Shawn Primrose (1) goes to the inside of TeJay Mielke (77) and Chad Bruns (11) to take the lead in the final "A" feature. Primrose won the feature event.

Primrose starts season with victory

Shawn Primrose of Norfolk started his night on a sour note last week when he was pushed from the track with transmission problems.

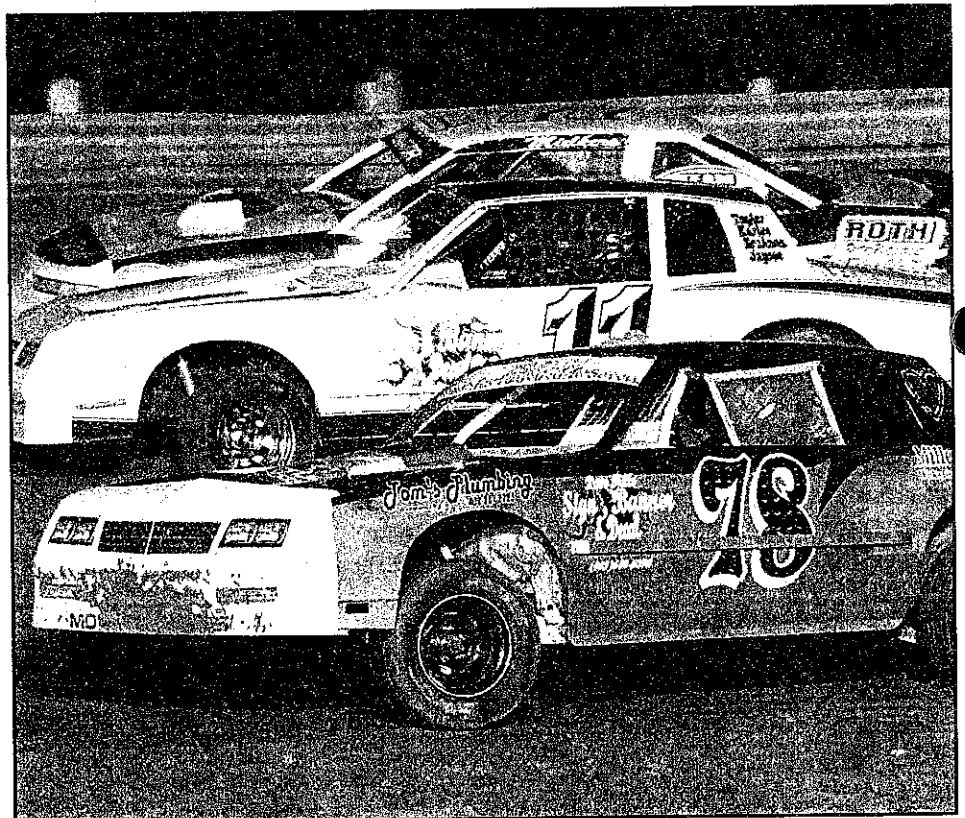

The problem was not a quick fix and Primrose had to skip his heat race.

His crew scrambled through most of the races fixing problem. When it was time to run the "A" feature, Primrose rolled out on the track.

