Eric Sloan (27) finished the night winning his third "A" feature of the season and remains the only multiple winner in his division.

Sloan does it again

Eric Sloan picked up his third win of the season last week.

Sloan started back in the pack and had to work his way to the front.

After the first caution following the completion of the third lap, Sloan was ninth in the 15-car field.

Two laps later he was running fifth.

Paul Wieneke of Neligh led the first six laps before falling to Sloan on lap seven.

Sloan captured the win.

With two laps remaining, Grant Hurlbert of Winside got by Wieneke to finish in the runner-up spot. Wieneke took third for his first top 5.

Kyle Mizner of Norfolk captured his first top 5 of the season when he finished fourth. Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk rounded out the top 5 for his fourth top 5 of the season.

Tyson Freeman (29) slides sideways after getting tagged by Cody Relitz (51).

Tom Marksmeier (92) passes Kevin Haase (9) for the lead in the feature. Marksmeier picked up his first win of the season and his fourth top 5 of the year.

Marksmeier wins his first feature of season

In the Hobby Stock class it was the inside row that moved to the front at the start of the feature. Kevin Haase of Norfolk started on the pole and led the first lap. Tom Marksmeier of Norfolk followed into the second position.

Marksmeier went after Haase and on the second lap Marksmeier edged out Haase to lead the lap. He led the final 14 laps to win his first feature of the season. It was his fourth top 5.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk crossed the line second. He moved into the position on the fourth lap. His second top 5.

Jeremy Brabec of Stanton tried what he could to get by Kimmel, however, he had to settle for third. It was his fifth top 5.

TB Coover of Neligh took fourth for his first top 5. Haase rounded out the top 5, his second top 5.

Grant Hurlbert (85) runs inside Shannon Pospisil (00). Hurlbert placed second and Pospisil took fifth.

Travis Birkley picked up his first Grand National "A" feature win at the track last week.

Birkley victorious for first time at track

Starting from the pole position, Travis Birkley of Wakefield took off from the drop of the green flag and led the entire 25-lap feature to win his first Grand National "A" feature.

But the race was not easy. The first caution was thrown after the completion of the 10th lap. Doug Tomka of Stanton went into turn one losing fluid and then spun out.

Jim Johnson of Plainview tried to avoid Tomka, but the fluid caused him to collide with each other. The damage ended both drivers' night.

Four laps later, Heath Clausen brought out the final caution when he climbed the back-stretch wall.

The final 11 laps went uninterrupted and Birkley claimed the win. Second went to Chad Jensen of Norfolk when he slipped past Mike Benson of Wakefield on the final restart.

Benson finished third. Tad Pospisil of Norfolk went home fourth and Chris Johnson of Bloomfield rounded out the top 5.

Chad Jensen (73) took second in the feature, as Mike Benson (71) was third.

Chris Johnson (7) tries to pass Tad Pospisil (04) in the closing laps of the "A" feature Heath Clausen (5) jumps the wall and almost exited the track during the "A" feature last week.

Jim Johnson (36) collides with Doug Tomka (65) after Tomka dumped fluid on the track. Both cars retired from the race.
