Jake Timm (29) tries to get back under Jereme Knoell for the lead.

Knoell takes second win

With two straight days with temperatures near 100 degrees, the lights had had enough and during the Hobby Stock "A" feature half of the main track lights went dark.

The field was circling the track under caution, as the backstretch and north end lights went out.

Track officials knew it would be more than a half an hour to get the lights back on and the decision was made to call it with nine laps completed.

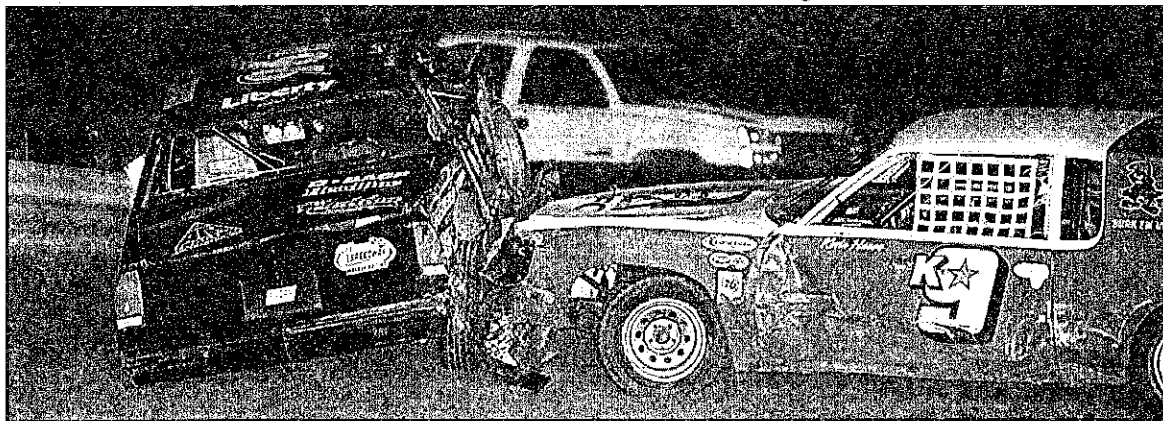

Hobby Stock driver Jereme Knoell of Norfolk captured the win this time this season.

Knoell started on the outside of the third row. Tracy Buck of Neligh was the first to lap him, before Jake Timm of Pierce slid by on lap three. Knoell led for three laps before a caution period ended the race.

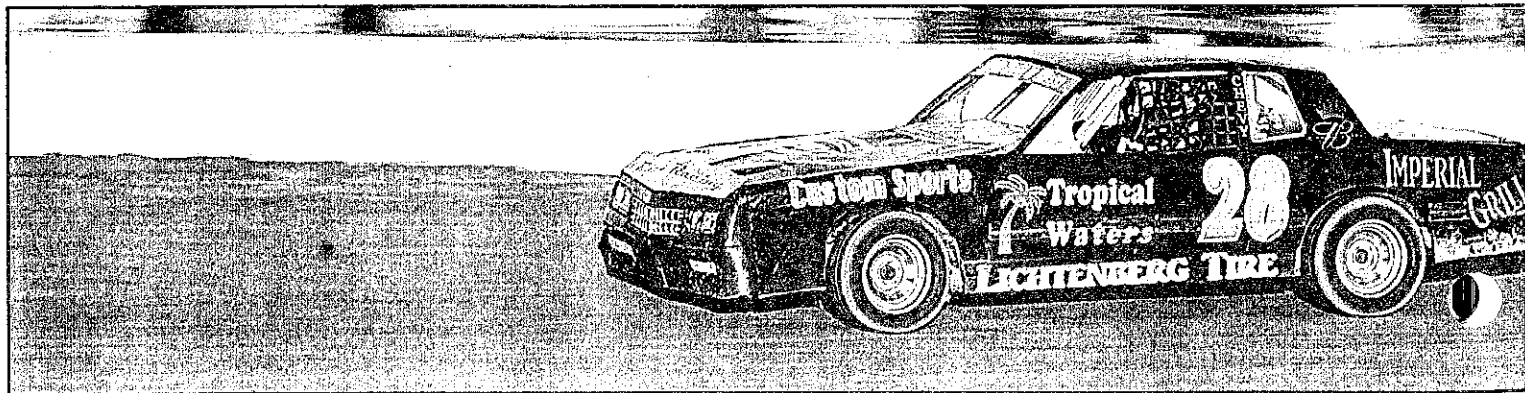

On the restart, Knoell got to the lead on lap six. Timm came back to challenge but was unable to make the pass. Knoell was pulling away from the field when the caution came out.

Seconds later half the track went black. Minutes later, the field was back on track with the checkered flag ending the race.

