Sehi flies sky high with win

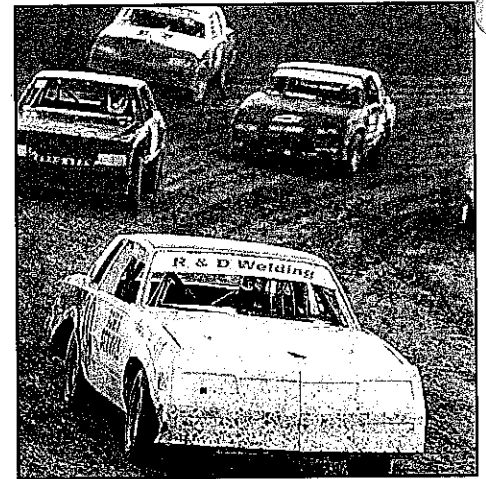

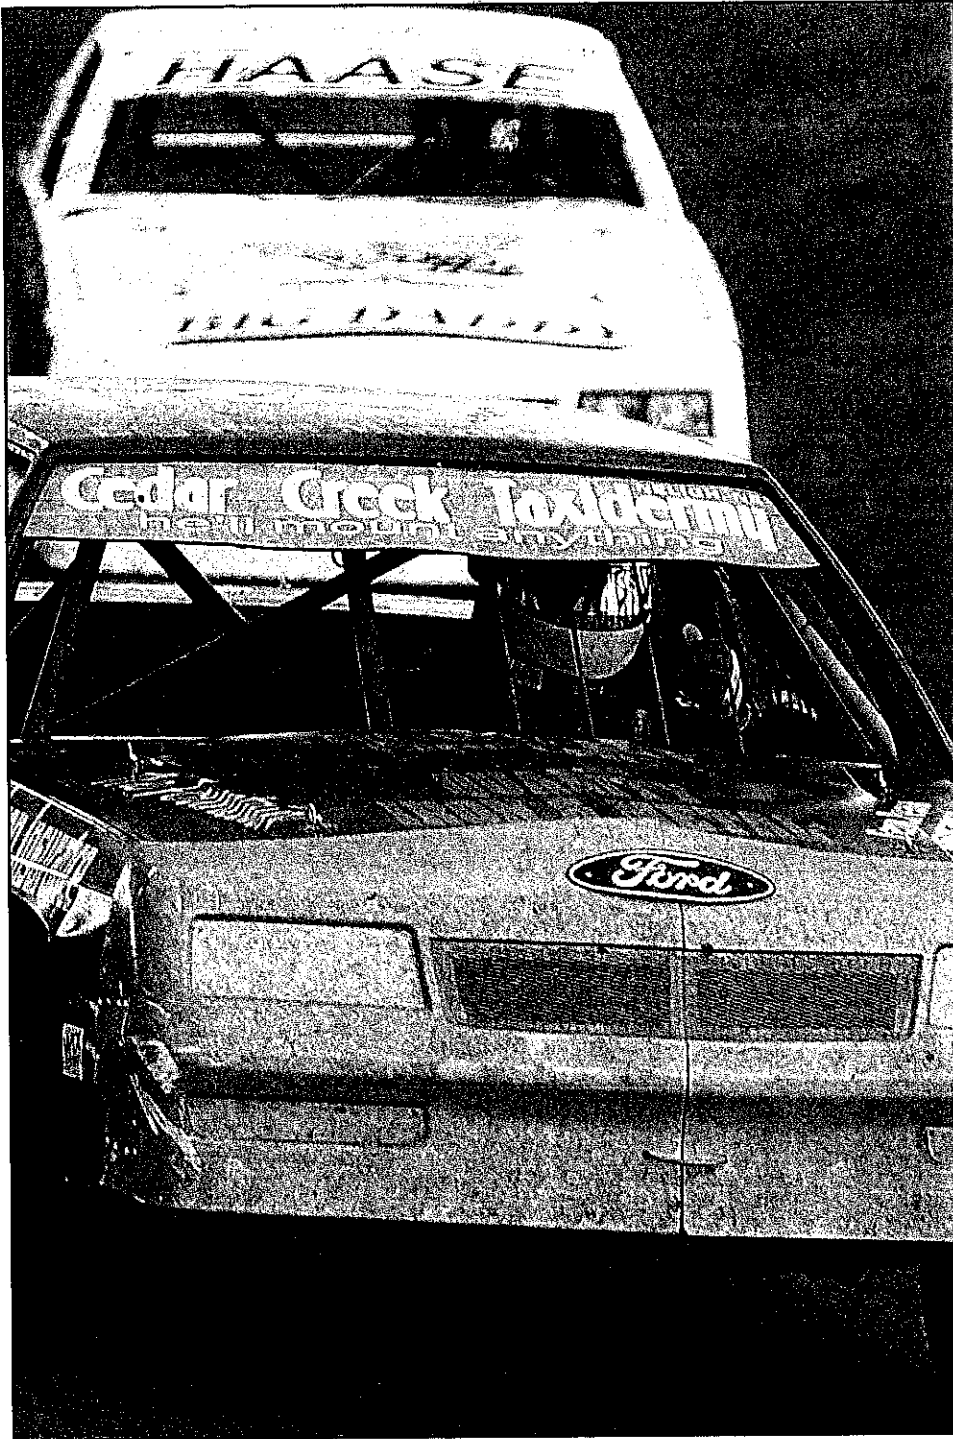

Derek and Marcus Sehi of Neligh started racing back in 2007 and have switched off driving the No. 16 since then.

Derek had the helm Saturday night and led from the pole position. It looked like it was coming down to the final laps, as Matt Haase of Norfolk was catching Sehi.

