Neil Bruns (74) claimed his first feature win last week, leading 14 laps.

Bruns captures first career victory

Neil Bruns of Norfolk has watched other family members capture wins this season and he wanted to add one for himself.

His car won back in 2007 and last week he added his first career win at the track.

Bruns started on the pole and was side-by-side with Larry Remsing of Norfolk on the first lap. However, by the second lap, Bruns was out front pacing the field.

Fourteen laps later, he was celebrating his victory.

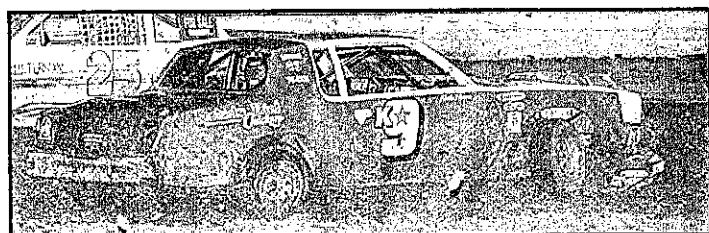

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk took second holding off Kevin Haase of Norfolk. Haase held onto third. Tate Weinrich of Norfolk placed fourth and Jeremy Brabec of Stanton rounded out the top 5.

Jake Timm (29) won his second heat race last week.

Dale Bittner (96) files down the backstretch to win his heat race. He finished seventh in the "A" feature.

Vanosdall takes win in last turn

Winside driver beats the rough

With another soft rough track, drivers had a tough time keeping their cars under them. Hitting holes and jumping ruts launched their cars into the air.

For one driver it cost them the victory.

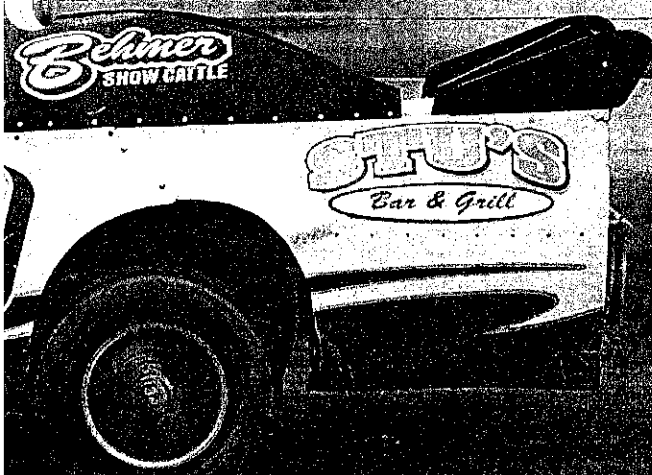

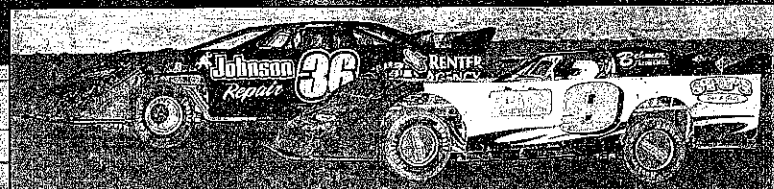

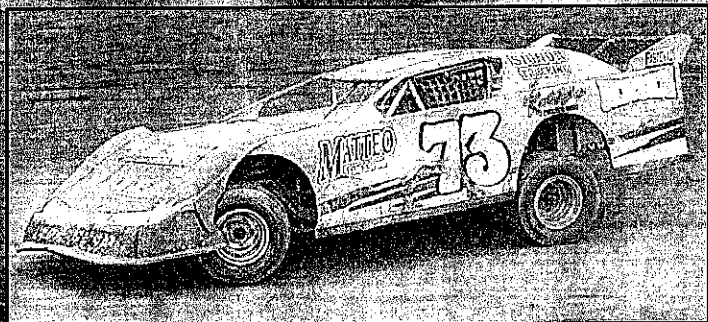

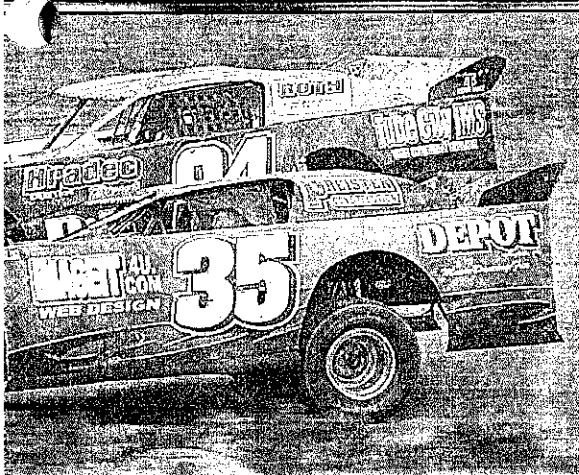

Jim Johnson of Plainview worked his way to the front of the 17-car field in eight laps, and then led the next 17 holding off Eric Vanosdall in the final laps. However, his car jumped a rut in the final turn and sent his car up the track.

Vanosdall was there waiting to pounce and dove to the front to take the checkered flags first.

The rookie driver cracked the top on lap seven. Four laps later, he beat Winside's Tad Behmer for second.

He caught a couple of breaks when Robert Osborne of Norfolk beat him for the second position. Over caution came out and erased the lead - both times.

Jordan Uehling (58) led the first six laps, before Jared Rodgers (7) made the pass to lead the final six laps.

Rodgers takes win

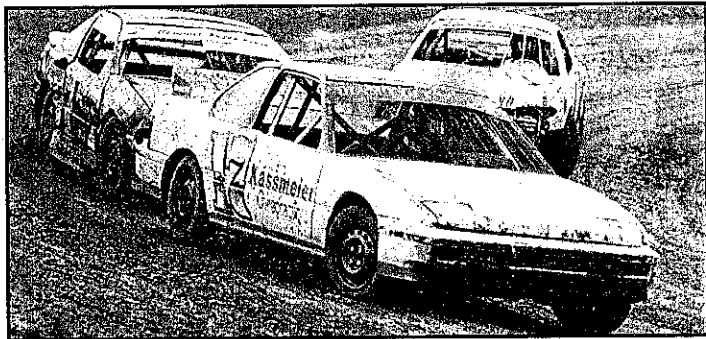

Jared Rodgers of Norfolk has proven to have a fast car all season, but controlling the black and green four-cylinder has been the test.

Jordan Uehling of Norfolk led the first six laps of the 12-lap feature, while Rodgers worked his way through the field from his fourth row starting position.

Following a caution after six laps, Rodgers overtook Uehling on the restart to take the lead.

Adam Wagner finished second in his heat race and then finished fourth in the "A" feature.

Shawn Primrose (1) tries to get to the inside of Brian Koch (95) in their heat race. Primrose later win the feature.
