Smith claims second feature win

Three cars battle to finish line

It was a month ago when Grand National driver Jay Smith of Norfolk got turned around on the back stretch and was truck head on by Keith Hansen of Norfolk leaving both drivers with badly damaged stock cars.

Hansen would return a week later, but Smith would sit out a second week to make the necessary repairs.

Even after returning, Smith said the car took time to get back into shape and get the set up on the car the way he had it before the incident.

Last week he finished into the top five and with the car dialed in, he picked up his second win of the season when raced Curt Zuhlke and Reggie Roth, both of Bancroft, for the win last Saturday night.

Starting from the inside of row four, Smith worked his way to the front steadily. On his way to the front, Smith said Chad Jensen of Norfolk was the toughest all night, as both Bob Milander of Norfolk and Smith tried to get by Jensen early in the race.

During the time he tried to get around, Jensen, Smith also had to protect his position, as several times Zuhlke would get to the inside of him.

Milander finally got by Jensen on lap 10 to take over the top spot. Smith said Jensen then drifted high, allowing him to zip past. A lap later he was passing Milander for the lead.

Smith would lead for three laps before the first and only caution flag flew for the cars of Travis Roth of Bancroft, who won the race the previous week and Jeff Carlson of Wayne. Both were sitting in turn four.

That bunched the field with Smith first, Milander second, Zuhlke third, Jeff Haase of Norfolk fourth and R. Roth fifth.

On the restart, Zuhlke downed Milander for second. One lap later, R. Roth made the pass around Milander for third. That set up a three-car battle for the win in the final 11 laps.

With the track getting slick, Smith said it became a one groove race track and that was at the very bottom of the track — against the large tires lining in the inside of the track.

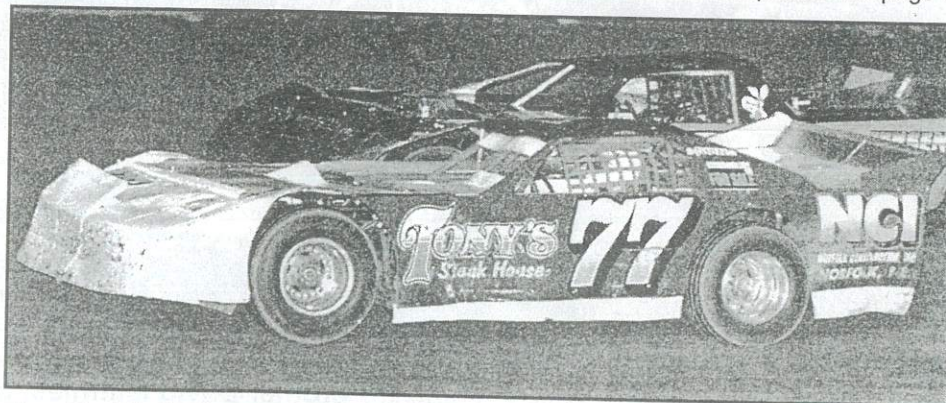

Both Zuhlke and R. Roth made their attempt to pass, but the groove was not large enough. The only thing left to do was wait for a mistake by another driver.

Smith would make the only mistake and it nearly cost him the race. Smith said he entered turn three the final time and clipped one of the large tires. The incident upset his car and the car slid high opening the bottom groove.

