

Troy Bruns (75) took his second win, as Eric Haase (20) finished second for his fourth top 5 in four nights.

Second straight for Bruns

A non-stop feature race was the third feature on the night that went uninterrupted, as Troy Bruns of Wayne took his second straight win.

The closest the racing got was when Randy Bertschinger of Plainview held a slight lead over Bruns and Jason Frisch of Norfolk, as the three cars were side-by-side to finish the first lap.

Bruns came out on top to lead the second lap and the final 17 circuits.

TeJay Mielke of Norfolk ran second to Bruns for three laps before Eric Haase of Norfolk moved into second for the final 12 laps.

Mielke finished third, Frisch posted his best finish at the fourth spot and Bertschinger rounded out the top 5.

Frisch and Bertschinger each finished with their first top 5.

TeJay Mielke (77) grabbed his third top 5 of the season finishing third last week.

Robert Osborne (35) celebrates with his family.

Osborne makes it two-in-a-row

The Grand National race had the most cautions on the night with six yellows slowed the race,

The track had developed a hole in turn one and throughout the night it grew into turn two.

Ben Sukup of Norfolk led the first lap before Travis Birkley of Wakefield got by to lead the next eight laps and through three of the cautions.

Defending points champion

Chad Jensen of Norfolk, Robert Osborne of Norfolk and Chris Johnson of Bloomfield got by Birkley on lap 10.

Jensen was running the high line, as Osborne tried to go under the hole in turn one and two. Osborne gave up the bottom line and fell in behind Jensen on the high side.

Jensen led 10 laps through two cautions, but on lap 20, Jensen slipped up and Osborne took advantage of the incident and burst to the front.

Osborne led the final six laps, slowed only by one caution, to win his third of the season in four nights of racing.

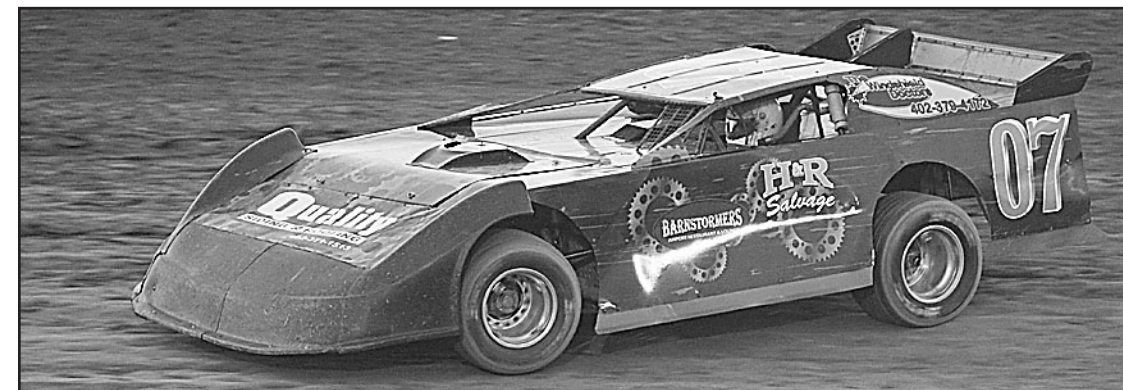

Jensen held onto second. Jim Johnson of Plainview took home third when he passed Sukup on the 15th lap.

Chris Johnson (7) gets sideways trying to avoid hitting another car, as turns one and two were still rough.

Above, BJ Haase (49) took home his first top 5 win of the season, after watching his son win his first race. Below, Ben Sukup (07) captured a fourth place finish.

Jim Johnson (36) took a third place finish in the feature and moved up three spots in the points race.
