Substitute driver claims victory

Henery takes Smith's machine to win

It was last season officials at Riviera Raceway discontinued running the Hobby Stock class and along with it went driver Mark Henery of Norfolk.

However, Henery made his return to Riviera and was back into victory lane. Instead of his Hobby Stock, Henery was behind the wheel of Jay Smith's Grand National ride.

Doug Tomka of Norfolk led the first four laps from the pole position, before Bill Wells of Norfolk took over the spot and paced the field for the next 14 laps.

In fact, Wells had opened a huge lead over second, it looked like a caution would be the only way second could catch him.

Henery broke into the top three on lap 10, passing both Travis Roth of Bancroft and Scott Phillips of Norfolk. Henery then headed out to catch Wells with 16 laps left in the race.

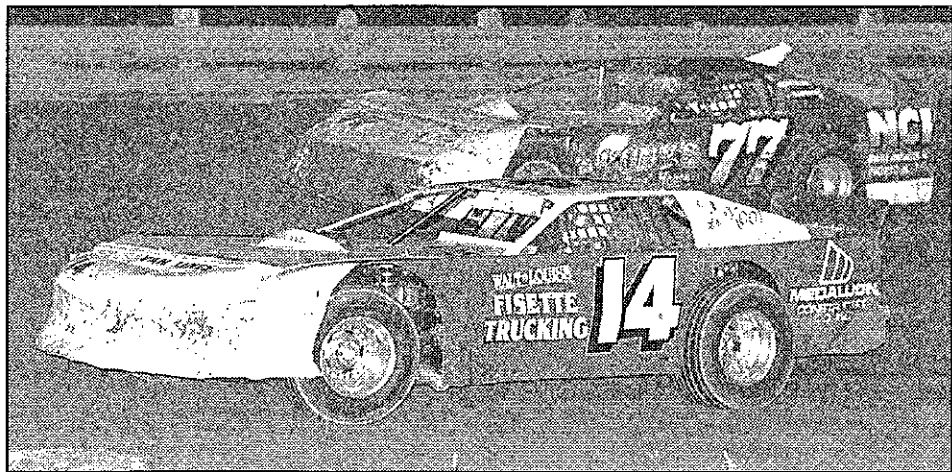

With the only caution coming out on the start of race, all 25 laps were run uninterrupted.

But Henery did not need all 16 laps. All he need was nine. Henery caught Wells and made the pass for the lead on lap 19. He would have no trouble taking the Smith vehicle to its third win of the year and fifth straight top five.

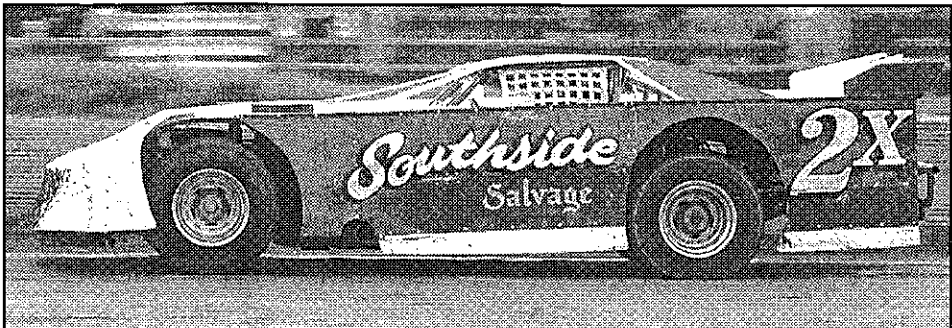

Wells hung onto finish second.

Behind Wells it got ugly, as a couple

Mark Henery (77) goes to the high side of Bill Wells (14) in the "A" feature. Wells had his second best finish with a second place.

Raymond Haase (2x) cruises down the frontstretch. Haase introduced his new car several weeks ago and has been getting closer to the race set up each week.

Johnson boys battle to the checkered

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield has been knocking at the door for the last three weeks, but again he has gone home with the runner-up money.

This time, however, it was his younger brother, Jim Johnson of Bloomfield who gave Chris his third straight second place finish.

Jim Johnson came home with his second win of the season and his 10th top five finish.

The Johnson's moved through the field together with Chris Johnson leading the way. Chris Johnson nabbed the top spot from Mike Kruse of Creighton on lap eight, while his brother slipped passed Kruse for second a lap later.

Jim Johnson tried every lap to get by his older brother, but could not get the momentum to make the pass.

Chris Johnson looked to have the race won, when a caution flag flew with two laps left. Stanton driver Pat Jensen's car started on fire bringing out the late-race caution.