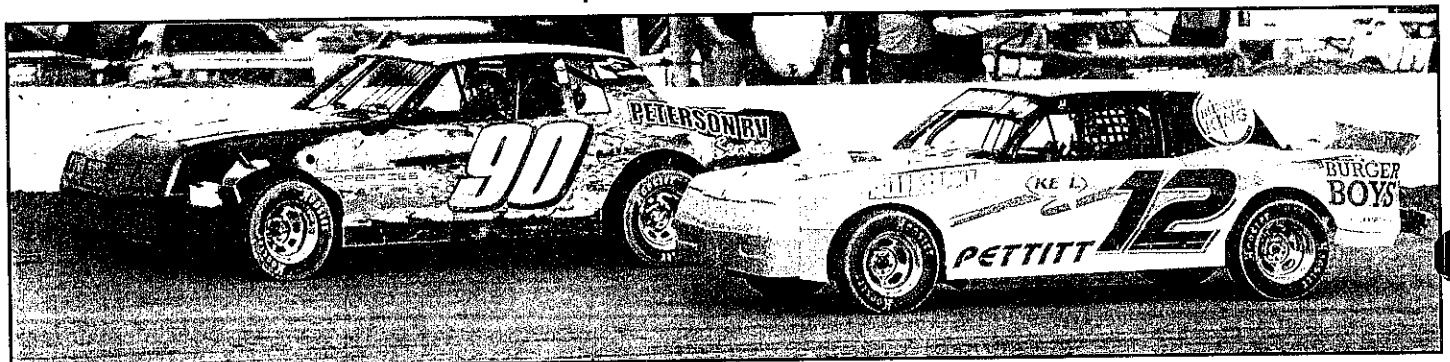

Starting from near the back of the 11-car field, Primrose did not move into the top three until lap 14 of the 18-lap feature. During most of the first 14 laps, Primrose was door-to-door with his teammate Ron Pettitt of Norfolk.

Taking advantage of two cautions, Primrose dashed to the front in the final four laps, passing a car a lap.

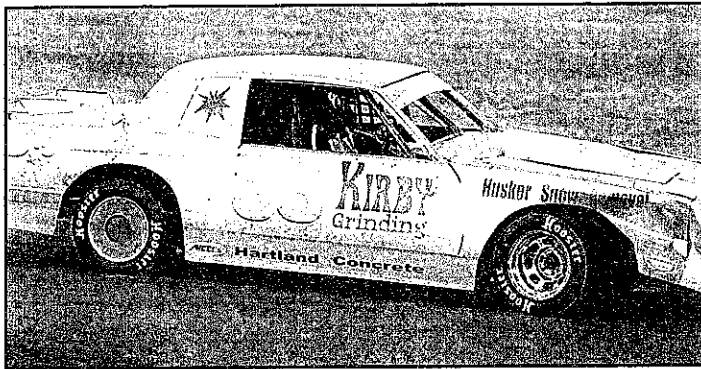

With two circuits left Primrose

Travis Birkley (78) zip passed Troy Bruns (11) and TeJay Mielke (77) on the final lap of the "A" feature to finish third.

Ron Pettitt (12) and Randy Bertschinger (90) compete in their heat race. Pettitt was second in the feature.

