

Eric Haase (20) left Friday night undefeated capturing both feature wins.

Haase sweeps double feature

Street Stock driver Eric Haase of Norfolk captured both feature wins last week.

Haase led 13 laps in the 32 laps run in the two races. Troy Bruns of Wayne led the first 12 laps of the make-up feature, but when the final caution came out; Bruns car died and would not re-fire.

Haase was running second at the time and took over the top spot. He finished the last six laps. Ryan Rohde of Winside took second and Jared Rodgers placed third.

Fourth went to Neil Bruns, who moved up to the Street Stock division from the Hobby Stock division.

Fifth went to Dave Hille of Pierce.

In the second feature, TeJay Mielke of Norfolk led the first lap as Rodgers led the second lap. Mielke recovered to lead the next five laps.

Haase took advantage of another caution. He first got by Rodgers for second and four laps after the restart he was leading the way. Leading the final seven laps, Haase won his second feature of the night.

Mielke finished second and Rodgers was third. Fourth went to Rohde and Bruns posted another top five finish at fifth.

Haase leads the points battle with Rodgers second and Rohde third. Bruns sits fourth and Mielke rounds out the top 5.

Jim Kimmel (17) pulled from the track in the first feature, but came back to win the second feature leading the entire race.

Hoskinson, Kimmel capture Hobby Stock features 1 & 2

Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk, who runs a limited schedule in Norfolk, picked up the first feature win of the night.

Hoskinson started on the inside of the second row, behind Jim Spencer of Norfolk. Spencer led the first two laps, when Hoskinson took over.

Only one caution slowed the field, but Hoskinson went on to lead the final laps. Defending track champion Tate Weinrich of Hoskins also moved passed Spencer for the second spot.

During the sixth lap, a caution was thrown. On the restart, Matt Haase of Norfolk slipped past Spencer for the third spot. The three went 1-2-3 for the rest of the race.

In the second feature, Kimmel overcame a broken axel in the first feature, to win the second feature.

Kimmel's misfortune in the opening feature gave him the pole position of the second one. He never looked back from there.

The fight came back in the second position with Jake Timm of Pierce, Derek Sehi of Neligh and later Weinrich.

Timm had the position first. On the second lap, Sehi tried to get the runner-up position, but caution stopped the advancement.

On the restart, Timm held onto the position, but after the second caution Sehi got the upper hand and got by Timm for the second on lap six.

Three laps later Timm took a shot to get back to second, but Sehi counter to keep the spot.

Again after a caution, Timm lost another position, when Weinrich grab the position on lap 12.

Kimmel won, Sehi second and Weinrich third. Timm finished fourth.

Jake Timm (18) finished fourth in the second feature.

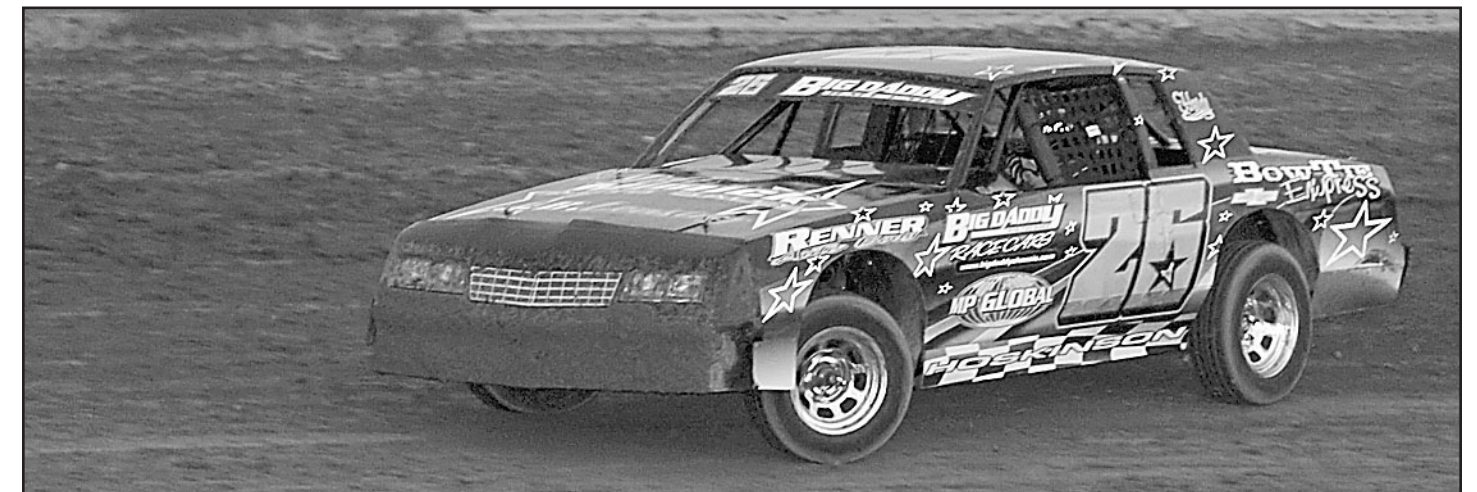

Jim Spencer (26) finished fourth in the first feature.

Kevin Haase (9) gets out of shape as Tate Weinrich (46) and Matt Haase (81) tries Tate Weinrich (46) runs inside of Derek Sehi (16) during the second feature. Weinrich took a second in the first feature and a third in the second feature. Sehi had a seventh place finish in the first, but came back in the second one to take second.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26x) took the first feature of the season in the Hobby Stock class. He lead all laps.
