wins

Stanton SportMod driver Nelson Vollbrecht won his second feature of the season which gives him two wins, two seconds and a third for the year.

Tyler Afrank of Norfolk led the first 5 laps of the 15-lap feature from the outside pole.

Brad Brabec of Norfolk has a fast car and after the first restart he went from fifth to second in less than a half a lap.

However, his run was stopped short when he lost a rear spring a half lap after taking the runner-up spot.

The caution came out to pick up the debris, which bunched the field.

Vollbrecht started on two laps he was pacing the field.

Justin Addison of Leigh gave Vollbrecht a run for his money and had made the pass for the lead, but a caution cancelled out the pass, giving the lead back to Vollbrecht.

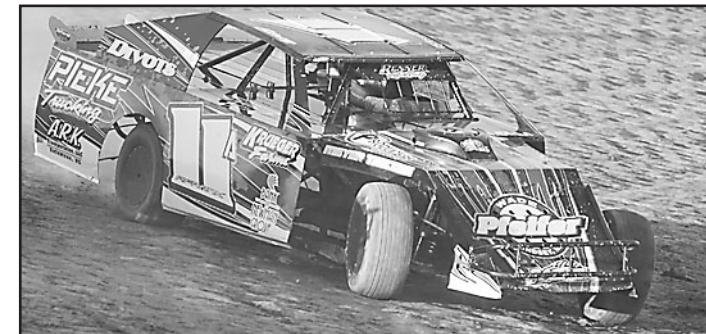

On the restart, Addison then had to fend off Kyle Prauner of Norfolk for the second spot. Addison slipped up the track in three and four and Prauner got the position.

Prauner tried to run down Vollbrecht, but there were not enough laps left. Vollbrecht won, Prauner second and Addison third.

Afrank was fourth and Rick Pendergast was fifth.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) took his second win of the season last week.

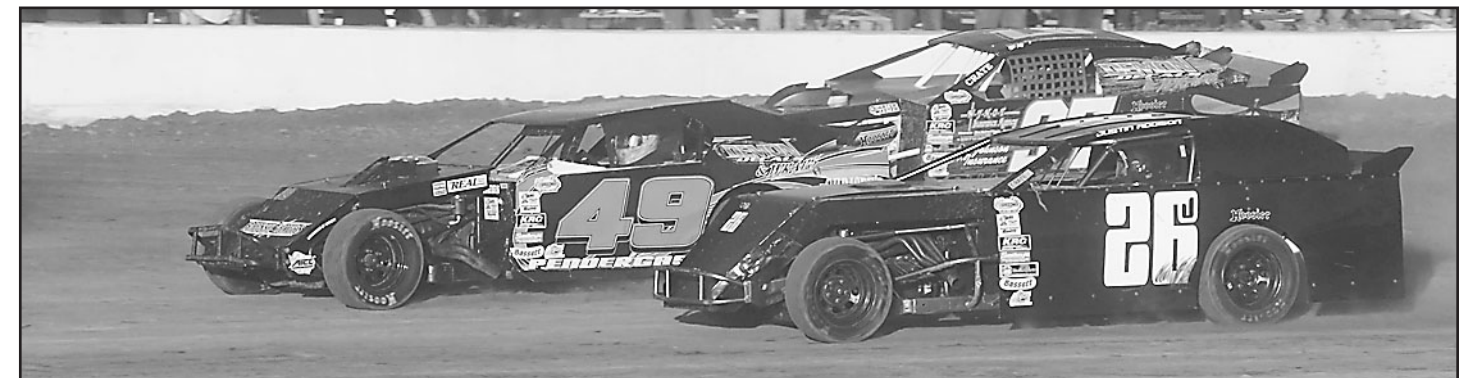

Tyler Afrank (11A) led five laps in the feature and finished fourth.

Kyle Prauner (5k) finished second in the feature, as Brad Brabec (1B) was moving up in the feature before he lost a rear spring.

Jensen scores his second straight win

Norfolk Grand National driver Chad Jensen may have started the season slow, but he is back with a mission.

Riviera Raceway returned to racing after Mother Nature cancelled two weeks' worth of racing.

Saturday night, despite the rain, the track was dry and slick and drivers had to negotiate two types of corners.

Jensen, who won the last time out at the track, slowly picked his way to the front after the last caution on lap five.

Once clearing Wakefield's Travis Birkley, who led the first nine laps; Jensen checked out from the field and had a straightaway lead at the finish.

However, Jensen said it sounded like someone was running him down.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk took second as Chris Johnson of Bloomfield struggled to get around Birkley.

Johnson finally bumped with Birkley and Osborne took advantage of the situation and passed Johnson. On the next lap, Osborne got a good run off of turn two to pass Birkley, who faded up the track on the exit.

Birkley went back after Osborne, but was unable to get off the corners and finish third.

Fourth went to Tad Pospisil of Norfolk on a late pass on Johnson. Johnson held onto fifth.

Chad Jensen gives high-fives after winning the feature.

Robert Osborne (35) finished second in the feature after winning his heat race.

Travis Birkley (78) led nine laps and stayed in the top two for 23 laps. He finished third.

Dean Wilkinson (52) got the worse part of a tangle up in the second heat race.

TeJay Mielke (77) won his fourth feature of the season.

Mielke strikes again

Pretty soon Norfolk Street Stock driver TeJay Mielke will be driving Eric Haase's back-up car.

For the second feature in a row, Haase has loaned Mielke car parts. First it was a rear end and now the transmission.

The three Bruns boys exit turn four during their heat race. Chad leads the group, Troy runs second and Neil is third.

Both times Mielke has won — the last one was his fourth of the year.

Haase led the first two laps from the outside pole.

Chad Bruns of Wayne dove to the inside of Haase and they touched on the exit of turn two.

Haase had to back off and Bruns and Mielke slipped by.

Mielke tried several attempts to get his car to stick on the inside of Bruns, but it was three laps later when Bruns slid up the track in turn two where there was no grip.

That allowed Mielke to make the pass for the lead before the only caution came out.

For the most of the next several laps, Mielke had tipped toed through the corners as Bruns tried everything he could to get back to challenge Mielke.

With four laps remaining, Bruns got back to Mielke's bumper when Mielke started having trouble exiting the corners.

Bruns made a last lap effort and tried to out brake Mielke and he got alongside the leader. However, he had to back off to avoid taking out Mielke.

That gave Mielke enough for the win. Bruns was second and Neil Bruns of Norfolk ran a consistent race for third.

Haase wrapped at fourth place finish, as former track champion Ron Pettitt of Norfolk rounded out the top 5. It was Pettitt's first visit this season.

Eric Haase (20) had a fourth place finish.
