Zuhlke streak continues on

For Bancroft's Curt Zuhlke driving into victory lane has become a habit, as he has won his fourth consecutive "A" feature last Saturday night.

As Zuhlke's success continues his starting position gets deeper in the 15-car field. Starting ninth, Zuhlke struggled to get to the front, picking up one position every three laps for the first portion of the race. His biggest charge came after the last caution flew with 19 laps left in the 25-lap race when a jam up in turn three allowed him to go from sixth to third.

Zuhlke had been using a high line around the track and turned out to be quicker when a tire lining the corner in turn one was struck and water from the rain early in the day was splashed onto the track.

Raymond Haase of Norfolk, who a good run going, slid in the water and was turned sideways, allowing Zuhlke to get by Travis Dickes (24) leads Raymond Haase (2x) and Vic Lovejoy (2) through turn four.

Finally, the big one

Throener claims first victory

"It's about time," was Throener's response following his "A" feature win in the Street Stock division. The win mark his best effort of the season and his career.

Throener dedicated the race to the late Richard Brachle. Throener said Brachle helped him through his years of racing, as well as, many other drivers.

The 19-year-old led from the drop of the green flag as he started on the pole position. Throener easily out raced the rest of the field throughout the first 13 of 15 laps again.

It was two weeks earlier when Throener was leading the race and with two laps left a tire went flat ending his bid for victory.

This time, however, Throener was not concerned about his tires, but his water temperature. He sat and watch the gauge go beyond the normal 210 degrees and peg out at 260 degrees.

Throener kept his foot on the gas and beat out a hard charging Loecker in the final laps. Throener won the race by inches as Loecker got a good run off four on the final lap and made it two-wide across the finish line.

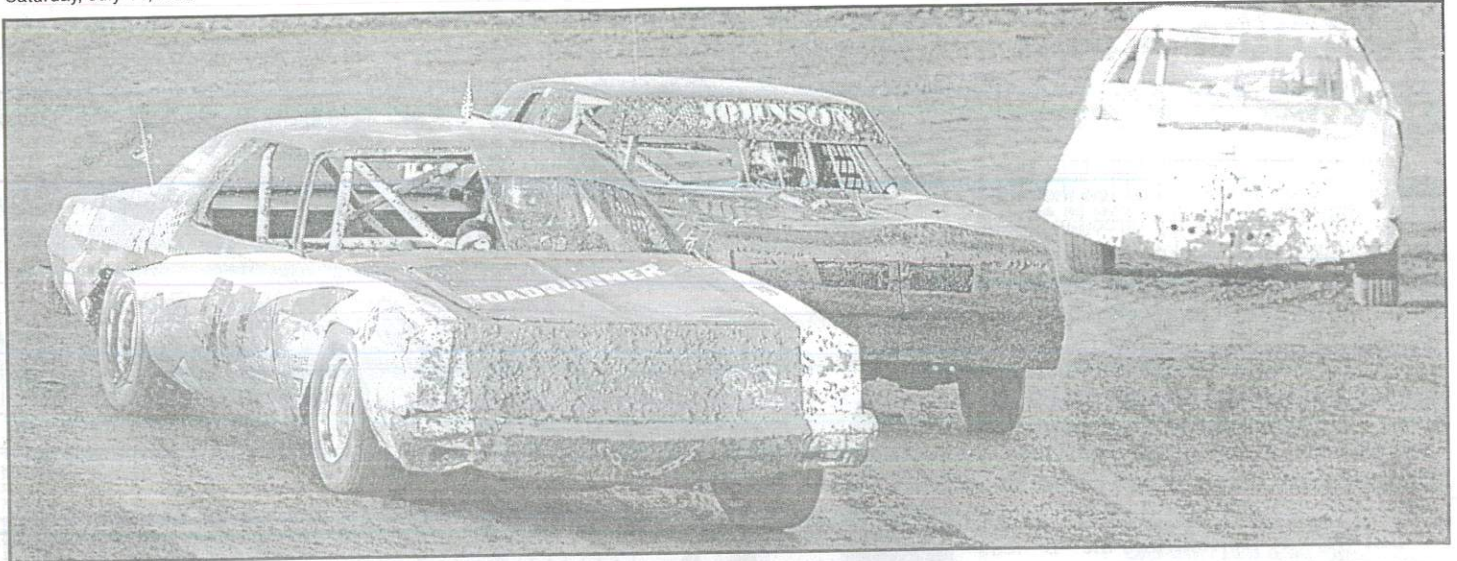

As Throener parked his Street Stock on the front stretch, steam rolled out from under hood and a puddle of antifreeze formed under the engine.