Jensen, who had advance through the "B" to run the "A" feature, was running third at the time of the fire.

The yellow flag proved to be costly for Chris Johnson, as Jim Johnson got by on the restart to take over the point. The position did not go easily, as Chris tried everything to get back out front.

Jim Johnson managed to hold off his older brother and win his second trophy of the year at the track.

Chris Johnson placed second for his 11th top five finish in 15 weeks. Third went to Kim Termansen of Yankton, who like Jensen came through the "B" feature.

Darrell Doerr of Plainview returned to running in the top five and finished fourth. Doerr won the July 25th race, but hit a drought for several weeks.

Brian Wagner of Winnetoon rounded out the top five, with his first top five finish of the season.

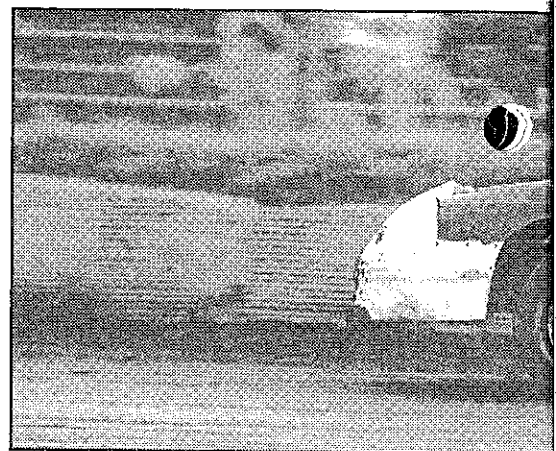

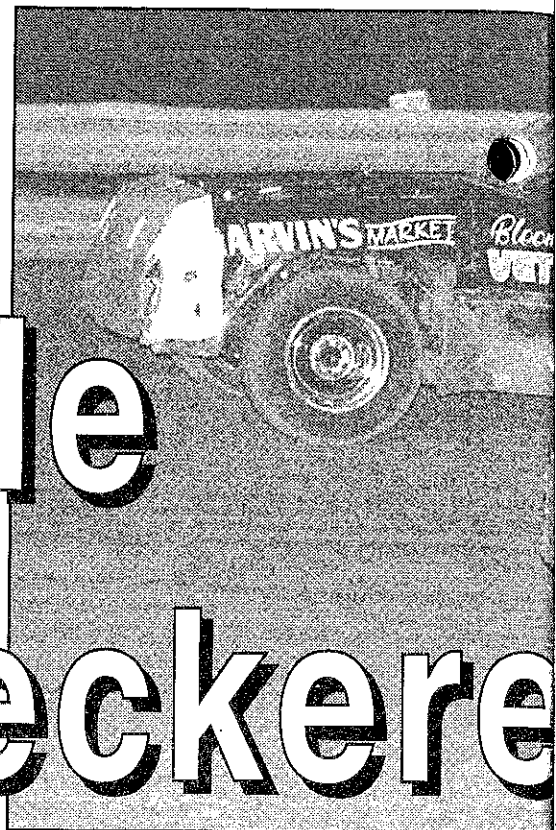

Termansen won the "B" feature over Jim Kimmel of Norfolk. Jensen was third.

Russ White of Norfolk won the "C" feature without problems. Randy Bertschinger of Creighton held off the hard charging Joel Carlson of Winside to transfer to the "B." Carlson was forced to run the "C" when a tire went flat in his heat race.

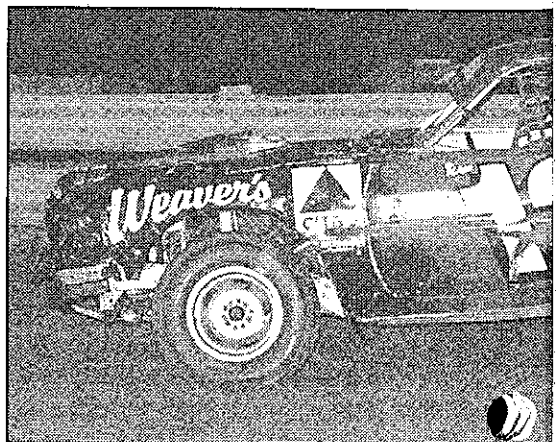

In the heat races, Ron Pettitt of Pierce, Travis Loecker of Bloomfield, Wagner and Josh Derickson of Hartington won their heats.

Derickson and Wagner picked up their second wins. Loecker claimed his sixth heat race win, while Pettitt leads the division with nine wins.

