Kleinheksel grabs second win

Columbus' second win at the track after be- of him. ing involved in the track's first roll over in years.

Wisner's Johnny Kerby found himself upside down after tagging the wall.

On the start of the second lap, Kerby drifted up the track on the exit of turn two and slowed to avoid hitting the wall.

Kleinheksel was three wide and had nowhere to go as Kerby got going again. After Kleinheksel made contact, Kerby's car veered back to the wall where it rolled to its roof. Kerby climbed out with no serious injuries.

Following the restart from Kerby's ordeal, Kleinheksel saw himself starting fourth.

James Turn two was the problem Kleinheksel had to work for his area for the three cars in front

> Kleinheksel passed two of the cars out of turn two on the restart and a lap later passed David Johnson of Norfolk for the lead in the same turn.

The race was marred with four more cautions, which by the last restart put Kyle Prauner of Norfolk on his bumper with four laps remaining.

Prauner got his nose under Kleinheksel, but Kleinheksel managed to pull away to win by four car lengths.

Prauner was second and Justin Addison of Leigh made a last lap pass on Ken Eckhoff of Hooper for third.

Eckhoff was fourth and Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton rounded out the top 5.

Justin Addison (26J) exits turn four in this heat race. He took his second top 5 finishing third in the feature.