Last weeks winner, Joel Carlson of Winside made it through the field to finish third. Chris Johnson and Darrell Doerr rounded out the top five.

Points leader Jim Johnson of Bloomfield was involved in an incident of someone else's doing on the second lap. He was towed off the track to finish 14th out of 15 cars.

Pat Jensen of Stanton won the "B" feature beating Dennis Martz of Norfolk and Nick Cautrell of Bloomfield. Hartington's Nick Opfer won the "C" feature with Randy Bertschinger of Creighton taking second.

John Dunklau of Norfolk, Ron Pettitt of Pierce, Jeff Ronspies of Norfolk and Throener won their heats.

Heat and "A" feature winner Jason Throener (99) led all 23 laps possible in one night.

Kelly Meilke (70) slides through the corner.

Zuhlke then headed out for Travis Dickes of Norfolk, who had led the entire race so far. It took Zuhlke three laps to get by the youngster and take the lead with 10 laps to go. Zuhlke pulled a large lead on Dickes and went on to winning his fourth straight main event.

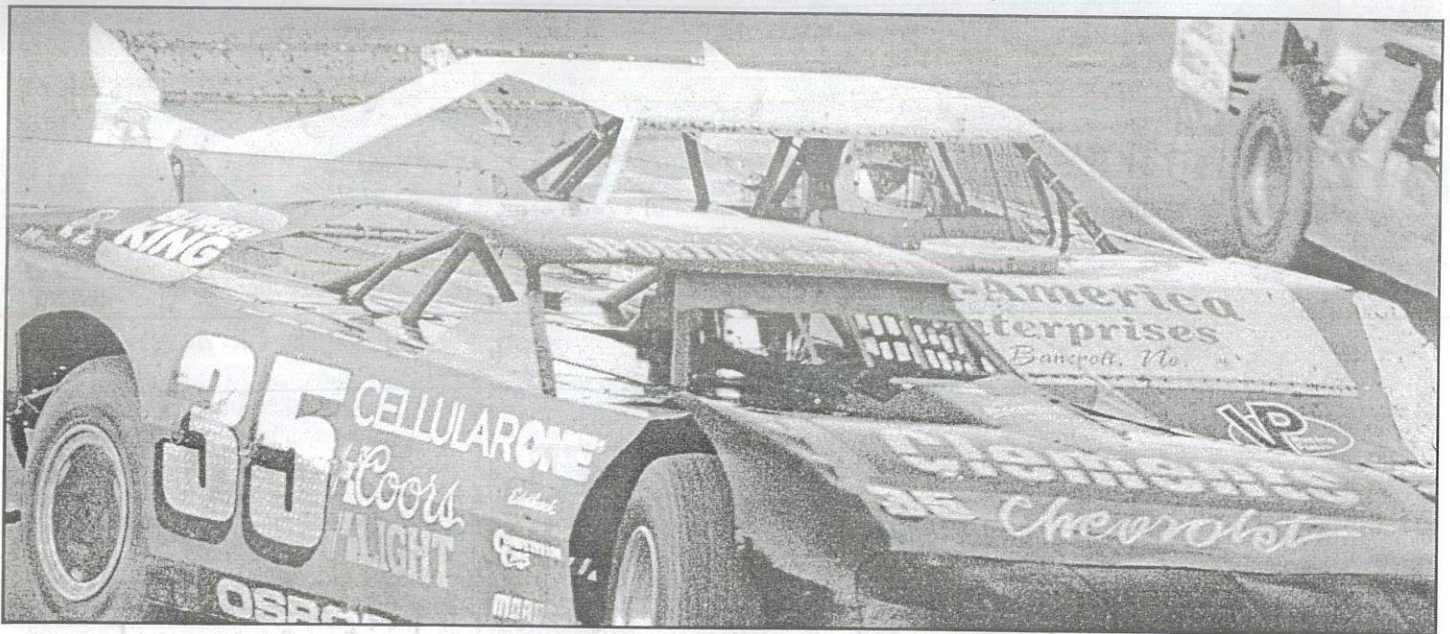

Dickes remained second across the line for his first top five of the year. Haase came through third for his best showing of the year. He had already placed fourth three different times.

Bill Wells of Norfolk won the "B" feature to qualify for the "A." Jon Haase of Plainview and Chad Jensen of Norfolk were second and third, respectively.

Roth won his eighth straight heat race of the season, as R. Haase and Zuhlke won their heats.

Raymond Haase (2x) packs the track. Later that night, he posted his best effort this season with a third place finish.

Defending champion and current points leader-Robert Osborne (35) tries to keep a hot Curt Zuhlke (Oz) behind him in the heat race.
