Matthies grabs first win

Cousins battle to the end to win

In his third year of running the Grand National division, Norfolk's Steve Matthies brought home his first "A" feature win of the year last Saturday night and his fourth career divisional win.

Matthies drove in the Street Stock division for 10 years before he made the move to the Grand National ranks. And in those three years as a Grand National driver, he has claimed at least one win a season.

Unlike any of his previous victories, Matthies had the extra bonus of racing side-by-side with his rookie cousin Travis Roth of Bancroft for the final 23 laps of 25-lap event.

Starting on the inside of row three, Matthies grabbed the top spot from pole sitter Chad Jensen of Norfolk on lap three.

Several laps later, Matthies started getting nudged from the car behind him.

At first, Matthies thought the car behind him was the long-time veteran Reggie Roth of Bancroft. He said he knew if it was R. Roth any mistake he made would end his chance of winning.

A few laps later, however, he found out it was not R. Roth as he was about to over-lap the elder Roth.

Not sure if it was T. Roth, who has the identical paint scheme as his father, Matthies continued to wonder and try to run his line.

A couple laps later during the first of two cautions at lap 18, he found out it was his cousin, T. Roth.

Matthies said he was relieved to see it was T. Roth, because he knew T. Roth would not take him out.

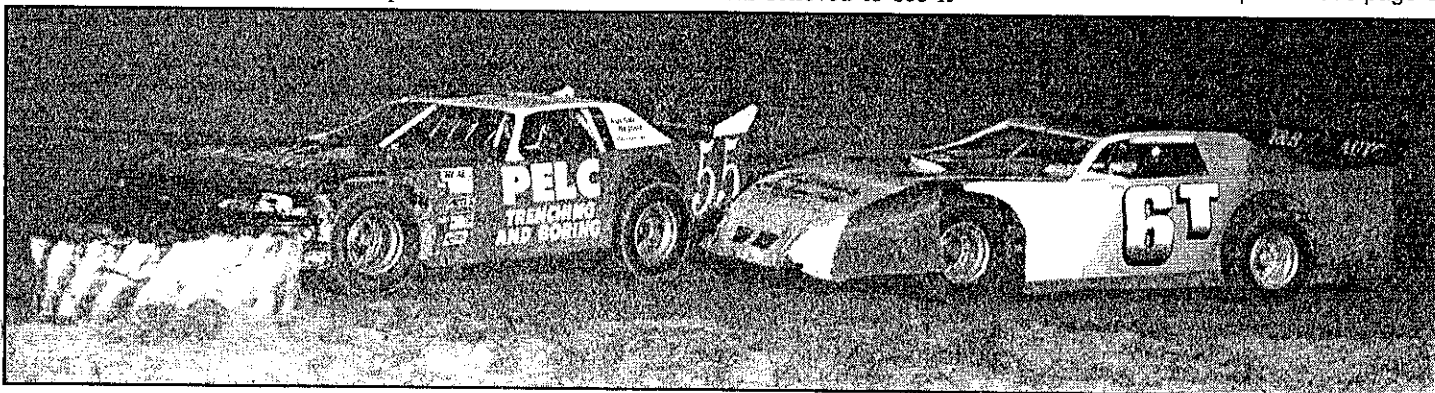

The track had become a one groove track and that was as low as you could get, said Matthies. If a car got out of the groove, it was too slick and the car would drift to the wall.

On the restart, Matthies dove low into turn one and got a slight nudge from T. Roth, who had gotten his nose up along the side of Matthies car.

"That was the best chance I had to getting around him," said T. Roth.

Matthies would hang onto the lead the rest of the seven laps, but Travis would give Matthies a reminder every lap that he was Travis Roth (67) gives Steve Matthies a little nudge in turns one and two following a restart. Matthies was able to hold off Roth and pick up the "A" feature win.

Back-to-back "A" feature wins for Yankton's Kim Termansen

Racing at the Hartington race track the last four years, Yankton's Kim Termansen has started racing at Riviera Raceway this year and has become a driver to watch, as he won his second consecutive Street Stock "A" feature this season.

With the closing of the Hartington race track, several drivers have decided to pull their cars into Norfolk and race at Riviera. Out of the top 10 in points at Riviera, at least six drivers ran a full season at Hartington in the previous years.

