

Mark Bruder (51) took the Modified Lite feature win last week.

Bruder victorious on visit

Last week, Riviera Raceway was host to the Modified Lites. Mark Bruder of Crete got the pole position and never looked back for the win.

Ryan Colin of Lincoln was running second until he looped it in turn two and Terry Vantine of Milford took over the spot.

The field was bunched up on lap six following a caution. Bruder took off with Vantine in tow on the restart. Brandon Spanyer of Crete was running third.

The three stayed several car lengths a part until the final lap when they caught lapped traffic. The order did not change and Bruder won, Vantine placed second and Spanyer was third.

Chad Iwan of Columbus was fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Ben Bo.

Terry Vantine (50) placed second in the feature.

Braden Vantine (19) and Brandon Spanyer (15) run their heat race. Spanyer finished third in the feature.

Tracy Buck (28) was a pinball on the front stretch.

Jim Kimmel (17K) and Larry Remsing (32) battled in both their heat race and feature. Remsing won the feature for the second time this season, while Kimmel was second.

Remsing does it for the second time

Larry Remsing of Norfolk endured the caution riddled Hobby Stock feature as the yellow hankie dropped eight times with the longest green flag period being four laps long.

The Norfolk driver used those four continuous laps to grab the lead and outlast the restarts to win his second feature of the season.

Jake Timm of Pierce led the first couple laps with Tom Marksmeier of Norfolk leading the next two. Remsing ducked under Marksmeier for the lead to move out front with 11 laps remaining.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk did battle with Travis Coover of Neligh for most of the race. He finally worked his way by on lap 12 to finish second in the race.

Coover lost another position to Derek Sehi of Neligh on the final restart with two laps remaining. Sehi finished third and Coover was fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Mark Arduser of Battle Creek.

Travis Coover (7-11) moves to the inside of Jake Timm (18). Timm led two laps in the feature, as Coover finished fourth in the main event.

Derek Sehi (16s) works with keep Colby Langenberg (1J) behind him. Sehi finished third in the feature.

Robert Osborne (35) grabbed his second feature win of the season, making a pass with two laps remaining in the feature. He also won his seventh heat race.

Osborne runs down Bertschinger for second win

For the second night in-a-row, the winner made the pass for the lead with two laps to go. This time a caution was not needed.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk picked up his second win of the season when he got by Justin Bertschinger of Norfolk with two laps remaining.

Bertschinger started on the pole and took off from the field and opened up nearly a straightaway lead, as Cory Haase of Norfolk and Jim Johnson of Plainview battle for second.

Lap after lap, Johnson dove under Haase, but could not get the grip to finish the pass.

Finally on lap 15, Haase bobbed out of turn two and had to chase it up the track and Johnson got the break he needed to make the pass.

About that same time, Bertschinger had caught the back of the field. Unable to make the pass, Bertschinger seemed to slow exiting the turns and Johnson slowly reeled him in.

On lap 21, Johnson bobbed in turn two and without hesitation Osborne, who had just caught Johnson, flew by for the second position.

With a half straightaway lead, Osborne ate into the lead and in two laps he was side-by-side with Bertschinger.

The two were door-handle-to-door-handle for two laps before Osborne used the slow car of Chase Osborne of Norfolk to grab the top spot.

The Osbornes went side-by-side for nearly the entire white flag lap.

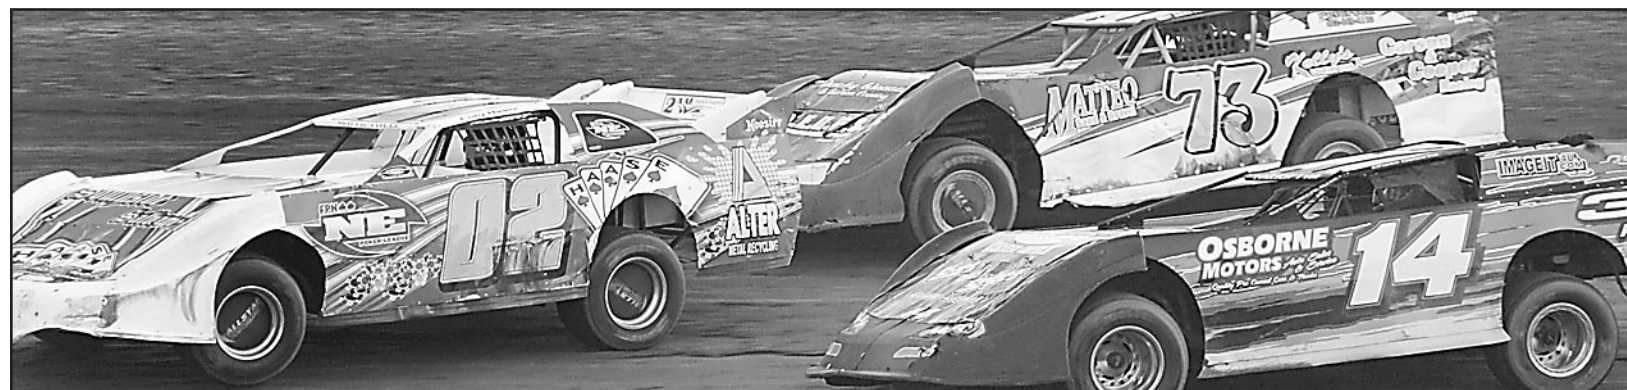

Robert Osborne took the win, Bertschinger was second and Johnson finished third.

Haase settled for fourth and points leader Chris Johnson of Bloomfield took fifth.

Randy Bertschinger (5) runs his heat race.

Cory Haase (02) leads Chad Jensen (73) and Chase Osborne (14) in the heat race. Haase ran second for several laps in the feature and finished fourth after 25 laps. Jensen pulled off the track and Osborne finished 10th.
