2012 season ends with showdown in top class

For the most part, the track titles at Riviera Raceway are wrapped up for the 2012 season.

However, for the Grand National points lead has changed again.

Bloomfield's Chris Johnson, the 2008 Grand National track champion, led from the start of the season when he won two features out of first four nights.

It was only a few weeks ago when 12-time Grand National track champion Robert Osborne took over the top spot.

It appeared the Norfolk native was on his way to a 13th title with only needing a couple of good finishes.

However, Osborne's night ended early in the feature last week and Jim Johnson of Plainview is now atop the points list.

Jim Johnson has posted five top 3 finishes in the last five nights with two wins, two seconds and a third.

Johnson outran the field last week and goes into Championship Night with a 22-point lead over Osborne and 38-point lead over his brother, Chris.

Last Saturday night, Johnson led 16 laps for the win. Alex Banks of Norfolk took his best finish of the season at second.

Eric Haase of Norfolk also had his best finish after moving up from the Street Stock division. He finished third.

The track hosted a Sprint Car show and Tyler Druke took home the win. Norfolk's Brant Obanion finished second and Ron Krysel of Atkinson was third.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk returned to the winner's circle leading 11 laps. Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton finished second.

Brian Barber of Platte Center led five laps to finish third, his best finish of the season.

Hobby Stock driver Jeremy Hoskinson has led 26 laps going into Saturday night and he added another 12 laps and picked up his first win of the season.

Neligh's Jason Wilkinson took home second and Larry Remsing of Norfolk placed third.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce won his Tyler Druke (12) took the sprint car win.

10th Sport Compact feature of the season. Ramsey Meyer of Pierce was second and Cody Relitz of Norfolk finished third.

Norfolk's Gage Koch also won his 10th Junior Hornet feature. Bristol Arneson of Norfolk again finished second. Joey Haase of Norfolk finished third.
