Pettitt started on the outside of the second row. Travis Birkley of Wakefield led the first four laps from the pole position, but struggled through the corners opening the door for Pettitt.

The two ran side-by-side for a couple laps before moving out front for good.

Birkley ran the final 14 laps in second place with Joel Carlson running third for the last 11 laps.

TeJay Mielke of Norfolk finished fourth and Tad Behmer of Winside rounded out the top 5.

Joel Carlson, subbing for Eric Vanosdall, (36) took a third place finish in the "A" feature.

Tomka flies through field on his way to first victory

It has been a nightmare for Stanton's Doug Tomka following the first two nights of racing at Riviera Raceway this season.

Saturday night Tomka had everybody else having nightmares.

The Grand National driver overlapped all but four other cars during the "A" feature to pick up the win.

In the first two nights, Tomka dropped out of the race while leading the field.

He turned that around Saturday and dominated the first 16 laps where he lapped seventh place just before the caution came out.

In the final nine laps, he lapped the sixth place car at the checkered flag.

While Tomka was screaming around the track and dodging slower traffic in the first part of race, Robert Osborne of Norfolk was trying to hunt Tomka down.

Seven laps into the feature, Osborne got by the second place car of Kyle Coover of Norfolk and found himself a half lap behind Tomka already.

When the caution came out on lap 16, Osborne had narrowed the gap, but still had a long ways to go.

On the restart, Tomka had a clear track, while the second place car was lined with four lapped cars in front of him.

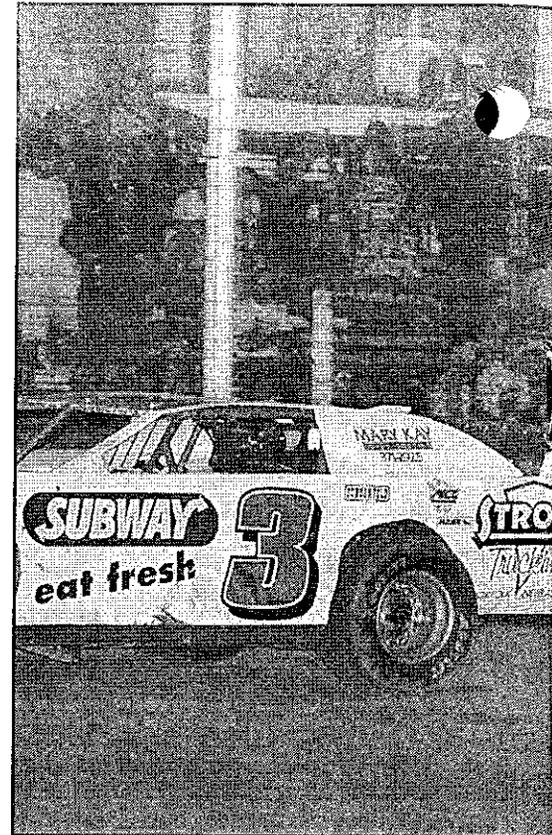

Tomka went back to his blistering pace at the drop of the green and got a head start on the other top cars.

However, it was not long and Tomka was lapping cars again and Osborne again started closing the gap.

After taking the white flag, Osborne made a last lap attempt to get close to Tomka, but came up a few car lengths short.