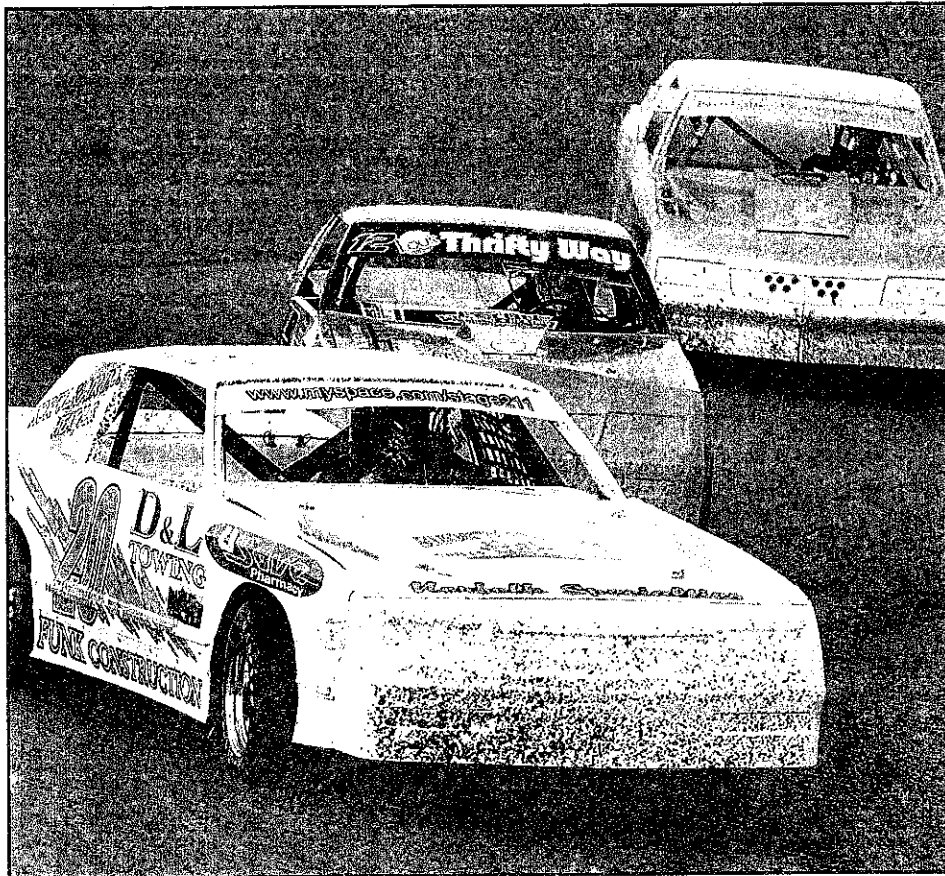

Jeremy Gnat (38) runs his heat race and later finished sixth in the feature.

found himself out front and winning the season opener.

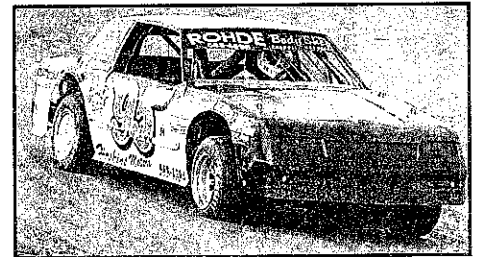

Teammate Pettitt followed the younger driver in the closing laps to take home second. Pettitt started from the fifth position.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield placed third. It was the only lap Birkley was in the top three. He took advantage of ill handling cars to pass both TeJay Mielke of Norfolk and Chad Bruns of Wayne on the final lap.

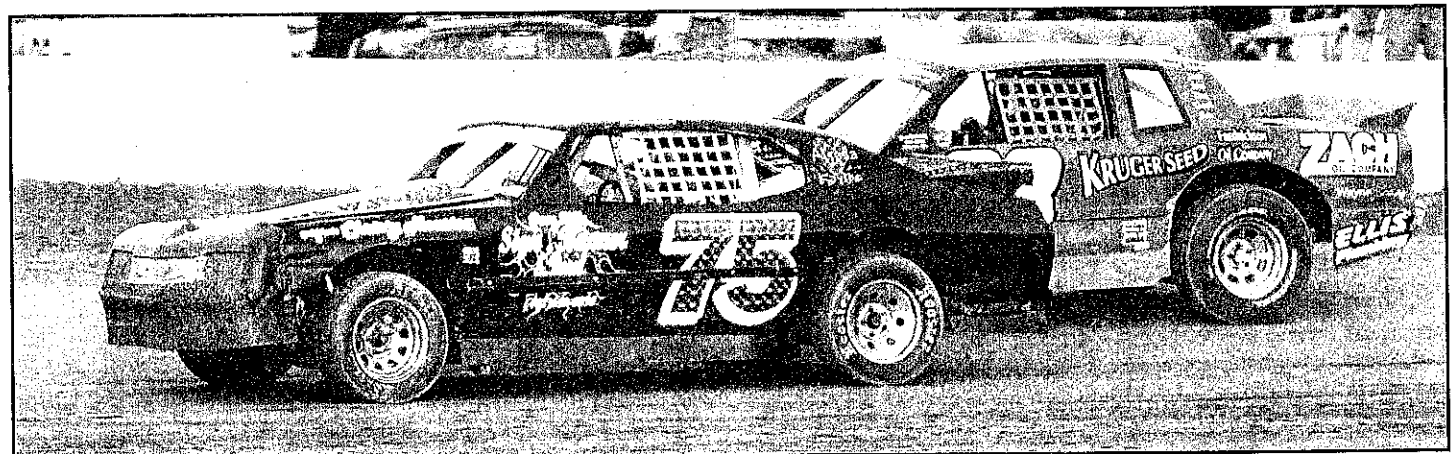

Bruns would take fourth after leading the first 13 laps and Eric Haase of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Mielke led three laps, but started having trouble and fell to eighth.

