Kyle Prauner (5K) won his sixth feature.

Prauner wins twice

Norfolk's Kyle Prauner won not only the SportMod feature, but also the heart of his girlfriend, Nikki Blaser, when he proposed to her in the winner's circle.

Kyle Prauner proposes to Nikki Blaser after winning the SportMod feature.

She said yes. His trip to the front in the feature started slow as he spun out on the second lap.

Brian Barber of Platte Center led the first six laps as David Johnson of Norfolk was running second.

Barber went into turns three and four on lap seven and the rear end slid out and he spun to bring out the final caution.

with Prauner and Brandon Poesnecker of Atkinson in tow.

ish. Meyer pulled away for the win, as the battle for second heated up.

Relitz suffered a problem and pulled from track setting up a three-way battle between Norfolk's Phillip Mrsny, Jordan Uehling and Pierce's Ramsey Meyer.

Mrsny finished second. Meyer edged out Uehling for third.

Gage Koch of Norfolk won his eighth feature leading only the final two laps.

Norfolk's Tanner Uehling led the first four laps before Bristol Arneson of Norfolk took the lead. However, Mile Roepke broke going into turn three bringing out the caution, erasing Arneson's pass.

Koch got a jump on the restart and moved out front to lead the final two laps. Joey Haase of Norfolk finished second and Uehling was third.

Matt Haase made the move to the SportMods last week.