However, a slower vehicle spun out in front of them and Haase tagged the spun vehicle just hard enough to take out his radiator.

Sehi took his first career win at the track, Behmer was second and Jim Kimmel of Norfolk was third.

Jereme Knoell of Petersburg finished fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Jake Timm of Pierce.

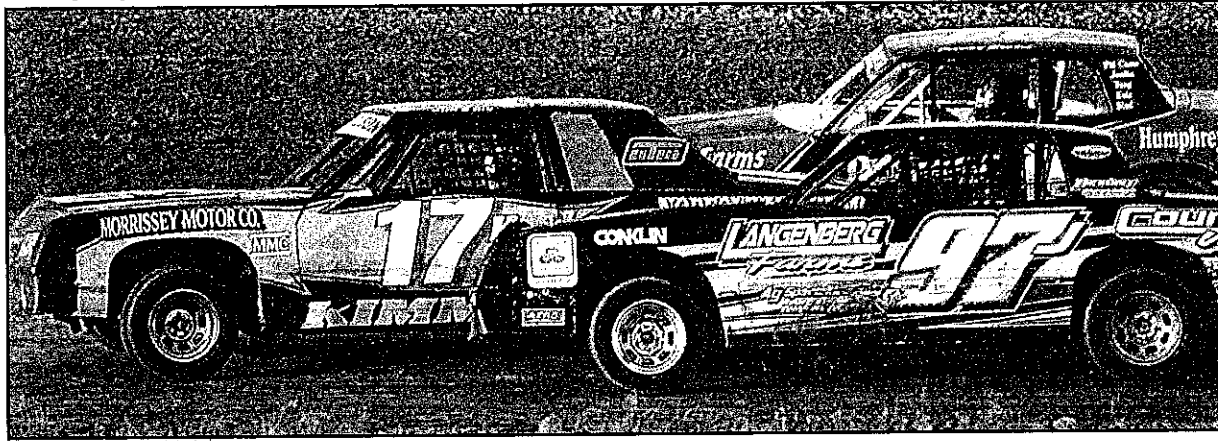

Jake Timm (29) won his third heat race. He later took fifth in the main event.

