Brant Obanion (47) makes an attempt to pass Gary Reber (8) for the lead during the feature. Reber took the win and Obanion fell to fourth after pulling from the track.

Reber wins sprint night

It was sprint car night at Riviera Raceway and Gary Reber of Gregory, SD taking the win.

Reber started on the outside pole and was only challenged a couple of times.

Two cautions slowed the pace in the first lap. The rest of the race went uninterrupted.

It was after the second caution that Brant Obanion of Norfolk moved into second and challenged for the lead. However, Reber never faltered and Obanion pulled from the track with four laps left.

Norfolk's Gregg Schuetz inherited the second position. Rick Hansen of Norfolk and Schuetz had been battling for most of the second half of the race.

Hansen was able to claim the second spot and Schuetz finished third.

Rick Hansen (36) took a pair of second place finishes in his heat race and feature.

Gregg Schuetz (63) battles with Rick Hansen (36) in the feature. Hansen was second and Schuetz placed third.

After one car spins out, two more collide including Veldon Judge (45).

Meyer's fourth, Koch's first

The Hornet classes were the only division to have caution free features.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce grabbed his fourth win of the season. Cody Relitz of Norfolk led the first four laps of the 12-lap feature, before Meyer made the pass.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk finished second behind Meyer. Pospisil moved past Relitz on lap six to take over the runner-up position.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk made an attempt on Pospisil, but had to settle for third.

Junior Hornet driver Gage Koch of Norfolk has led 13 laps this season and has been short from winning – until Friday night.

Koch started on the outside pole and led the entire race for the win.

Joey Haase of Norfolk ran second for the first five laps before Cole Wiley of Norfolk made a last lap pass.

Wiley finished second and Haase was third.

Cameron Meyer (21) took the checkered flags first for the fourth time this season.

Gage Koch (96) got his first win of his career.

Shannon Pospisil (00) grabbed a runner-up finish in the feature. His third top 5 finish this season.

Kandie Smidt (2) leads Wyatt Lehman (6) in their heat race.

Chase Osborne (14) pushes up the track in his heat race. Later he finished third in the feature.