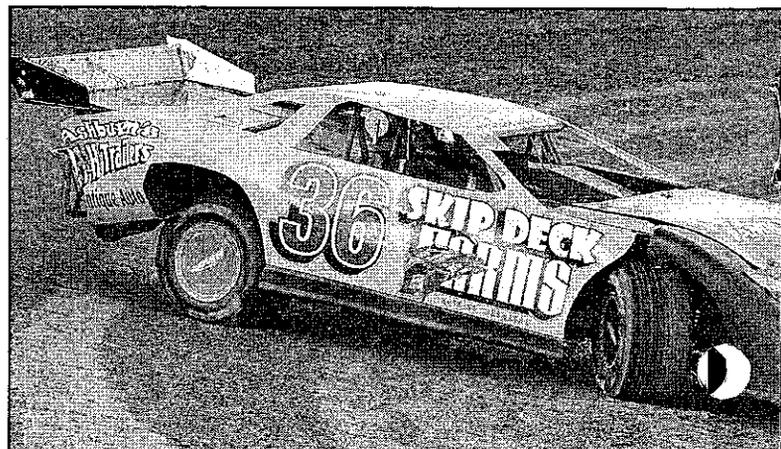

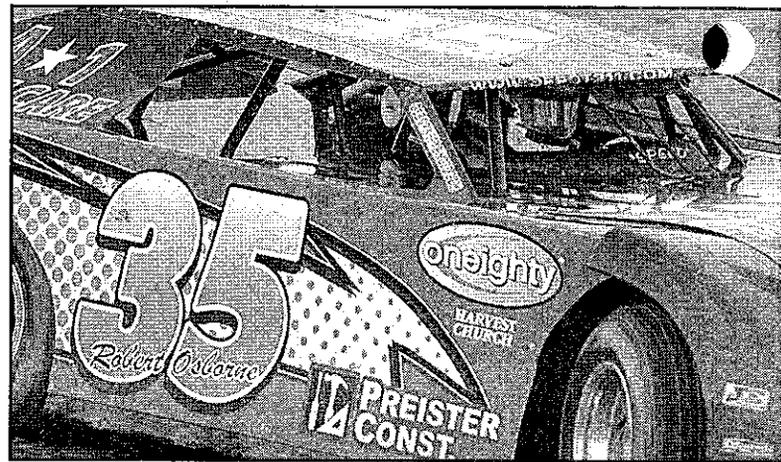

Tomka picked up his first win as Chris Johnson of Bloomfield took home third.

Jim Johnson of Plainview was fourth and JR Strong of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Wilkinson doubles his victory count

Jason Wilkinson of Neligh grabbed his second win of the year. He battled with Tate Weinrich of Norfolk before moving out front with a few laps left.

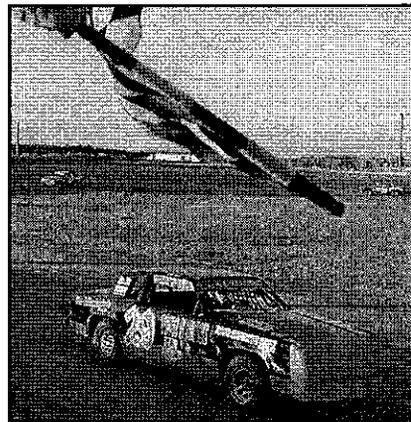

Grant Hurlbert of Winside led the first three laps from the inside second row position.

Weinrich made the pass on Hurlbert to lead lap four. Two laps later Wilkinson moved in behind Weinrich.

Wilkinson looked for the best opportunity to go for the lead. Weinrich led for nine laps. With three laps left, he made his move and picked up his second win.

Weinrich cruised in second and Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton finished third.

Fourth went to Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk and rounding out the top five was Sean Spang of Wayne.

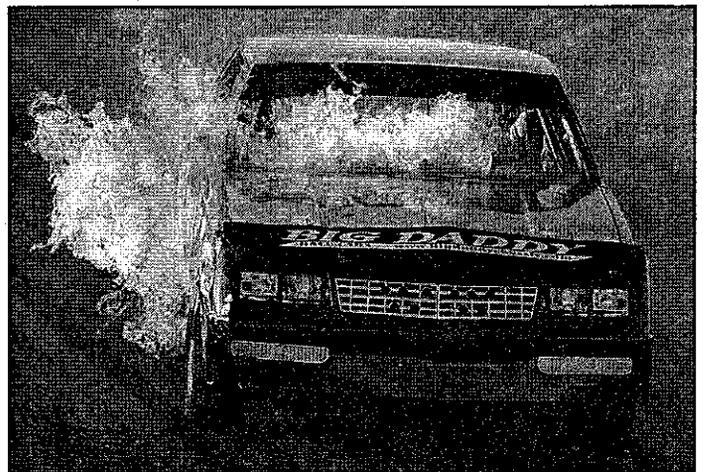

Jake Timm (29) takes the checkered flag to win his heat race. He later finished sixth in the "A" feature.