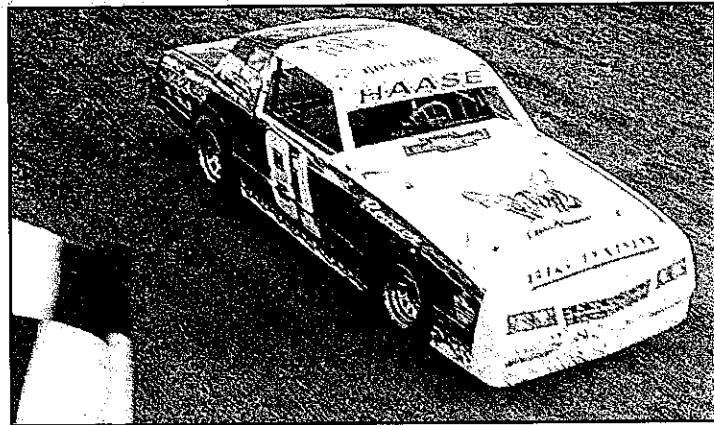

Derek Sehi (16) captured his heat race and the "A" feature last week. It was the first feature win at the track.

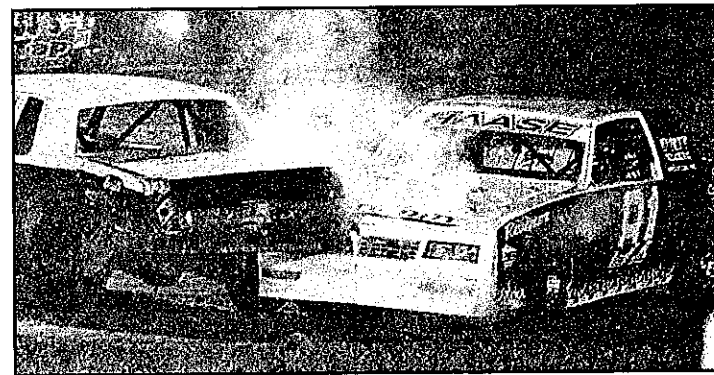

Kent Behmer (94) and Tate Weinrich (46) slid into the infield during their heat. Behmer finished second later in the "A" feature.

Jim Kimmel (17) splits Jon Langenberg (97) and Jeremy Brabec (99). Kimmel finished third in the feature.

Matt Haase (81) looked to have a good run going in the "A" feature, however, he collided with a lapped vehicle that had spun out.

Ron Pettitt (12) takes the checkered flag second in his heat race, but ran into trouble in the feature, where he did not finish the race.

Haase survives

The Street Stocks only had one caution, but the incident damaged several cars bad enough not to continue at full speed.

But once they got started it went straight to the end.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield led once the racing started. He led two laps before Troy Bruns of Wayne got out front.

Bruns had the field cover, but he lost a transmission after completing 10 laps. Eric Haase of Norfolk then paced the race to the end.

Birkley tried several times to get back by Haase, but Haase was able to hold him off.

It was Haase's first win since 2006. Birkley took second and TeJay Mielke of Norfolk finished third.

