Kevin Haase (9) picked up his first Hobby feature win.

Kevin Haase (9) is congratulated by his dad BJ Haase.

Rescue workers hold Jake Timm's stock car up and try to put out the fire after he rolled his car in the feature.

Haase takes first win

Kevin Haase of Plainview started in the Hornet division and moved up to Hobby Stock three years ago. He captured his first win last week.

Haase started on the outside of the second row and fell into line at the third spot.

He raced Mark Arduser of Battle Creek for the second position for the first three laps. After clearing Arduser, he ran second for six laps, before Jake Timm of Pierce flipped his stock bringing out the red flag.

Timm's ride caught fire as a fuel line fed the flames while he scrambled to get out.

On the restart, Tom Marksmeier of Norfolk was leading, Haase was second and Arduser was third.

Marksmeier led the 10th lap, but he slowed and Haase took over the top spot. He led the final five laps for the win.

There was a battle for second between Matt Haase of Norfolk and Arduser. Haase's car stopped dead in turn four and Arduser took second.

Derek Sehi of Neligh finished third with Jim Kimmel of Norfolk fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Tracy Buck of Neligh.

Cole Wiley (43) edged out Joey Haase (02) on the final lap to win the Junior Hornets feature.

Sloan, Wiley victorious

Hornet driver Eric Sloan of Norfolk had contended for the championship in years past winning it in 2008, but a slow start put him back in the pack.

Winning Friday night might just jump start his season.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk grabbed the early lead and paced the field for the first six laps of the 12 lap feature.

Sloan started on the inside of the fourth row and broke into the top 3 on lap four getting by JD Dunklau of Norfolk. He quickly moved into the second position getting by Garrett Hurlbert of Winside on the next lap.

Sloan pulled alongside Pospisil on the next lap and took over the top spot on the next lap.

He led the final six laps to take the win. Hurlbert also got by Pospisil with two laps left. Cameron Meyer of Pierce would edge out Pospisil at the line for third.

After leading the first five laps of the six lap feature, Joey Haase of Norfolk, watched Junior Hornet Cole Wiley make the pass in turn three to win his third feature of the season.

The only feature Wiley has not won was the race he did not start.

Cameron Meyer (21) gets into the side of Garrett Hurlbert (85) during their heat race.

Shannon Pospisil (00) finished fourth in the feature.
