Travis Birkley (78) picked up his second feature win and jumped to second in the point standings.

Wakefield driver does it again

Wakefield's Travis Birkley captured his second win last week in only his first season.

Birkley had one win back in 2006 in the Street Stock division and in the four years in the division he posted 20 top 5s.

Last week's win gave him four Grand National top 5s and moved him to second in the points behind leader Chad Jensen of Norfolk.

Birkley started last week on the outside of the front row. He would lead all 25 laps in his win when he edged out Alex Banks to lead the first lap.

Birkley then checked out on the field, opening up a full straightaway lead. Chris Johnson broke into the top 3 on lap eight and passed Banks for second a lap later.

For sixteen laps, Johnson slowly chewed away at Birkley's lead. Birkley's lead slipped away more and more as he caught the back of the field.

With two laps remaining in the 25-lap race, Johnson caught Birkley. Coming to take the white flag, Johnson dove to the inside of Birkley.

Unsuccessful at the move, Birkley took the win and Johnson followed through second.

Jensen finished third, Banks was fourth and Nick Opfer of Hartington rounded out the top 5.
