Doerr runs down Timm for win

With a very light rain falling Saturday night, Riviera Raceway was able to complete a full night of racing with only one minor rain delay to repack the track.

The rain caused some interesting racing for the Cruiser class, as sometimes the entire field would simultaneously slide to the top of the rain covered corners.

The Cruiser heat races were stopped and cars from all divisions were asked to come back out and work the moisture back out of the track.

Long-time Grand National veteran Raymond Haase of Norfolk pushed his car hard into the corner to check the track surface and reported it was "fast."

That proved to be the case in the Street

Stock division, as two strong cars ran down a cautious driver in the final moments of the "A" feature as Darrell Doerr of Plainview would grab his second main event win of the season.

Mike Timm of Pierce joined the growing list of names who have led the majority of the race, but failed to lead the important one.

Timm led the caution-free 15-lap "A" feature from the drop of the green flag to lap 13, only to have Doerr lead the final two.

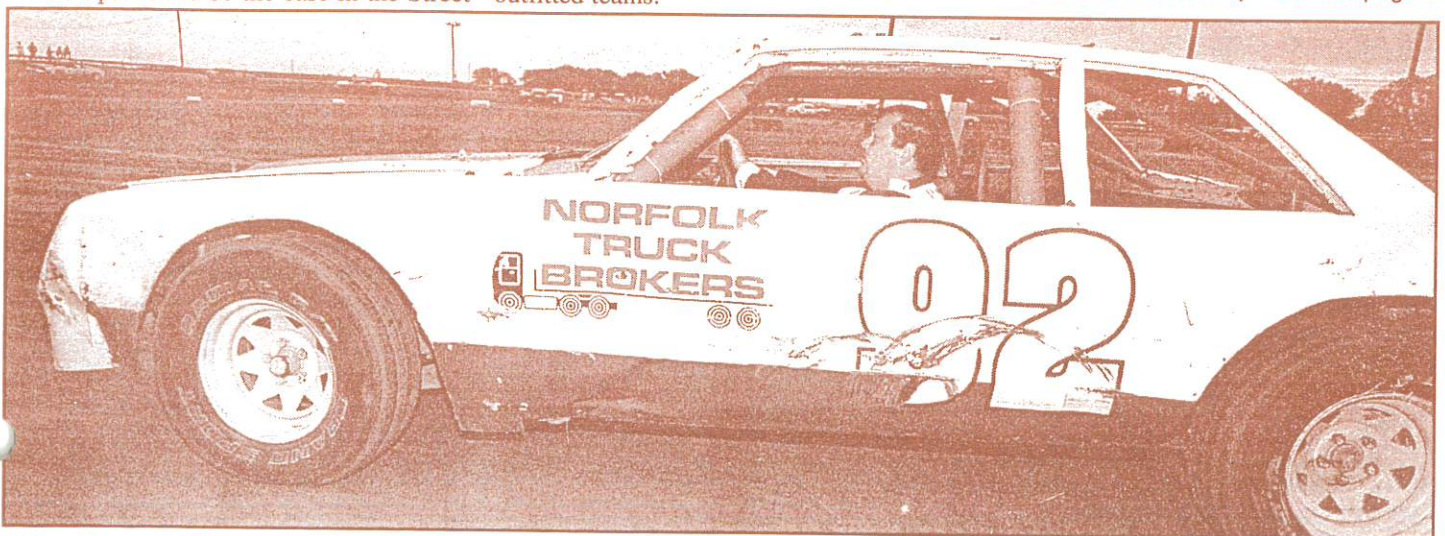

Before the night start, Timm commented a fast track is a disadvantage for him, as his power plant is no match for the bigger outfitted teams.

During the first part of the race, Timm pulled away from the rest of the field when they were sorting themselves out. It was until lap seven when Jim Johnson of Bloomfield and Doerr finally got by Ned Bertschinger of Creighton to take the second and third spot.

The two then slowly gained on Timm, who by then had nearly a full straightaway lead. It was on lap 13 when the duo caught Timm going into turn three.

Johnson, not knowing Doerr was on his tail, decided to take Timm on the inside, but Johnson had to check up to avoid spinning Timm. Doerr, who was running the Mike Timm (92) led the first 13 laps and posted his best finish of the year with a third place finish.