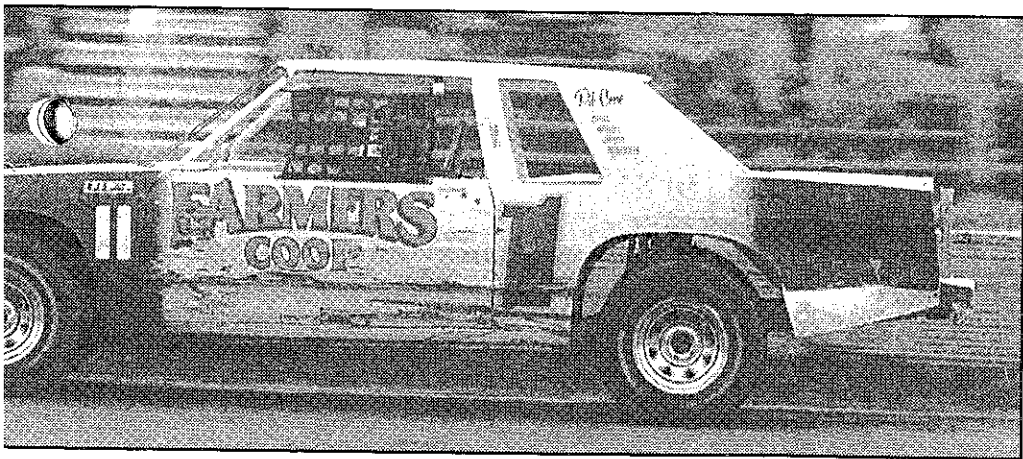

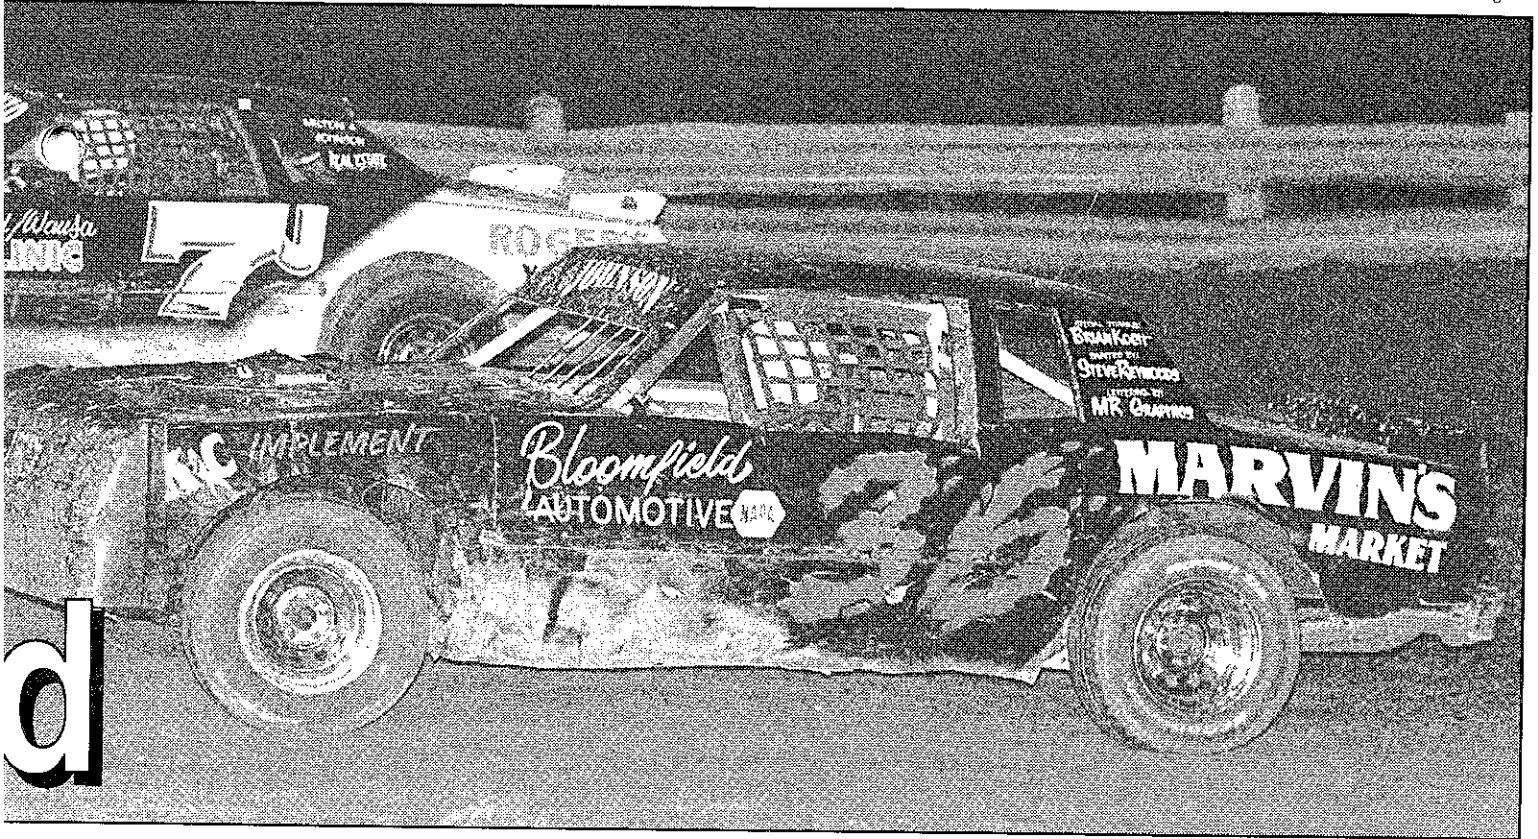

Chris Johnson extended his lead in the points, as Termansen moved ahead of Loecker for the second position. Jim Johnson remained in fourth and Doerr moved up two spots to get back into the top five.

Pat Jensen was running third in the "A" when he became the meat of the sandwich between Josh Derickson (23) eature. Again, Pettitt dropped from the field with a flat tire finishing 15th.

Powder puff winner Mindi Jensen of Pilger poses with her trophy after defeating three other women for the title. Jensen used Pat Jensen's No. 1 machine.

cars got together on the backstretch on the final lap. Roth ended up sideways and then collected by other drivers racing for position to the checkered.

Curt Zuhlke of Bancroft survived and took home third, making it his sixth straight top five finish.

Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove placed fourth, while Reggie Roth of Bancroft drove home fifth.

