

Eric Vansodall (9) works his way around Mike Benson (71) to win the second "A" feature last week.

Osborne, Vansodall win 'A' feature

Robert Osborne of Norfolk won the first Grand National feature, while Eric Vansodall of Winside took the second feature.

Osborne led the final 16 laps after Jim Johnson of Plainview led the first nine. Five laps after taking the lead, Osborne started lapping traffic on the 14th circuit.

He worked traffic for four laps and then had clean air for most of the final laps.

The next positions wrestled with the lapped traffic with Haase taking second. Haase got by Johnson on lap 15.

Chad Jensen of Norfolk worked his way by Johnson by lap 21 to take third.

In the second feature BJ Haase took off from the outside pole to lead the first seven laps. Mike Benson of Wakefield work his way from the outside third row starting position to leading after eight laps.

Benson led 15 laps before Vansodall made the pass of the lead. Vansodall started on the back row of the 14-car field. He was running eight after 13 laps. Three laps later he was sixth.

He broke into the top three on lap 19, behind Benson and Chris Johnson of Bloomfield.

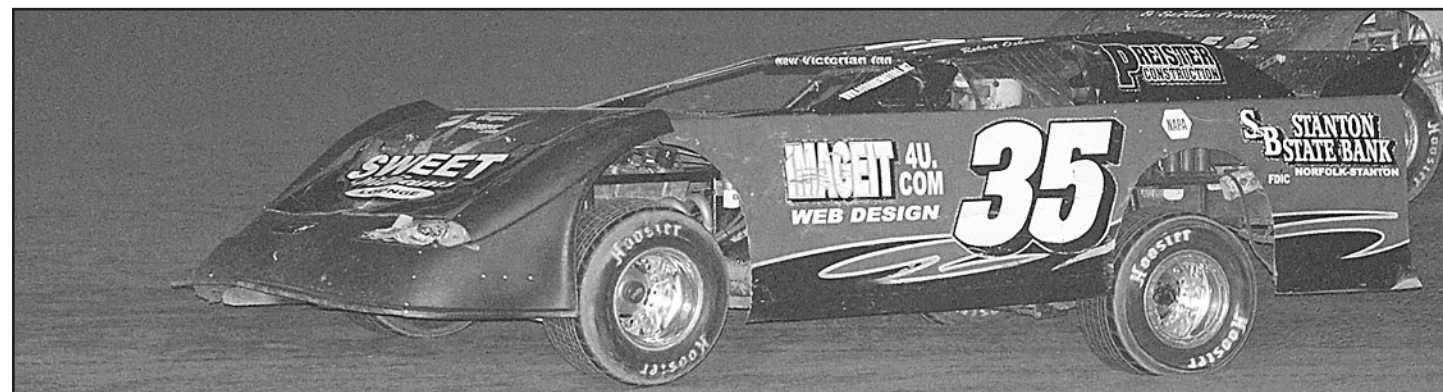

Following the final caution, Vansodall got alongside Johnson with four laps left. One lap later he was in front of Benson and racing to the checkered flags.

Benson held on for second and Chris Johnson placed third.

Cory Haase (02) took a second place finish in the first feature of the night.

Robert Osborne (35) muscled his way to winning the first "A" feature of the night, last week.

Cameron Meyer (21) salutes the crowd after taking the first Hornet feature win of the season, last week.

Wyatt Lehman (6) celebrates after winning the second Hornet feature if the night, last week.

Meyer, Lehman win features; Hornets debate junior class

Defending Hornets champion Grant Hurlbert looked like he was going to continue where he left off last season. He led the first four laps, holding off Cameron Meyer of Pierce.

However, Hurlbert slowed by the fifth lap. Meyer took over the top spot and led the final laps for the win. Eric Sloan of Norfolk slid by Hurlbert as well to finish second. Hurlbert held onto third.

In the second feature, Wyatt Lehman started on the pole to lead all 12 laps to win the race.

Lehman just about lost the race when Meyer tried to nudge passed him on the final laps. Lehman kept his car straight and claimed his first win. Meyer took second.

Chase Osborne made a last lap pass on Sloan to take third.

Cole Wiley led all 12 laps to win the junior division. Phillip Mrsny took second and Joey Haase was third.
