

James Kleinheksel (7w) celebrates after winning the SportMod feature.

Third time's the charm for Kleinheksel

James Kleinheksel of Columbus was the driver to end the Vollbrecht-Prauner show, as Kleinheksel in this third visit to the track won the feature.

Kleinheksel started on the outside of the third row and was running fourth after two laps and third after three. By lap 4, he got by Brian Barber of Platte Center out of turn two.

Brad Brabec of Norfolk, who led the first eight laps, was next on Kleinheksel's list.

It took little time to catch Brabec and made several attempts on the leader, but Brabec held off every attempt until the restart following the caution.

Kleinheksel was able to get a good exit out of turn two to make the pass and in turn three Kleinheksel slid up in front of Brabec. Once out front he opened up a seven car lead.

Another yellow flag was thrown with three laps remaining. Once again Kleinheksel pulled away to win by six car lengths.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk placed second and Brabec held on for third.

James Kleinheksel (7w) looks to the inside of Brad Brabec (1B) during the feature.

Justin Addison (26j) spins to avoid Rick Pendergast (49) as David Johnson (97) goes around on the high side.

Kyle Prauner (5K) works the traffic of Brian Barber (79) Rick Pendergast (49).

75-year-old Bill Wrich (16) won the GOTRA feature race leading all laps.

Wrich victorious

Saturday night Riviera Raceway played host for the Great ol' Time Racing Association (GOTRA) and a 75-year-old driver took home the win with an 80-year-old car.

It may have taken Bill Wrich of Kennard twice as long to get out of the old-time stock car, but his smile in victory lane was just as large as any young driver after a winning.

Wrich led the entire race and had a slight push in the corners, but managed to hold off Jeremy Orłowski of Lincoln.

Orłowski slowly fell back before regrouping and making another run for the lead. On the final lap, Orłowski dove low in turn three and four, but lost control and spun out.

Wrich took the win, Orłowski slid through for second and John Orłowski, Jr. of Madison was third after James Sylvester of David City spun to avoid hitting the spun car of Jeremy Orłowski.

Larry Aldrich (99) took the checkered flag first in his heat and the trophy dash.

Jeremy Orłowski (93) leads a group in his heat race. He later finished second in the feature.

Larry Remsing (32) and Derek Sehi (16) battle in their heat race. Sehi won the qualifying race. Remsing came back later and won the feature.

Remsing breaks through, captures first career victory

Norfolk's Larry Remsing started at Riviera Raceway in 2008 and has posted several top 5s, but Saturday night he got his first victory.

Starting from the pole position, Remsing took off and said good bye to the 14-car field leading all 15 laps in a race that had no cautions.

Remsing had a top 5 in 200 and a couple in both 2009 and 2010 with the highest position at third place.

It was his first top 5 of this season in his four starts.

With Remsing setting the pace out front, the battle came for second place between Jake Timm of Pierce and Derek Sehi of Neligh.

Timm had the outside pole and fell into second at the start with Sehi on his bumper.

The two ran nose-to-tail until Timm slid up in turn three on lap seven and Sehi dove to the inside.

For several laps, Sehi ducked underneath going into the turns but could not keep it low and drifted up the track and had to back off to avoid hitting Timm

Finally on lap 13, Sehi got the traction he needed and got alongside Timm to take the white flag.

Then on lap 14 Sehi run into turn one hard and got the car to stick on the low side and made the pass for position

Finally on lap 14, Sehi got the necessary grip to make the pass. Just as Sehi cleared Timm, Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk stuck his nose in the mix.

However, it was too late. Sehi took second, Timm held onto third and Hoskinson fourth.

Fifth went to Matt Haase of Norfolk, who was also banging bumpers with Hoskinson.

Jake Timm (18) ran second for most of the feature, however, Derek Sehi made a pass for the runner-up spot with a few laps remaining. Timm finished third.

Larry and Tara Remsing celebrate after he won his first career feature.