Travis Roth beats father to line

In only his 11th "A" feature start in his career at Riviera Raceway, Travis Roth of Bancroft took home his first main event win. He came close two weeks previously and ran second last week.

This week, however, it was his turn to lead the final lap. Leading the final 18 laps, and holding off his dad, Bancroft veteran Reggie Roth, T. Roth ran a flawless race.

T. Roth said he was concerned when he discovered Curt Zuhlke of Bancroft and Robert Osborne of Norfolk were working their way through the 15-car field and getting closer each lap.

Several late race cautions made the rookie even more nervous, knowing soon or later he would have to battle for the win. T. Roth said he picked what he felt was the fastest line around the track, forcing others drivers to find different lines to pass him.

T. Roth took over the top spot with lap eight from Jeff Carlson of Wayne. He moved away from the field until the final caution flew with eight laps remaining.

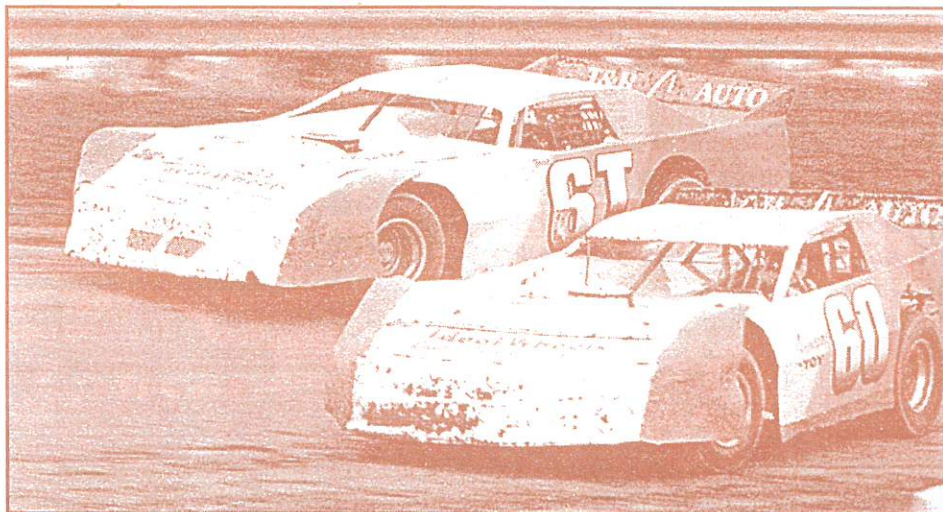

On the restart, T. Roth was first, Carlson second, Zuhlke third and Osborne fourth. Zuhlke downed Carlson on the drop of the green flag and was now looking to get by T. Roth.

R. Roth put on his own racing clinic and passed five cars in a lap and a half to take over third. Zuhlke and R. Roth would battle for second for several laps, before R.

Reggie Roth (60) had the upper hand in the heat race, but his son, Travis won the "A" feature, while Reggie was second.

Roth got the upper hand.

The battle put the duo at the back bumper of the younger Roth, but after they got single file, they fell back from the leader.

R. Roth made a last effort to catch his son, but came up several car lengths short. Zuhlke hung on and finished third, with Osborne fourth and Jay Smith of Norfolk fifth.

Carlson dropped to finish just outside the top five with a sixth place finish. Carlson is one of six drivers to compete in each of the 11 "A" features this season. However, he is the only one that has not finished in the top five.

Norfolk's Bill Wells grabbed his second "B" feature win. He defeated Doug Tomka of Norfolk and Travis Dickes of Madison.

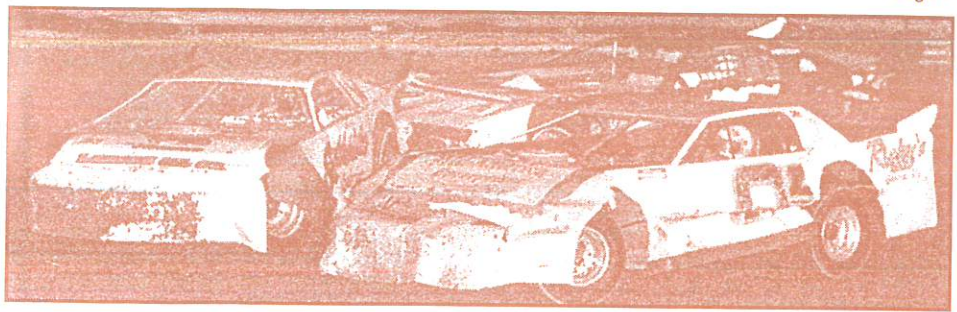

Heat races went to Zuhlke, R. Roth and Milander. It was R. Roth's 11th, Zuhlke's sixth and Milander's second.