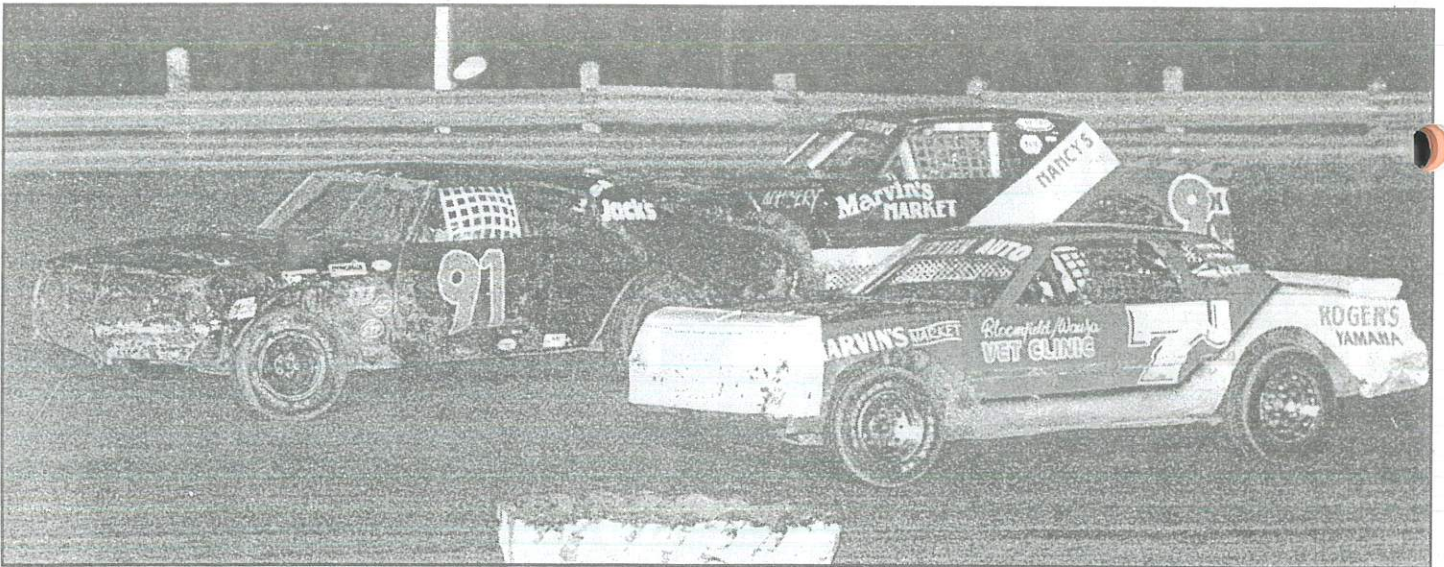

Zuhlke filled the hole, but Smith managed to gather the car back and as the two exited the fourth turn they bumped door handle-to-door handle. It then became a drag race to the finish.

Smith would win, Zuhlke second and R.

Jay Smith (77) gets to the inside of Chad Jensen (73J) during "A" feature.

Bernie Berck (91) leads Chris Johnson (7J) and Travis Loecker (9X) out of turn two. The trio was battling for third place in the "A" feature. Loecker finished third, Johnson fourth and Berck posted his best finish this season with fifth place.

Third win and had checked out on the field. Pettitt was able to close the gap, but settled for second.

Travis Loecker of Bloomfield battled with Bernie Berck and Chris Johnson for third. Loecker was able to take third with Johnson finishing fourth and Bernie Berck fifth.

It was Loecker's seventh top five finished this season.

Johnson took his eighth top five finish to lead the Street Stock division. For Berck, it was his best effort in the five "A" features he has run this season.

Pettitt and his crew were given a scare in his heat race, when he was running third when the car developed a serious problem. The car was silent and coasting down the back stretch looking like his night was done.

However, Pettitt discovered a wire on the ignition box was causing the problem.. Crew members made the necessary repairs and Pettitt was able to refire the No. 12 machine. He finished the last three laps and salvaged a four place finish forcing him to fun the "B" feature.

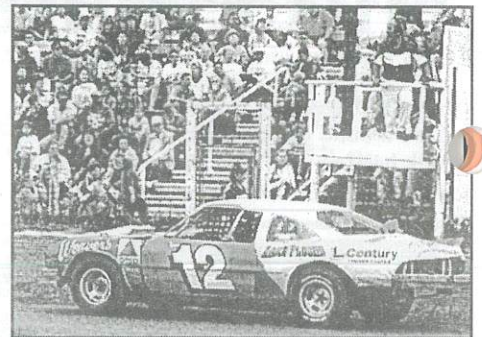

Pettitt started on the outside of the front row and won the 10-lap "B" feature. It was Pettitt's fourth top three finish in the "B."

Doerr was second, with Jason Throener of Pilger taking third. Doerr passed Throener with three laps left.

