Pettitt takes first win of season

In contrast to the winner in the Grand National ranks, the victor in last Saturday night's Street Stock division, Ron Pettitt, has had the season to forget.

Pettitt has suffered two flat tires in two of the last three previous nights dropping him from first in the points to sixth.

Earlier in the year Pettitt went through the guard rail on the back stretch, causing heavy damage and then three weeks later he bounced off Jeff Ronspies of Norfolk, who had hit the wall causing more damage.

Since then he has managed to piece the car together and stay in the hunt for the points championship.

Pettitt started on the inside of row four and took advantage of a scramble on the frontstretch moving him to second in two laps.

Jim Kimmel inherited the lead for the restart, but Pettitt quickly took over the top spot to lead lap three.

Darrell Doerr was the only driver to catch Pettitt, but after Doerr got a car length from Pettitt, he developed a problem and slowly fell behind.

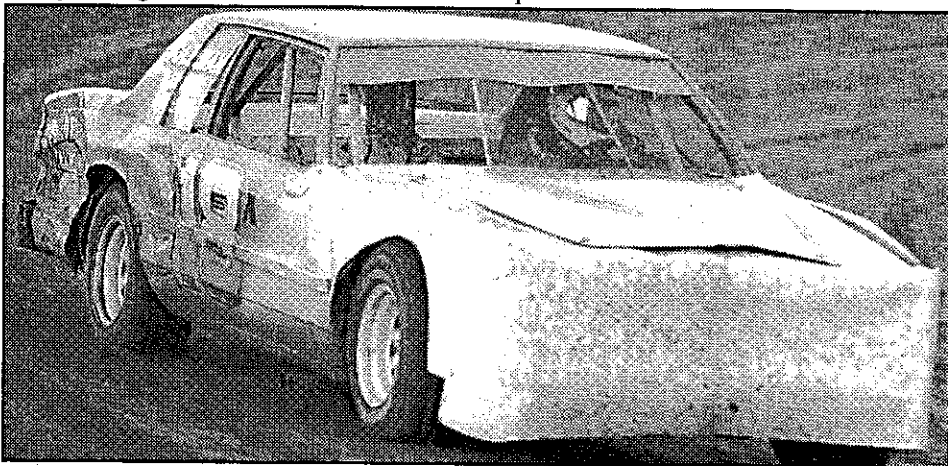

Pettitt took his first win of the season. Doerr hung on for second, holding off a late charge by points leader Chris Johnson of Bloomfield.

Johnson's third place increased his lead in the point standings another 10 points over second place Kim Termansen of Yankton.

Fourth went to Kimmel, his best showing of the year. It was his second top five of the season. Termansen finished fifth.

Chris Gulovsen of Norfolk took home the win in the "B" feature downing Dennis Martz of Norfolk, who was second, and Jim Johnson of Bloomfield.

Jim Johnson lost a drive shaft in his heat race and was forced to run the "C" feature, which he placed second in. He then took third in the "B" feature and Kevin Hoffart (18x) picked up his first heat race win and made it to his second "A" feature.

Pettitt wins/ please see page 8

After winning the first race of the season in the Grand Nationals, Reggie Roth of Bancroft had to sit back and watch seven other drivers run to victory, including his son Travis Roth of Bancroft — twice.

But Reggie Roth has not had that bad of a season. He now leads the points standings over last year's champion Robert Osborne of Norfolk, has finished 11 times in the top five including four seconds places and has won 15 out of 16 heat races, nine more than any other driver.

Just like any sport success comes with a price. When Reggie Roth climbed from his machine on the frontstretch following the race, he was both cheered and booed.

Reggie Roth started back in the fifth row and drove hard to break into the top three on lap eight. The veteran found hooking the left front on the berm lining the inside of the track was the fastest way around the oval.

However, when he did not get as low and catch the low line, he would quickly drift up the track. At least twice in turn one and two while running third, Reggie Roth slid too high in the turn and lost positions.

Fighting back, he finally advanced to the second spot getting around Jeff Haase of Norfolk, who had his best run going when he led the first 14 laps.

With only five laps remaining, Reggie Roth went after the leader Keith Hansen of Norfolk.

Having trouble in the north corner, Hansen had to get out of the throttle holding up Reggie Roth, who was on his back bumper.

The problem gave Osborne the perfect avenue on the top side and as Hansen gathered things back and got going again, Hansen and Osborne were fighting for the lead.