Termansen became the fifth back-to-back Street Stock "A" feature winner in the last two years. Pat Jensen of Stanton was the first one last year, winning on May 10 and 17 of 1997.

Ron Pettitt of Pierce was next, winning on June 28 and July 3 of 1997. Darrell Doerr of Plainview was next when he finished out his four-win season, claiming two in a row on Aug. 2 and 9 of 1997.

This year, Chris Johnson of Bloomfield was the first one, winning on May 16 and

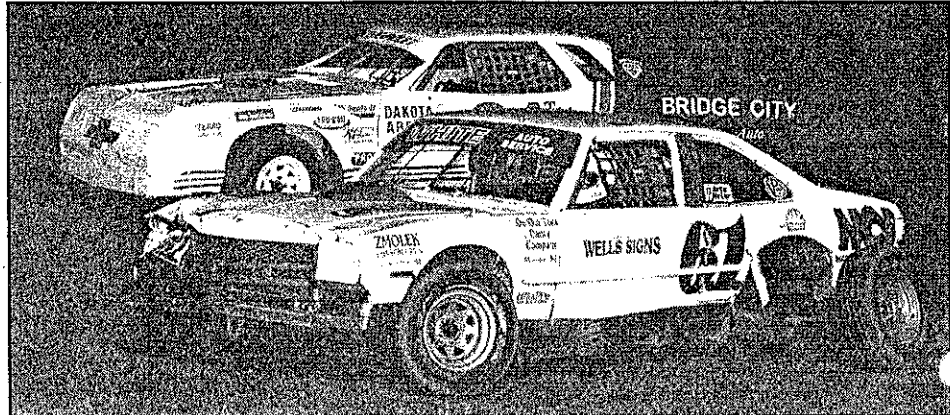

25. And now Termansen grabbed back-to-back wins.

Termansen made quick work out of the field as he went from seventh to second in the first lap and passed Brian Wagner of Winnetoon on lap two following a restart to take over the lead.

The race got off to a shaky start when Terry Walker of Norfolk bounced it off the wall on the first lap and then was struck broadside.

Walker said hitting the wall was not all that bad, but when he was struck in the side, he felt it. Jason Throener of Pilger was left with no place to go but into the side of Walker when he was exiting turn four.

That put the field into a single file restart, with Termansen now fifth, as Walker was done for the night and Throener at the rear of the field after making repairs.

When the field took the green for the second time, Termansen managed to get by Dennis Martz of Norfolk, Russ White of Norfolk and Nick Cautrell of Bloomfield on the first lap. White was able to make a bid for second on the second lap, but his axle broke giving Termansen the runner up spot. The yellow flag flew for White.

That put Wagner first, Termansen second and Cautrell third, with only one lap down.

Only one lap would be run before the next caution, but it was enough for Termansen to get by Wagner for the lead. During the caution, Wagner would pull from the track to end his night.

Termansen would lead the rest of the 13 of 15 laps. Travis Loecker, who tried to catch Termansen in the final 12 laps settled for second again.

It was Loecker's third straight second place finish and his fourth second place finish in the last five weeks. In fact, all of Loecker's top five finishes have been in the top two spots — one first place and four runner-up places.

Rounding out the top five from Saturday night was Pettitt, Doerr and Johnson.

Johnson leads with the most top fives at seven. Doerr and Jim Johnson of Bloomfield have six. Doerr and Pettitt are the only two Street Stock drivers to qualify for the "A" feature all 10 weeks.

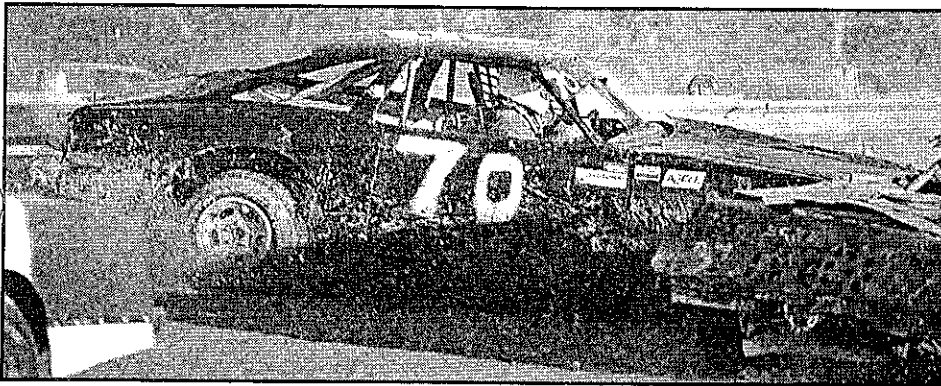

Doerr has come from the "B" feature once, while Pettitt has run the "C" feature once and the "B" feature twice to make the main event.