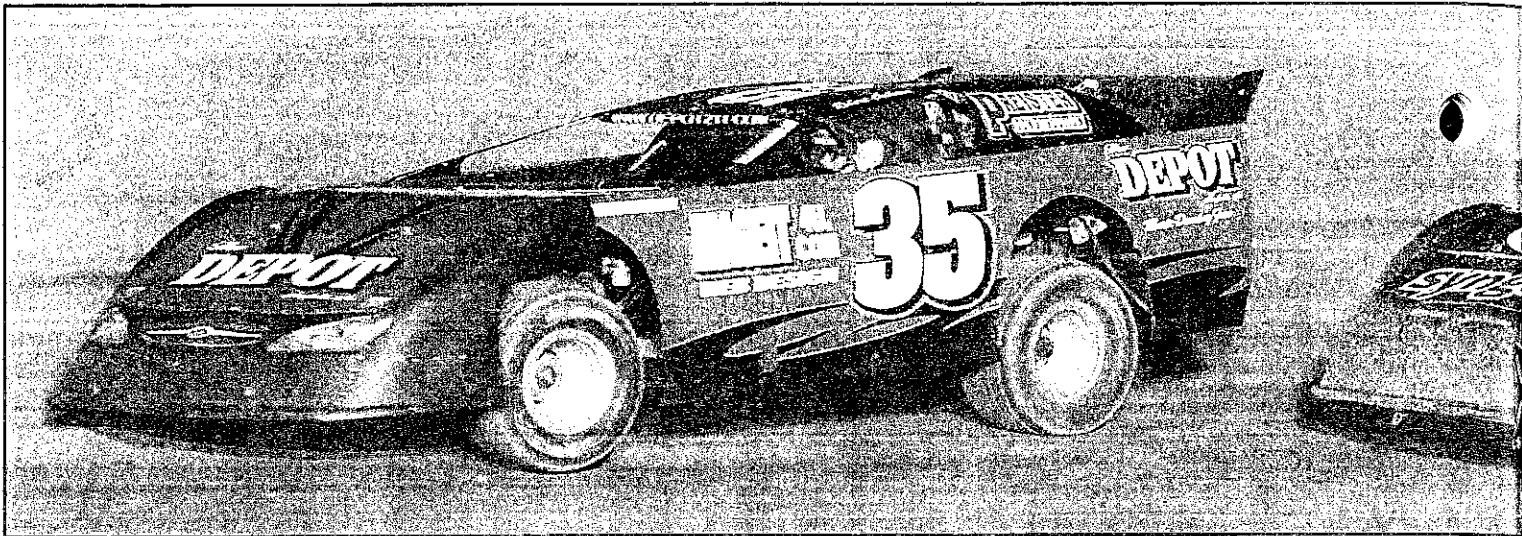

Mielke and Bruns each won their heat race.

Ryan Rohde (95) runs his heat race where he finished third.

Troy Bruns (75) took second in his heat race as Scott Sievers (08) was fourth.

Chris Johnson (7) could get to the inside of Robert Osborne (35) but could not make the pass during the "A" feature. Os

Osborne wins from the front row

It looked like championship night last fall with Robert Osborne of Norfolk and defending track champion Chris Johnson of Bloomfield starting on the front row.

Last season Osborne won the final race of the season, but Johnson won the championship, ending Osborne's long reign as champ.

Last week, Osborne led all 25 laps in the "A" feature to kick his season off. He was challenged only a couple times after restarts, or when he caught lapped traffic.

Johnson, who started on the outside of the front row, slipped to fourth at the start, but managed to grab the second spot by lap three.

Johnson's brother, Jim Johnson of Plainview, took the checkered flags. He started on the outside of the second row and broke the top three on lap 10, getting by Jeff Haase of Norfolk.