Osborne continues to lead the Grand National points. He has finished in the top five 10 times in 11 nights. Which is the most by any driver has done this year.

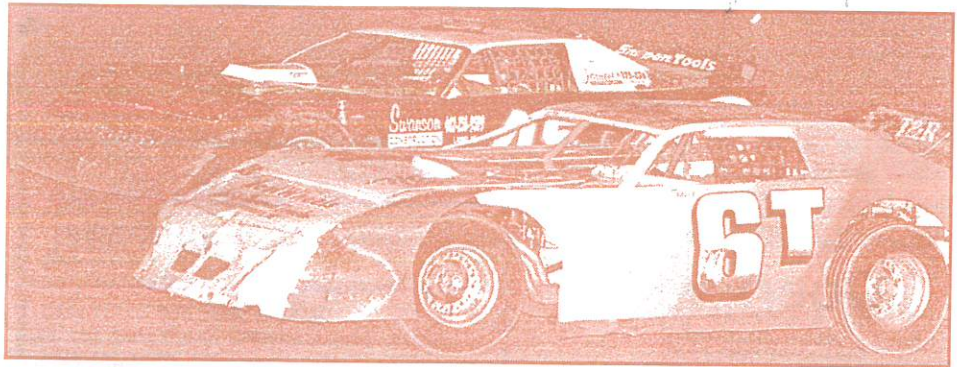

Osborne has one win, three seconds, two thirds, three fourths and one fifth. His other finish was seventh, which was the makeup race for the June 6 rain out.

Both Zuhlke and R. Roth each have six top five finishes. Zuhlke has four wins, while R. Roth won the first night out and has finished second four times.

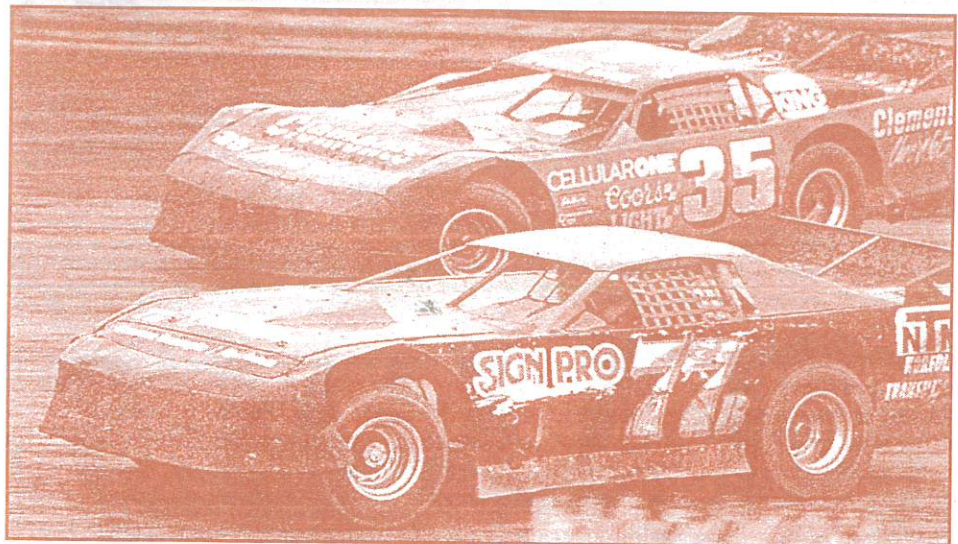

R. Roth sits second in the points, with Zuhlke at third — 100 points behind first. Rounding out the top five is Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove and Raymond Haase of Norfolk, respectively.