Osborne and Hansen went into the turn one together and Reggie Roth made it three wide going down the backstretch.

Osborne got the advantage into three as he took the white flag. It looked as if Osborne was heading to his second win of the season, but a push in turn three caused him to drift high. It was the break Reggie Roth was looking for.

Osborne and Roth came off the corner side-by-side and headed for the line. Reggie Roth edged Osborne by less than a foot to capture his second win of the season. It also gives him a nine point lead over Osborne in the track points with three weeks left.

Osborne's second place broke a drought he was in. The defending points champion has not finished in the top five for the last several weeks. Hansen rounded out the top three, his best finish of the year.

Jeff Haase post his fifth top five, finishing fourth. Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove rounded out the top five.

Bob Milander picked up the "B" feature win defeating Zuhlke and Jr. Clausen of Norfolk. Zuhlke was running third in his heat when on the last lap he found himself facing the other way in turn one.

In the heat races, Reggie Roth won his 15th one, as Osborne and Raymond Haase took the other two heats.

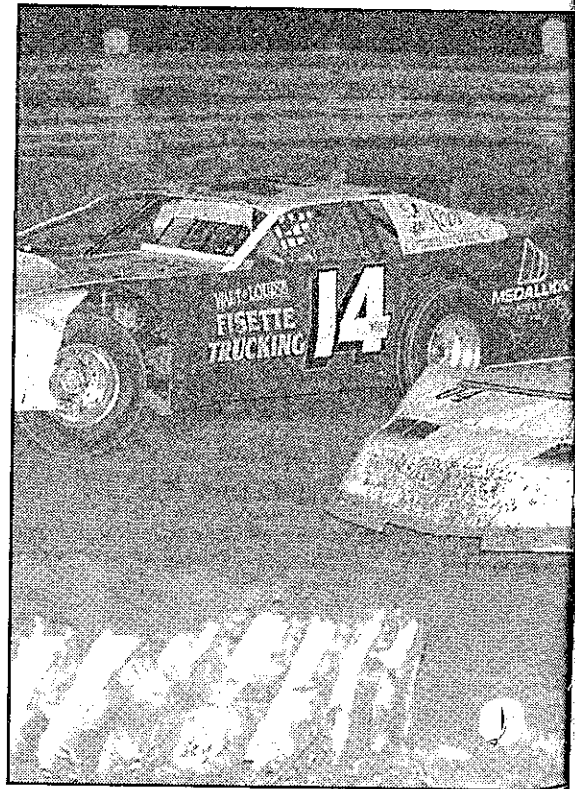

At the Nebraska State Fair Racing Championship on Monday night, Reggie Roth was unable to hold onto the lead after leading most of the "A" feature. He was passed on the last lap to finish second.

Roth's Riviera rival Zuhlke finished just behind him in third.