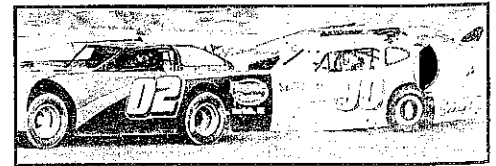

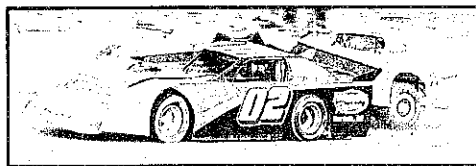

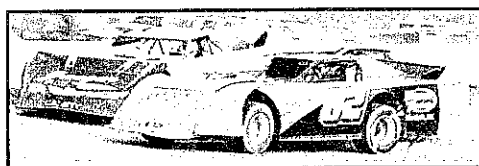

Jim Johnson (36) took second in his heat race and was third in the "A" feature.

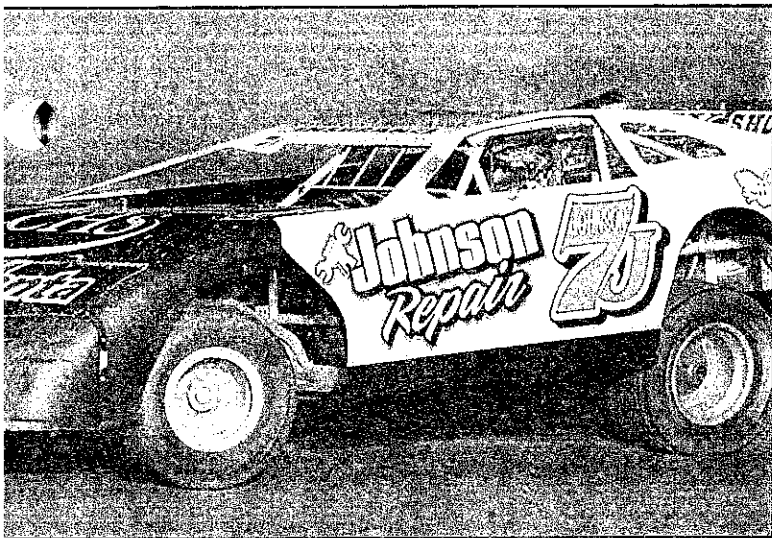

Haase started on the inside of the fourth row. He was as high as second on the first two laps but fell to third the next four laps, finally settling in the fourth position and got in a battle with Doug Tomka.

Tomka rode out the top five, started 13th in the car field.

Osborne, Johnson and Haase each won their race.

Taylor Caldwell (90) is sandwiched between Cory Haase (02) and Eric Vanosdall (9) down the back stretch during their heat race.

ne won and Johnson was second.

Tate Weinrich (46) took a runner-up finish in the main feature.

AJ Boilen (25) took a third place finish.

Jeremy Brabec (99) took a fourth place finish.

Jeremy Hoskinson crossed the line fifth in the feature.

Spann leads 15-car field to checkers

Defending Hobby Stock track championship Sean Spann must have thought it was Christmas when he lined up on the front row for the "A" feature.

He led the entire 15 laps to pick up the win. Spann had a large enough lead that he kept his distance from lapped cars, as he paced the last car in line.

The race was only slowed once after the first lap was completed.

Tate Weinrich of Norfolk settled into the second spot and that is where he finished.

AJ Boilen passed Jeremy Brabec on the second lap and held off the former champion for demander of the race.

Brabec held onto the fourth place and Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Hoskinson came from the "B" feature which he won, with Larry Remsing of Norfolk second and Mark Arduser of Battle Creek taking third.

Weinrich, Spann and Brabec each won their heat race.

Jared Rodgers (7) took a second place finish.

Garet Hurlbert (8) grabbed a third place finish.

Pospisil takes opening victory

Former Hornet track champion Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk made quick work of his class "A" feature, as they were the only class to go green to checkers.

Pospisil start on the outside of the second row after finishing second in his heat race to Jared Rodgers of Norfolk.

Pospisil zipped to the front and led all 10 laps in the feature to pick up the win.

Rodgers started on the pole and fell into line and grabbed the runner-up spot.

Garet Hurlbert of Winside moved into the top three on the third lap. He would finish in that position.

David Board of Norfolk placed fourth and Mysti Kucera of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.
