Tom Marksmeier (92) runs the outside of Tracy Buck (28). Marksmeier won his second feature of the season.

Marksmeier wins again

Tom Marksmeier of Norfolk led all but one lap in the Hobby Stock feature to win his second win of the season last week.

Buck led the first lap, but then it was all Marksmeier. He endured three cautions keeping Buck at bay at each of the restarts.

TB Coover of Neligh grabbed third, Jeremy Brabec of Stanton finished fourth and Tate Weinrich of Hoskins rounded out the top 5.

TB Coover (7) and Jeremy Brabec (99) battle for the third position in the feature. Coover continues his top 5 run when he got the third spot at the checkered flags. It was his third top 5 finish and second straight.

Matt Haase exits turn four during his heat race. Haase finished ninth in the feature and is six points out of leading the point standings.

MD Sehi (16) finished just outside the top 5 at the sixth position.

TeJay Mielke (77) captured his third win of the season and his ninth top 5.

Mielke outruns field for third victory

Street Stock driver TeJay Mielke of Norfolk battled with Crofton's Jason Hames for the lead throughout the 14-lap feature.

Hames started from the pole position and grabbed the early lead. He led the first two laps before Mielke moved out front. Hames came back to go side-by-side with Mielke on the fourth lap.

Hames started falling back and he was in jeopardy of falling to third to Chad Bruns of Wayne, but a caution came out resetting the field.

Hames fought his way back and led the first lap after restart. However, Mielke regained the lead on the next lap to lead the final six laps for the win.

It was Mielke's third win of the season. Bruns made the pass on Hames with two laps remaining. Hames finished third. Fourth went to Nick Cautrell of Winside and rounding out the top 5 was Troy Bruns of Wayne.
