Johnson leaves the field behind

Jim Johnson of Plainview pulled off his first win of the season by dominating the 15-car field.

Mike Babcock of Creighton led the first nine laps keeping the field five car lengths behind him.

That was until Johnson worked his way through setting up the cars passing on the low side.

Once he cleared Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale for second, Johnson set out for Babcock, who had caught a slower car.

Two laps later, Johnson was on Babcock's bumper. On lap 10, Johnson went high and cut down low to pass Babcock on the inside for the lead.

Once out front he moved to the high side and took off. Despite catching the rear of the field on lap 22, Johnson took the win by a half lap.

Nick Opfer of Hartington made the pass for second with six laps remaining getting by Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale. Wilkinson finished third.

Mike Babcock (83) finished second in this heat, led nine laps in the feature and finished sixth in the event.

Dean Wilkinson (52) and Nick Opfer (34) battle side-by-side in their feature. Opfer was second and Wilkinson was third at the finish line.

Meyer, Haase win again

Cameron Meyer of Pierce came through again to win his fourth Sport Compact feature of the season.

Starting 10th, Meyer climbed into the top 3 after the only caution on lap four. He quickly fell into second before taking the next two laps to catch race leader Kaleb Jaspersen of Norfolk.

Jaspersen had led seven laps when Meyer made the pass for the lead. Jaspersen finished second and Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk was third.

Fourth went to Eric Sloan of Norfolk and Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk and Meyer each won their heat race.

In the Junior Hornets, Norfolk's Joey Haase returned to the winner's circle after winning opening night. Rival Gage Koch of Norfolk won the next five.

Haase jumped out to an early lead, as Tori Wendell of O'Neill kept Gage Koch of Norfolk busy.

Wendell ran second for the first four laps before Koch slipped by. Haase had a large lead to take the win.

Koch was second and Wendell finished third. Fourth went to Miles Roepke of Norfolk and rounding out the top 5 was K.C. Wilkinson of Neligh.

Joey Haase (02) returned to victory lane. It was his second win of the season.

Cameron Meyer (21) goes inside of Eric Sloan (27) and Jeff Ronnfeldt (77) during the feature. Meyer won his fourth feature of the season.

Philip Mrsny (26) leads a group in his heat race.

Tori Wendell (96t) took a third place in the feature.