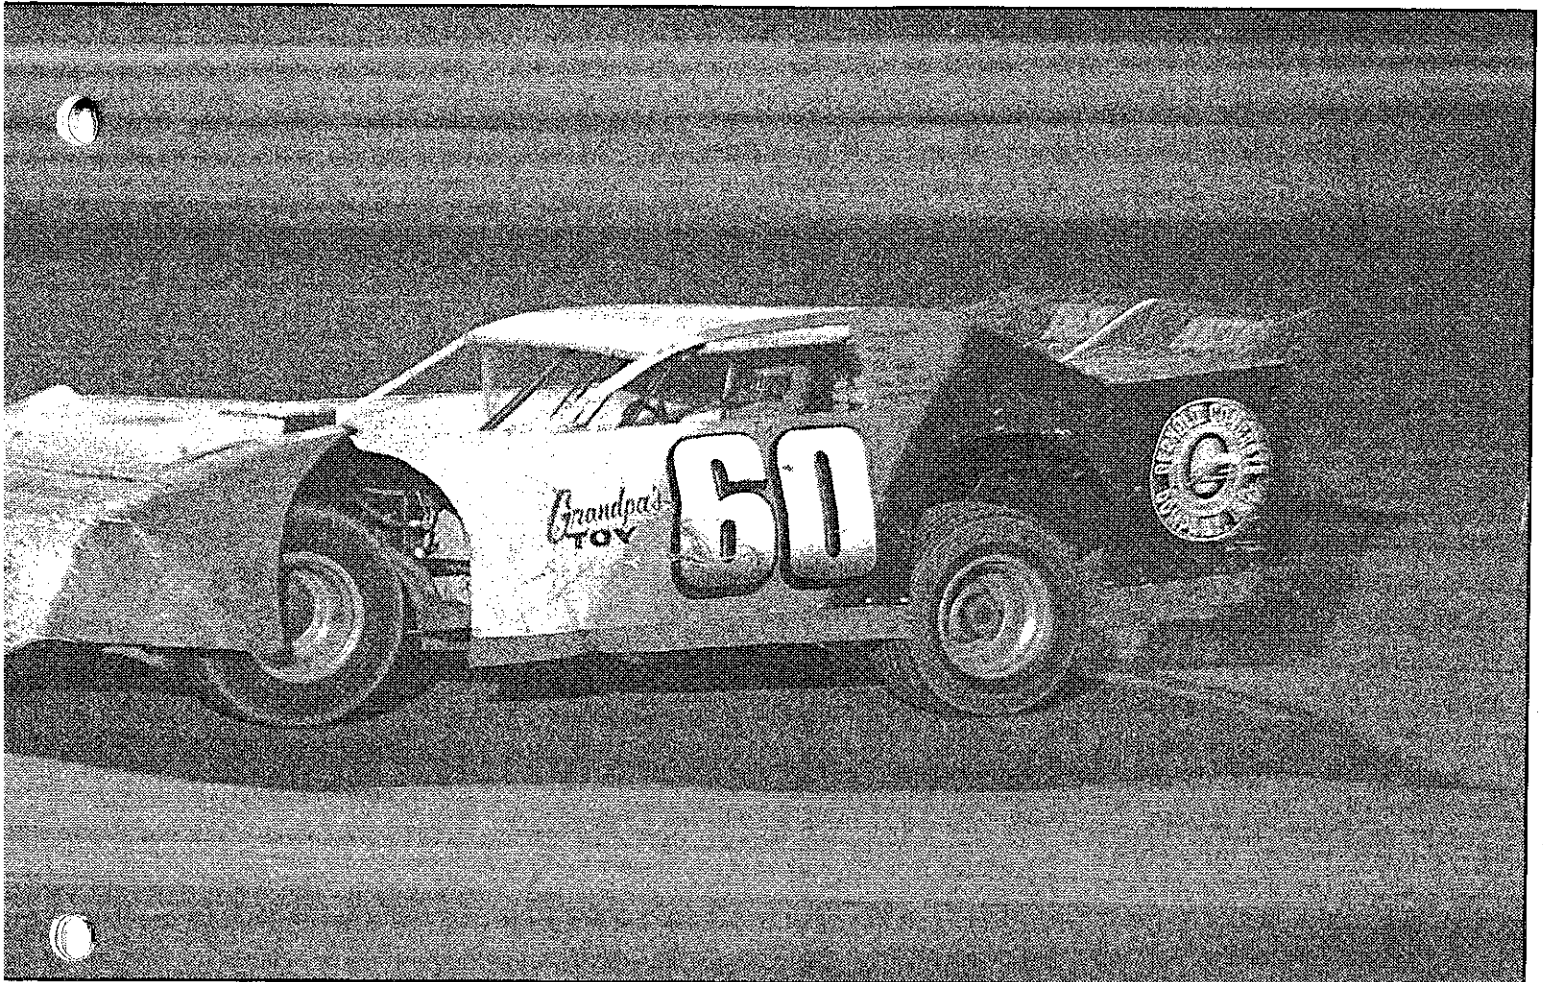

Other "A" feature finishers were: Travis Roth (17th), Osborne (18th), Lovejoy (20th) and Milander (21st). Chad Jensen of Norfolk also took part in the championships, but missed the main event.

