John Dunklau of Norfolk led the first six laps, but after a caution, Meyer moved out front and led the final six laps for his first track win.

Meyer started on the outside of the third row and was running third on the completion of the first lap. Three laps later he was second.

Following Meyer to the line was Cody Relitz of Norfolk. Third went to Jeremy Barg, who made a last lap pass on Dunklau, who was fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk.

Cameron Meyer (21) takes his first set of checkered flags last week.

Jeremy Barg makes a late race pass to take third place in the "A" feature.

Osborne captures first checkers of season

With rain looming in the background, the Grand National division took to the track for their 25-lap battle.

Cory Haase of Norfolk took advantage of his pole position to lead the first nine laps that was slowed for three cautions.

Two laps after the third restart, Robert Osborne of Norfolk challenge Haase of the lead, but it was Alex Banks of Norfolk who came out to lead the 10 lap.

Banks led a total of eight laps.

On the fourth of five restarts on the night, Banks was leading, Osborne second and Bob Milander of Pierce was third.

On the restart, Milander went for the lead over Banks; however, Osborne made the move and came out on top.

Osborne went on to lead the final eight laps for his win of season at the track.

Banks took second and Milander was third. Haase was credited with fourth and Nick Opfer of Hartington rounded out the top 5.

Tracy Buck celebrates after winning his first "A" feature at the track.

Tracy Buck (28) flies through his heat race to take the win and later took his first "A" feature win at the track.

Kevin Haase (9) led the first two laps, as TB Coover (711) tries to get under him at the start of the race.

Buck pulls off first track victory

Neligh Hobby Stock driver Tracy Buck has been racing at the track since 2007. He picked up his first top 5 finish last season.

Last week, he won his first "A" feature and he already has finished in the top five twice.

Kevin Haase of Plainview led the first two laps when Buck jumped out front as the race looked to be going uninterrupted.

However, Haase found himself having help getting spun out to bring out the only caution of the night.

It would be on the caution that Buck's fans and family gasped, as Buck went too hard into the first turn and spun his stock car out.

Luckily, Matt Haase of Norfolk had jumped the restart and the race had never restarted. That gave Buck the lead back and a second chance at getting his stock car back on track.

Buck went back to work on the restart, as Jeremy Brabec of Stanton had plans to be the spoiler.

Brabec started second on the restart and was working on Buck in the final three laps. At the checkered flags Buck had a half car lead on Brabec to take the win.

Brabec finished second, MD Sehi of Neligh took third and Mark Arduser of Battle Creek was fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Matt Haase.

Above, Tracy Buck (28) out races Jeremy Brabec to the checkered flags (99). Below, Buck spins out on a restart, however, he caught a break because the caution had already had come out for a different reason.

Mark Arduser (4) keeps Matt Haase (81) pinched to the bottom to hold off the pass late in the race. Arduser finished fourth and Haase took home fifth.