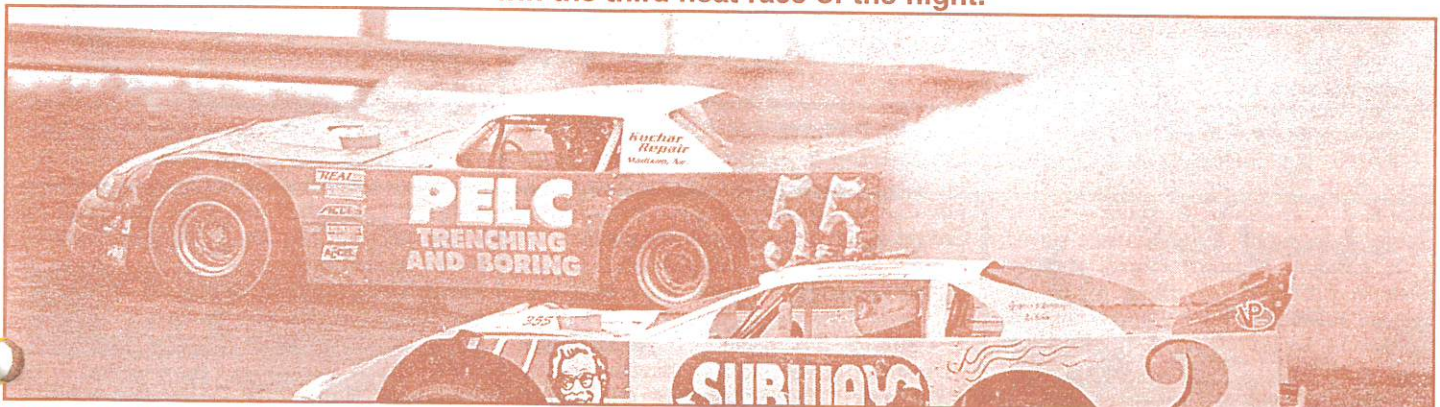

Raymond Haase (2X), Jay Smith (77) and Curt Zuhlke get together in the first and second turns 17 laps into the "A" feature.

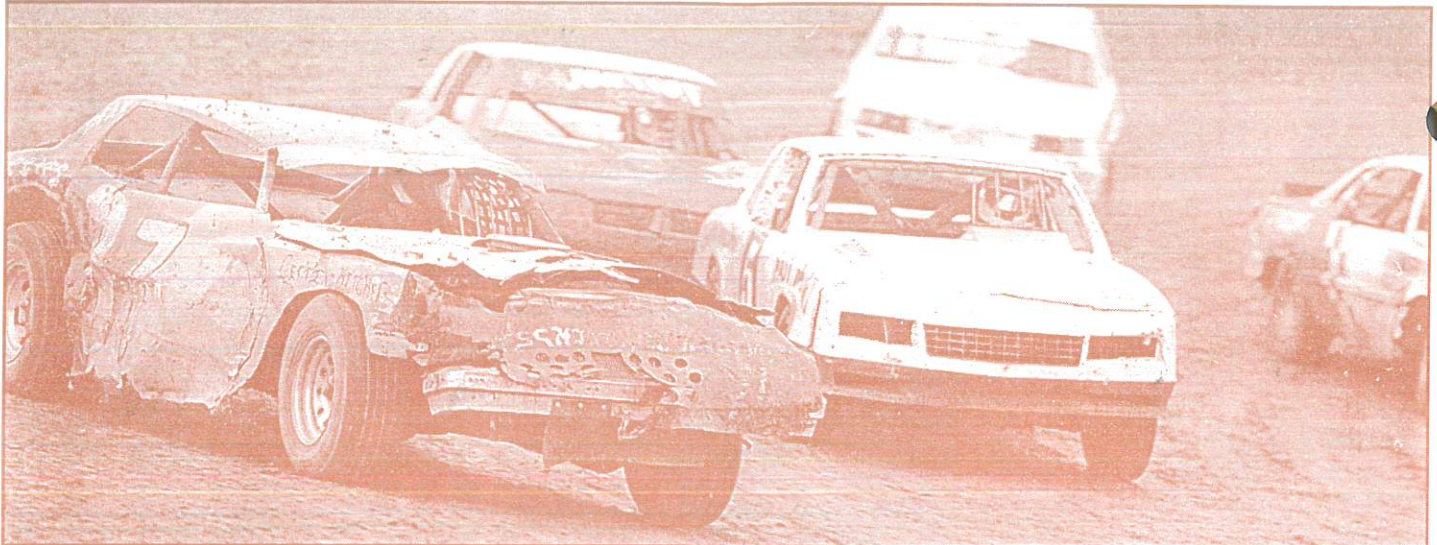

Travis Roth (6T) passes Jeff Carlson (45C) for the lead.