Pettitt, however, has the most heat race wins with seven. Termansen is next with four.

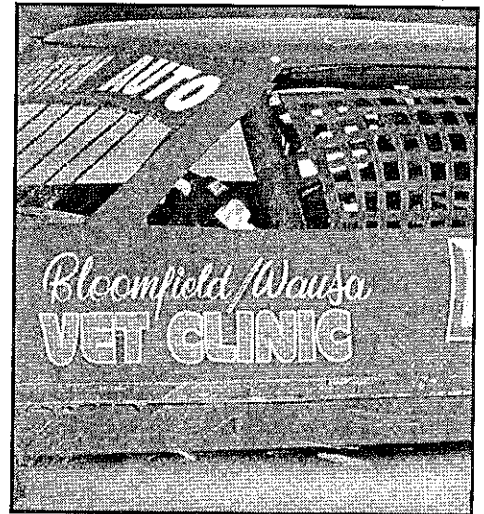

Winning the "B" feature last Saturday was Joel Carlson of Winside. Throener was second and Nick Opfer of Hartington third.

The "C" feature was won by Mike Timm of Pierce, while John Dunklau was second and Randy Bertschinger of Creighton was third.

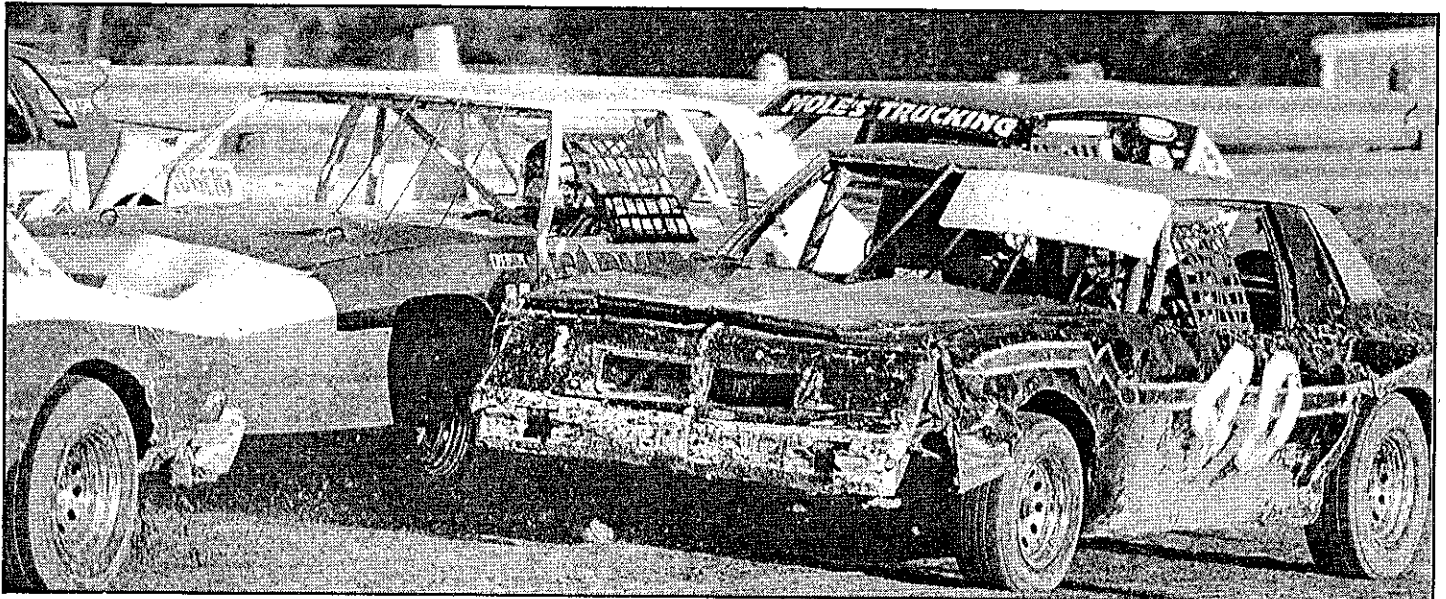

Heat race wins went to Termansen, Pettitt, Wagner and C. Johnson. It was Wagner's first and C. Johnson's third.

