

From an angle, Gage Koch (96) edges out Bristol Arneson (51B) to win the Junior Hornet feature.

Eric Sloan (27) had little trouble in the feature for his fourth win of the season.

Sloan, Koch this week

Cameron Meyer's luck ran out when he got caught up in an incident on the second attempt at starting the feature last week.

Two cars tangled off turn two and blocked most of the backstretch as cars stacked up. Meyer tried to stop but ended up break his front end.

Eric Sloan of Norfolk was disappointed he could not run with Meyer, as he worked on his car and made it much faster than the week before.

Sloan wasted little time and went from fourth to first on the first lap using the high line.

Once out front he was gone. Jared Relitz of Emerson, who also was involved in the incident on the first lap was shooting sparks, but ran a solid

Wilkinson's eighth win

Neligh's Jason Wilkinson bided his time and waited for the high line to open up to win his eight feature of the season.

At the end of the first lap he was running fourth and by lap four, he was leading the 11-car field.

The race was uninterrupted and Wilkinson's win was by a half a lap.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk finished second. He passed Jake Timm of Pierce on lap seven. Wilkinson had too much of a lead and Langenberg was unable to make a run for the win.

Timm led three laps and just finished third, outlasting Larry Remsing of Norfolk and Travis Coover of Neligh.

Remsing and Coover battled side-by-side for most of the final laps. The two finally got to the bumper of Timm at the checkered flag. Remsing beat Coover by a bumper for fourth.

Langenberg won the first heat race, as Wilkinson won the second one.

The second heat race started with the first two rows running side-by-side for several laps.

Mark Arduser of Battle Creek and Remsing had the front row and Jim Kimmel of Norfolk Wilkinson were in the second row.

Colby Langenberg (1J) finished third in the feature, after winning his heat race.

Kyle Prauner (5K) took another feature win last week as he stayed out of front.

Prauner wins 7th one

Kyle Prauner captured his seven feature win of the season last week. Prauner started on the outside of the third row and was running second to Matt Haase of Norfolk by the third lap.

Haase in his second night behind the wheel led the first three laps before jumping the cushion and opening the door for Prauner to get by.

Second went to Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. Vollbrecht had just moved into the second position when the caution came as he tried to get by David Johnson of Norfolk.

James Kleinheksel of Columbus placed when he moved into the position on lap 12. He ran down Vollbrecht, but came up a couple laps short for second.

Johnson ran a solid race and ran in the top three for 11 of the 15 laps.

At the end, Tyler Afrank of Norfolk made a run at fourth. Afrank and Johnson touched exiting turn four. Johnson's car crossed first for fourth and Afrank was fifth.

Kyle Prauner (5K) works to the inside of Matt Haase (81). Haase led the first three laps before Prauner moved out front.

Cody Harris (310) is sideways as James Kleinheksel (7W) tries to avoid him.

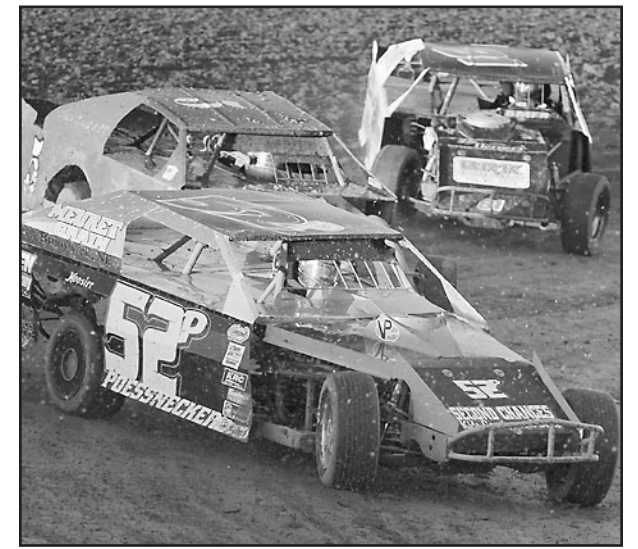

Ken Eckhoff (5) lost a right rear shock tried to get through the corner.

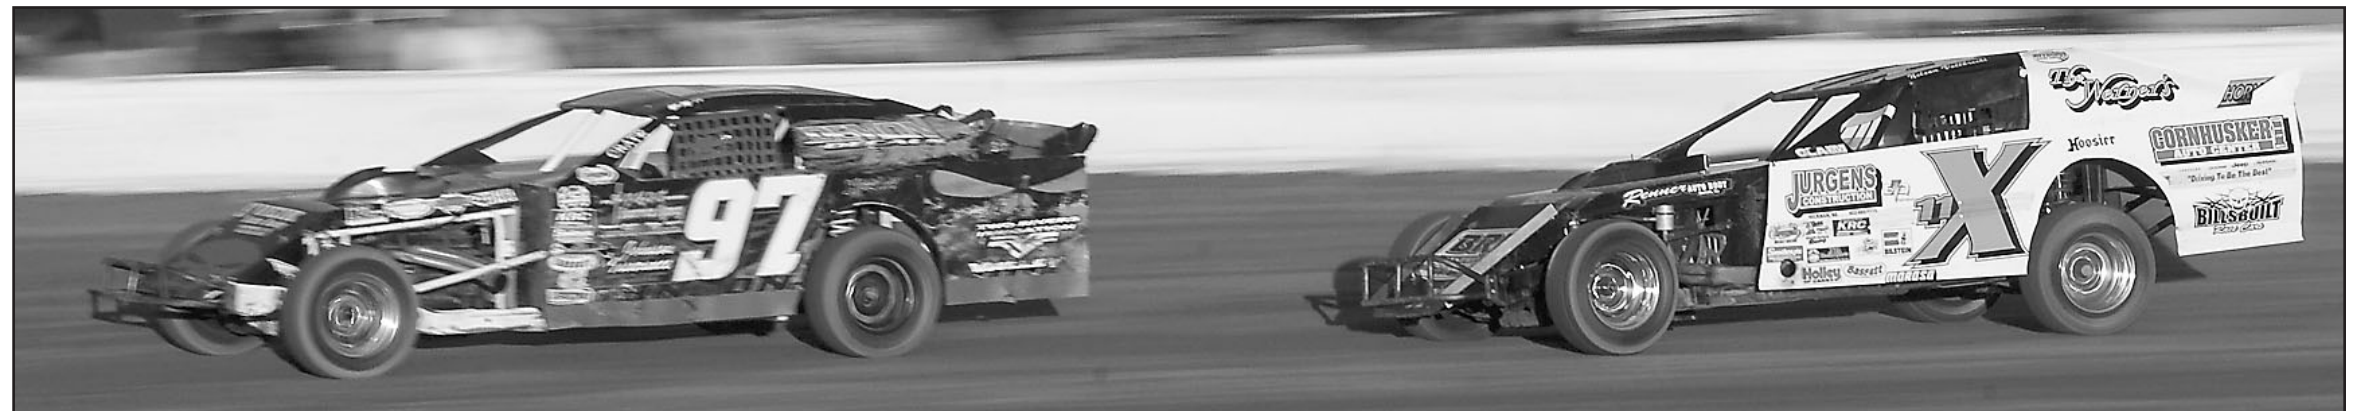

Tyler Afrank (11A) took a top 5 finish in the feature.

David Johnson (97) throws his car into turn three. He finished fourth in the feature and won his heat race.

Brandon Poesnecker (52P) exits turn four during the heat race. He finished sixth in the feature.

David Johnson (97) and Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) scream down the backstretch. Vollbrecht finished second in the feature and Johnson finished fourth.