Bob Milander (77B) holds off points leader Robert Osborne (35) to win the third heat race of the night.

Steve Matthies (55) won the week before, but was not going to victory lane two weeks in a row, as he cooked his engine going down the back stretch leaving parts in his wake.

Ned Bertschinger (37) leads Ned Hodgson (5), Jim Johnson (36), Joel Carlson (49) and Nick Cautrell (05B) out turn four during their heat race. Johnson won the race high side, had no trouble and passed both Johnson and Timm to take the white flag.

Doerr also took the checkered for his second win of the season, as Johnson finished second.

Timm, who said he became too cautious toward the end, held onto third, his first top five finish of the year.

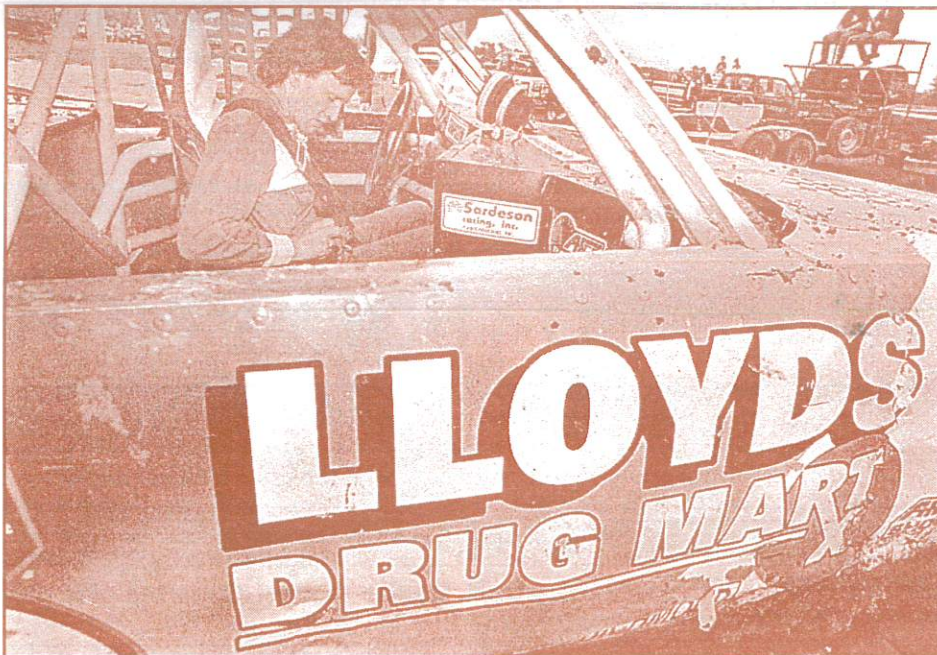

Rounding out the top five was two-time winner Kim Termansen and Travis Loecker, breaking his four week string of runner up finishes.

Ron Pettitt of Pierce found himself in the "B" feature again and won it over Nick Opfer of Hartington. Randy Bertschinger of Creighton was the last car to transfer to the "A" feature.

John Dunklau of Norfolk powered his vehicle to a top place finish in the "C" feature, beating Terry Walker and Jeremy Gnat, both of Norfolk, to the line.

Heat races went to Timm, Johnson, Travis Loecker of Bloomfield and Dennis Martz of Norfolk. It was Timm's first heat race win, while Martz and Loecker picked up their third. Johnson claimed his second of the season.

In the points race, it was the fifth different driver to lead the points, as Doerr is tied with Loecker. Pettitt who was leading going into the night fell to third, as Johnson jumps three spots to fourth.

Dennis Martz (25) buckles into this Lloyd's Drug Mart sponsored Street Stock.