Kelly Melke returns to earth after getting into the air when he struck the back stretch guard rail in his heat race.

Chris Johnson flies down the back straightaway. He has seven top five finishes in his first full season at Riviera.

Randy Bertschinger (40), Pat Jensen (1) battle down the back stretch with Travis Loecker in tow, during fourth heat race.

back there and any mistake he made he would take over the point.

Matthies crossed the finish line first, T. Roth, a car length back was second. It was the best effort by both drivers so far this season. Matthies finished third the previous week and third on June 20. T. Roth's best run was third on May 30.

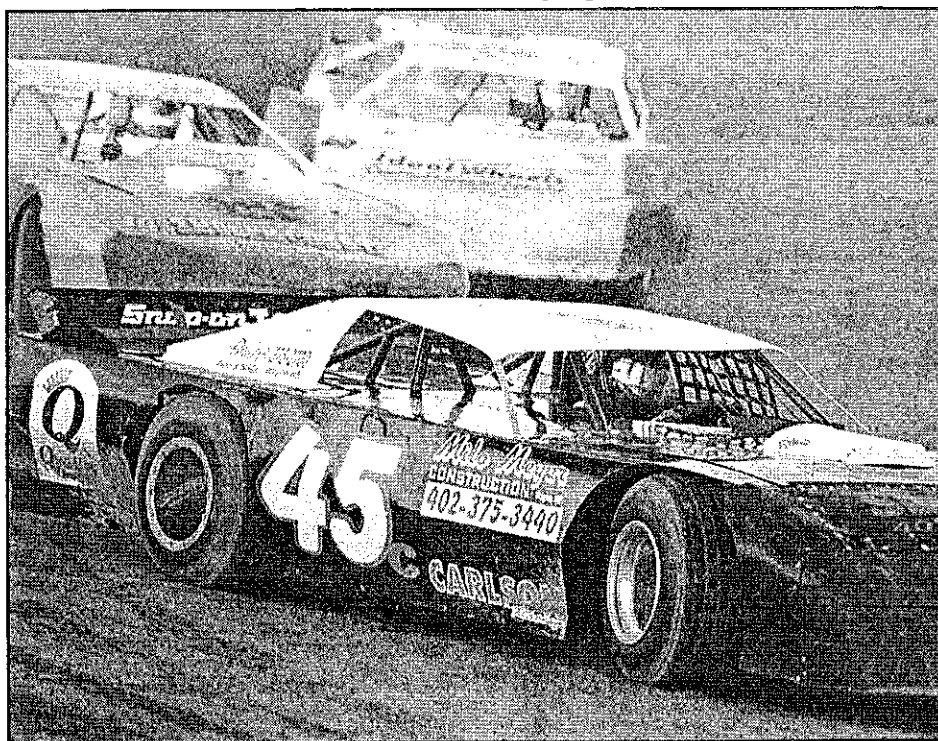

Rounding out the top five was Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove, who broke out of his slump, Curt Zuhlke of Bancroft and Robert Osborne, who has the most top five finishes. Osborne has appeared in all 10 "A" features and has nine top five finishes.

Zuhlke, R. Roth, Lovejoy and Raymond Haase of Norfolk are next with each having six top fives.

Bob Milander won the "B" feature over Jay Smith, who returned to the track after damaging his car several weeks ago. Travis Dickes of Madison was third.

R. Roth continues to dominate the heat races, claiming all 10 he has raced. Also winning heat races were Zuhlke and T. Roth. It was Zuhlke's fifth and T. Roth's first win.

Robert Osborne leads the points standings over R. Roth. Matthies made the biggest jump in points, as he led 23 laps to gain an extra point a lap. T. Roth followed Matthies in the points, also making a sizable jump.

Jeff Carlson (45c) leads Jeff Haase (94) and Reggie Roth (60) in the early laps of his heat race. He would finish second to heat race winning expert Reggie Roth. Roth has won his last 11 heat races dating back to Sept. 13, 1997.

Winning the bikini contest was Suzanne Krings.

Winning the grandma bikini contest was Carol Fiedler.