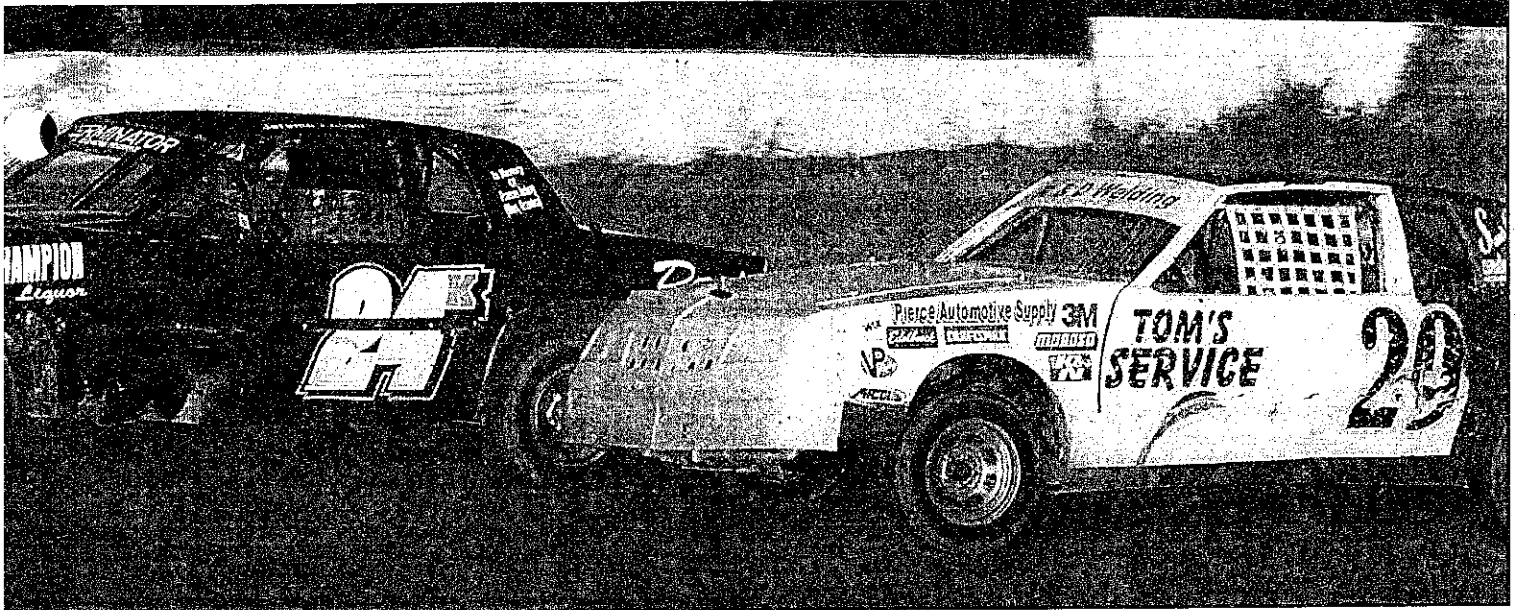

Knoell won, Timm was second, and Buck finished third in his best effort.

Dale Bittner (96) and Kevin Haase (9) get together on the front stretch. Bittner ended up on the outside guardrail.

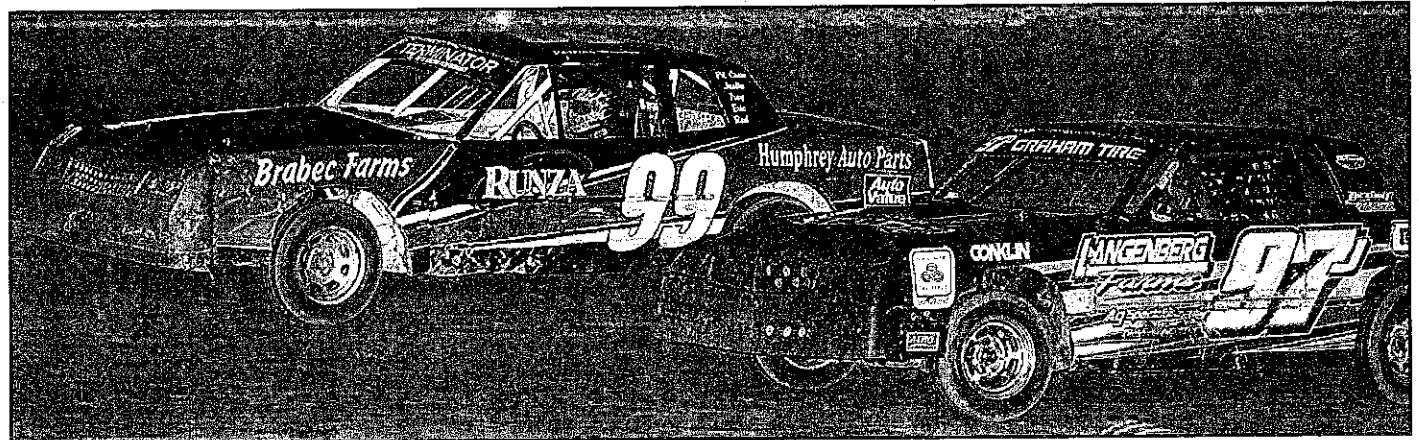

Tracy Buck (28) won his heat race and later took third in the "A" feature.