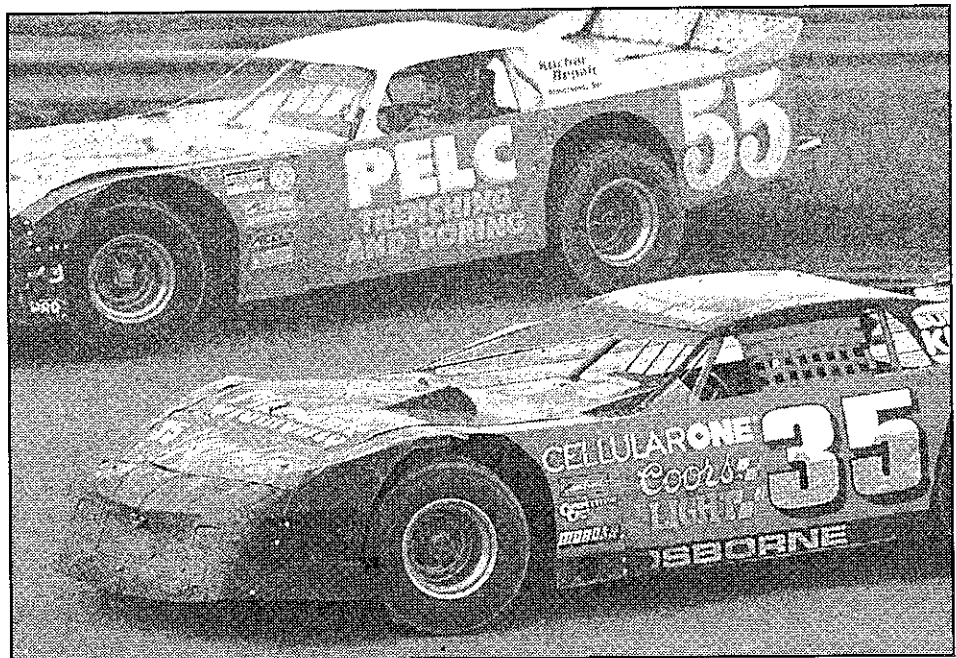

Left sitting on the backstretch were Travis Roth, Chad Jensen, Bob Milander and Raymond Haase, all of Norfolk.

Breaking in a new car, Haase won the "B" feature.

In the heat races, Wells won his second qualifying race of the season. Robert Osborne of Norfolk grabbed his fifth heat win. Reggie Roth has strung two straight wins to make it 14 wins out of 15 weeks.

Osborne came into the night leading the point standings, but for the third straight week he has finished just outside the top five.

Osborne said an incident in Albion several weeks ago has caused problems with his car. Since then he has not produced a top five at Riviera.

Reggie Roth and Osborne both won their heats, but Reggie Roth would finish fifth to Osborne's sixth place giving Reggie Roth the points lead with only a few nights left.

It was a year ago when it came down to the same two guys for the points championship. Osborne won the battle last year.