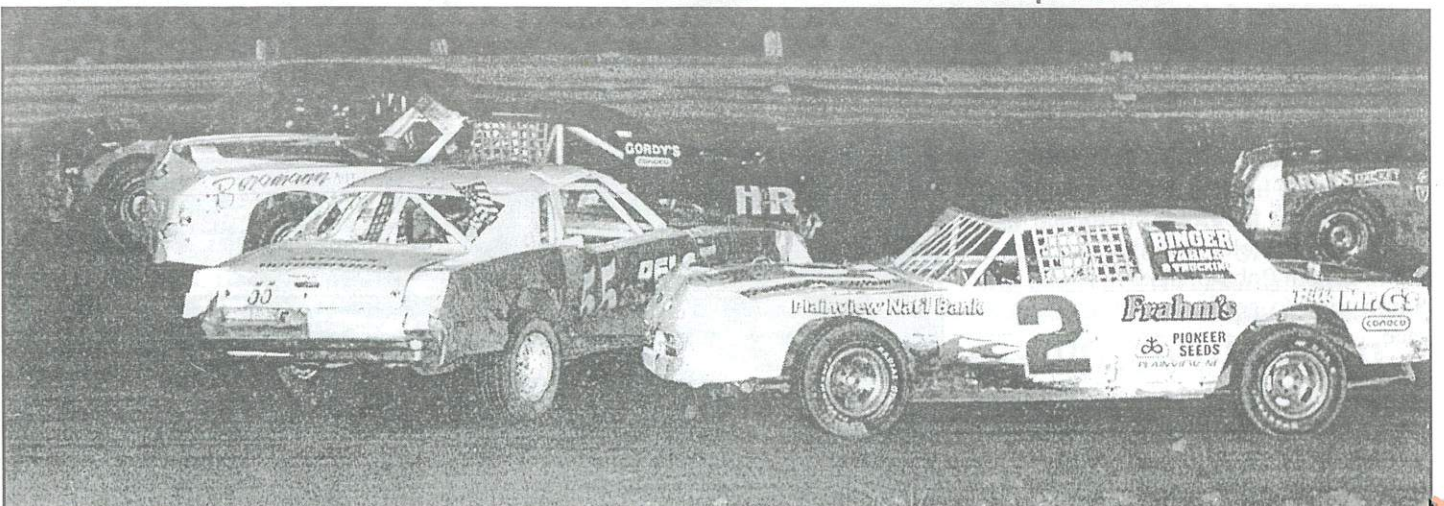

Heat races went to S. Matthies,

Carlson, Termansen and Johnson.

It was Termansen's third, Johnson's fourth, Carlson's third and Matthies first in the Street Stock division.

Ron Pettitt's engine pops and crackles after developing ignition problems.

Steve Matthies (55), who was subbing for brother David Matthies, gets sideways in turn two and then was T-boned by Darrell Doerr (2), as Jason Throener (99), Dennis Martz (25) and Chris Johnson take the high side around.

Smith wins

Roth, who attempted to go around both, finished third on the inside of Zuhlke.

It was Smith's second win of the season and his fifth top five in 10 "A" feature appearances. Zuhlke, who has won four "A" features this season, took his first second place finish. He has eight top five finishes.