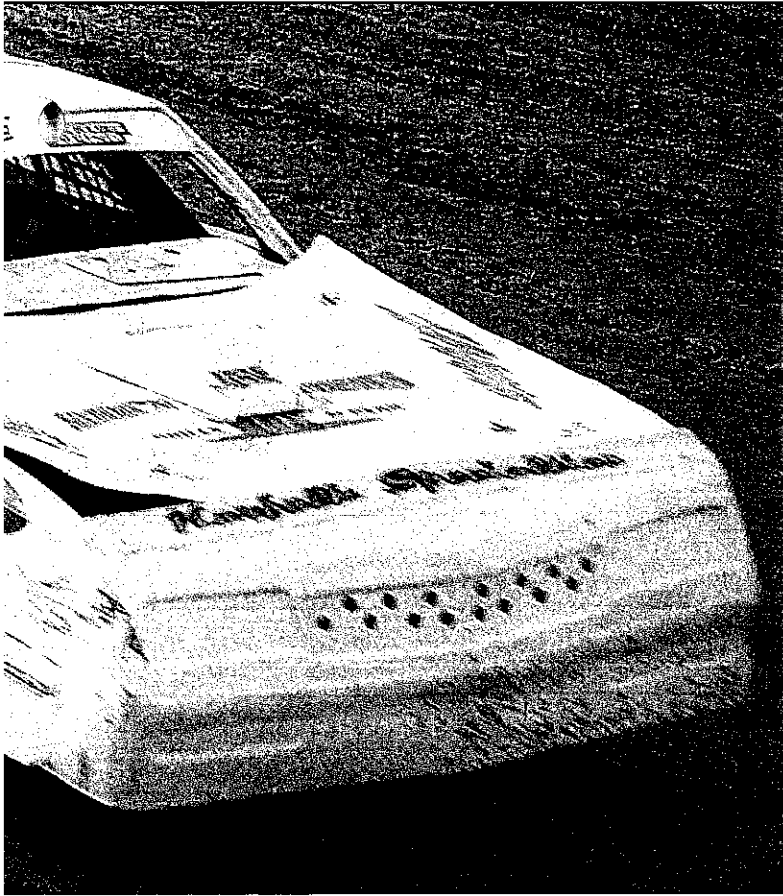

Shawn Primrose took fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Ryan Rohde of Carroll.

Haase and Primrose each won their heat race.

Chris Johnson (7) took his third feature win and his fifth top 5 this season.

Johnson victorious again

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield outlasted the six cautions that plagued the 25-lap race.

Tad Behmer of Winside led the first 13 laps as he kept Doug Tomka of Stanton pinched to the bottom of the track and not able to get off the corners.

Tomka finally got the edge on Behmer to make the pass. Tomka led for seven laps before Johnson got by on lap 21.

Johnson started on the inside of the third row. He broke into the top three on lap five. He was second by lap 16. It was his 16th Grand National win at the track.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk took his eighth top 5, placing second. Third went to Tomka.

Doug Tomka (1) took third in the "A" feature.

Robert Osborne (35) passes Tad Behmer (20) in the feature.

Osborne took second, as Behmer, who led the first 13 laps, finished fifth.

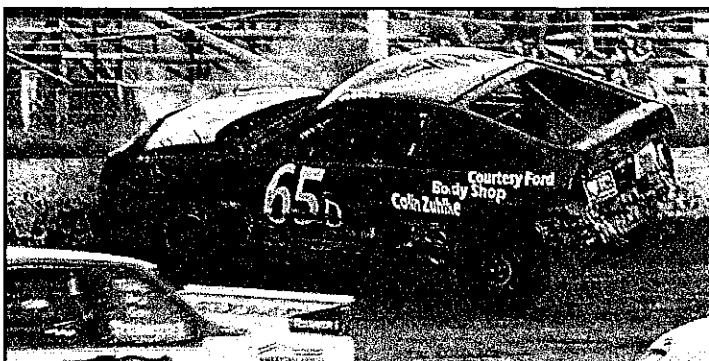

Jared Rodgers (7) attempts to get to the inside of Nelson Vollbrecht (20). Rodgers won and Vollbrecht was third.

Shannon Pospisil (00) slides into the back wall, as Ryne Hoffart (23) slips by. Hoffart finished second in the "A" feature.

Jeff Goodier (62) competes with Stacie Huttman (07). Goodier took fourth at his first appearance at the track. Huttman finished fifth.

DJ Dunklau, substitute for his brother, plows into the front stretch wall causing injury to both of his heels.

Rodgers does it again

The one thing Jared Rodgers of Norfolk learned the previous week that patience helps win races. Saturday night, Rodgers was sitting third and could have aggressively gone for the win.

But he sat back and the lead came to him.

He had just got position on the second place car of Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton when leader Katie Wagner of Norfolk got a flat tire and pulled into the infield.

That put Rodgers out front and leading again. He led the final five laps. It was his second straight win.

Ryne Hoffart of Norfolk slipped past Vollbrecht two laps from the end to take second. Vollbrecht took third. Fourth went to newcomer Jeff Goodier of South Sioux City. Rounding out the top five was Stacie Huttman of Stanton.
