

Troy Bruns (75) picked up his first win of the season and his first top 5 of the season.

Bruns takes victory

The Street Stock division had two cautions and a red flag, for a fire, but through that it was all Wayne's Troy Bruns.

Leading the entire 18 laps, Bruns picked up his first win of the season.

Starting on the inside of the second row, he went straight to the front around polesitter Seth Baugher of Hartington.

TeJay Mielke of Norfolk settled into the second position and held that place for the full 18 laps. Eric Haase of Norfolk got by Randy Bertschinger of Plainview on lap four to run third for the rest of the race.

Ron Pettitt of Norfolk raced to a fourth place finish after returning to the track for the special night. Rounding out the top 5 was Ryan Rohde of Carroll.

Randy Bertschinger (90) lays his car over in the turn during his heat race.

Matt Haase (81) takes the win and moves to second in the points.

Haase tip toes to victory

The Hobby Stocks put on a good show, as the lead changed five times in the 15-lap feature.

The father-son duo, veteran, Mark Arduser, and son, Chase Arduser, both of Battle Creek started on the front row.

The younger Arduser led the first lap, before dad edged him out on the second lap.

Chase Arduser regained the lead and led the next four laps with dad challenging him every lap.

Mark Arduser finally got by his son to lead lap seven. However, Matt Haase of Norfolk spoiled the Arduser party and took over the top spot on lap nine.

With his nose piece hanging loose, the young Haase teen led the final seven laps for his first win of the season.

Jake Timm of Pierce, who moved into the third spot on lap nine, moved passed Mark Arduser on the final laps to finish second.

TB Coover of Neligh slid into the third spot for their first top 5 of the season. Fourth went to Jim Kimmel of Norfolk. Derek Sehi of Neligh rounded out the top 5.

Jim Kimmel (17) took his second top 5 finish when he placed fourth.

TB Coover (7-11) finished third in the feature, as Derek Sehi (16) was fifth.

The safety crew runs towards Tom Marksmeier (92) over turned Hobby Stock Monday. Marksmeier walked away from the incident.

Jake Timm (18) runs inside his cousin Matt Haase (81) during the feature. Timm finished second to Haase.