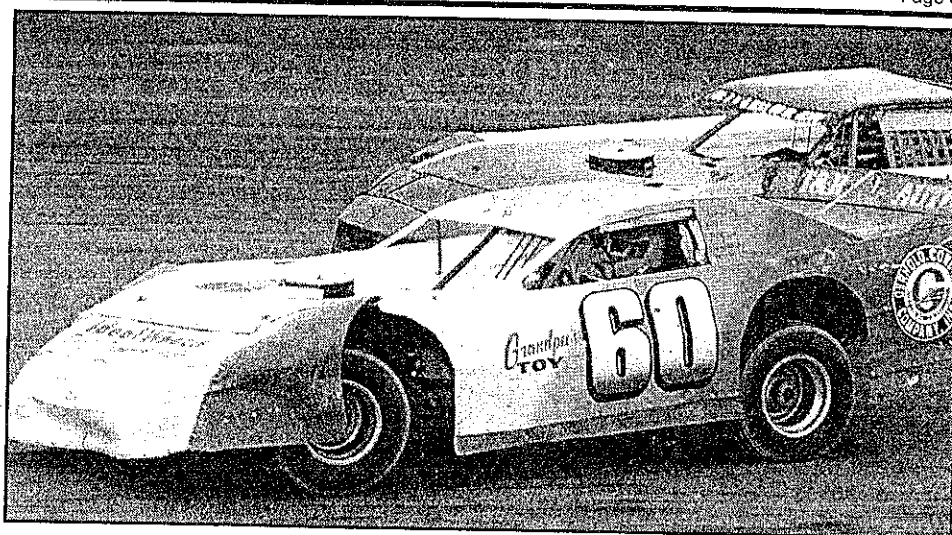

R. Roth posted his eighth top five in his 12th "A" feature appearance.

Haase would pull in fourth, his best finish of the year. He has three top five finishes in 11 feature starts.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk rounded out the top five to take his 11th top five out of 12 weeks of racing this season. He has placed in the top five the last seven races.

Bill Wells of Norfolk walked away with his second straight "B" feature win, his third win of the year. Jon Haase of Plainview was second and Jr. Clausen qualified for the "B" when he finished third in the "B" feature. Clausen had to race Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove for the transfer spot.

Lovejoy jumped into Scott Phillips' No 33 machine. Lovejoy blew the engine in his No. 2 machine during his heat race and was asked to step in for the vacationing Phillips.

Reggie Roth (60) had his work cut out for him, as he was held up in the early part of his heat race. Roth managed to pass Raymond Haase in the final lap to win his 12th straight heat race. Above, he passes Larry Hockemeier (24), who was subbing for Travis Dickes.

Keeping his string a live, R. Roth made it an exciting heat race. R. Roth has yet to lose a heat race this year, winning all 12.

Roth had to brake hard for slow traffic early in the race, taking him out of his rhythm. The incident forced him to race last six laps hard. It came down to R. Roth chasing long-time veteran Raymond Haase of Norfolk for the win.

R. Roth made the pass on the back stretch and cruised in only a car length from second.

Smith and Je. Haase claimed the other heat races. It was Je. Haase's first and Smith's fourth.

Vic Lovejoy (2) ended his night when his engine broke during his heat race. He returned and drove the vacationing Scott Phillips' car in the "B" feature.

Termansen nabs third feature victory

Newcomer settles in at Riviera

It only took two laps for Street Stock driver Kim Termansen of Yankton to go from eighth to first and make his appearance into victory lane for the third time this season.

The newcomer to the track has won three in the last four weeks and now leads with the most wins with three.

Termansen started on the outside of row four and he never advanced for the first two laps of the 15-lap race.

It was then that the charge would begin. A caution flag flew after the completion of the second lap and on the restart, Termansen advanced to fourth by the end of the third lap.

The incident occurred when too many cars tried to turn the corner at the same time. Jim Kimmel of Norfolk suffered the damage with a flat tire.

On the restart, leader Kevin Hoffart of Norfolk got sideways in turn two and caused a chain reaction of rear ending. The caution would fly when Joel Carlson of Winside lost a tire in the episode.

Like the first restart, Termansen would down another three cars and move into the lead taking it from Hoffart, who was in his first "A" feature of the season.

Only one lap would be run, as Grand National regular Steve Matthies of Norfolk, who was subbing in his brother David Matthies' Street Stock, got sideways. The incident would collect Dennis Martz and Darrell Doerr of Plainview.

The final 11 laps would go without a hitch and Termansen would go on uncontested the rest of the way. After the race, he said the track got slicker as the laps went by and was glad the race ended when it did, as second place Ron Pettitt of Pierce had closed the gap between them.

Pettitt, who had won the "B" feature, had worked his way through from the rear of the 15-car field to second in seven laps. However, Termansen had clean race track third win/please see page 7

Jim Kimmel (17K) found himself in the middle of turns one and two four wide with Nick Cautrell (05B), Joel Carlson (49) and Kim Termansen. Kimmel suffered a flat tire when the cars bumped each other.