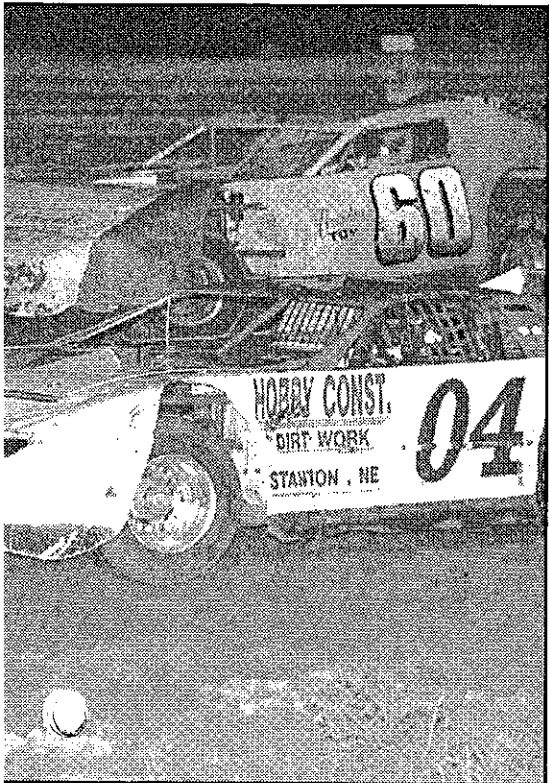

Points leader Reggie Roth streaks around

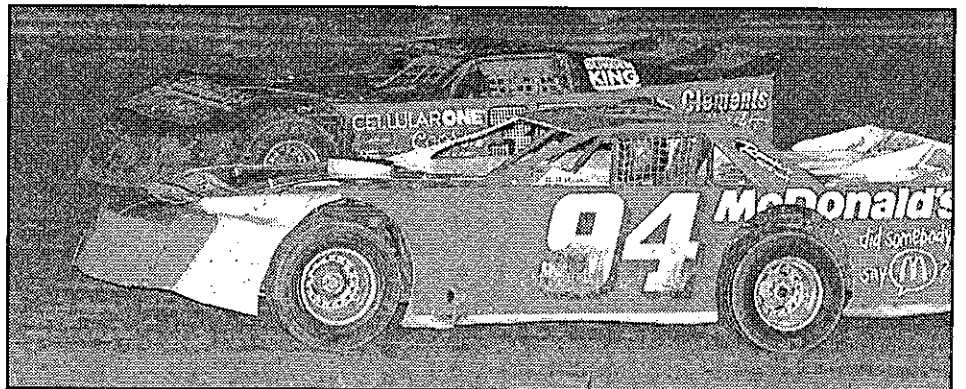

Keith Hansen (04) gets to the inside of Reggie Roth (60) also tries to pass Wells the fourth corner in route to another heat race win. He also claimed his second "A" feature win of the year.

Bill Wells (14) on his way to the front. n turn two.

Jeff Haase (94) runs the inside line, as Robert Osborne (35) looks to pass on the outside.

Vic Lovejoy (2) ran fifth in the "A" feature for his ninth top five finish of the season.

Chris Johnson (7J) goes to the inside of Randy Bertschinger (40) during their heat race. Johnson finished second in the heat and despite the hood flopping on Bertschinger's car, he finished third.

Pettitt wins

moved on to the "A," where he finished seventh.

Nick Cautrell captured the "C" feature his first feature win this season. Johnson was second in the "C" with Andy Wilkinson of York finishing third in the Joel Carlson No. 49 machine. Wilkinson also lost a drive shaft in his heat race.

Heat race wins went to Jason Throener of Pilger, Kevin Hoffart of Norfolk, Pettitt and Doerr.

It was Throener's third win, but he was unable to start the "A" feature. Pettitt picked up his 10th win, four more than any other driver. Doerr claimed his third heat win.

For Hoffart, it was his first win of the year and his second "A" feature start. Hoffart started on the pole and led the first two laps. But while he was finishing lap three, Brian Wagner of Winnetoon got together with him and Hoffart bounced off the wall. The caution was thrown, sending him to the rear. He managed to work his way back up to 11th where he finished.

Ron Pettitt (12) races Jim Kimmel (17K) for the lead in the 'A.'

There were no moves in the point standings from last week. Chris Johnson continues to lead over Termansen. Loecker is in third, with Jim Johnson in fourth.

The closest battle is at the fifth and sixth place spots. Pettitt passes Doerr to take over the second spot, as Doerr falls to sixth. Pettitt holds a two point lead on Doerr.

Jim Johnson also had the privilege of running at the Nebraska State Fair Racing Championships, where he overcame his bad luck at the huge event in Lincoln to bring home the gold.

Johnson took charge of the race and led from start to finish.

Other placers were: Chris Johnson (5th), Doerr (9th), Pettitt (11th) and Martz (15th). Other "A" feature starters were: Patrick Jensen of Stanton, Carlson and Mike Kelly of Albion.
