Johnson captures victory

After taking second the previous week to his brother, Jim Johnson took a win for himself last week.

Johnson grabbed the lead on lap six and held off BJ Haase of Norfolk for the final 20.

He started on the outside of the third row. He was third after three laps and second after the next lap. Kyle Coover led the first five laps, but he lost a belt and the engine started overheating That gave Johnson the lead.

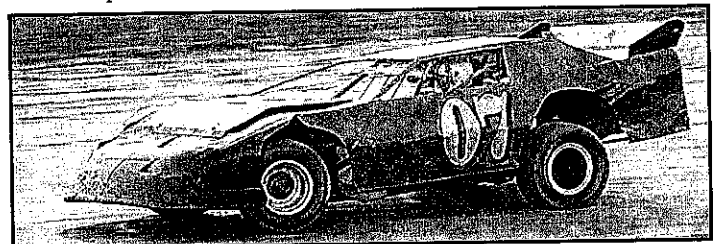

Following Johnson across the line, Haase captured his fourth top 5 of the season at the runner-up position. Chad Jensen of Norfolk jumped into third passing Jeff Haase of Norfolk.

Jensen sat third for 13 laps. Fourth went to Jeff Haase and rounding out the top five was points leader Chris Johnson of Bloomfield.

Jim Johnson's last win came Aug. 11, 2007. The winning points moved him to third in the standings.

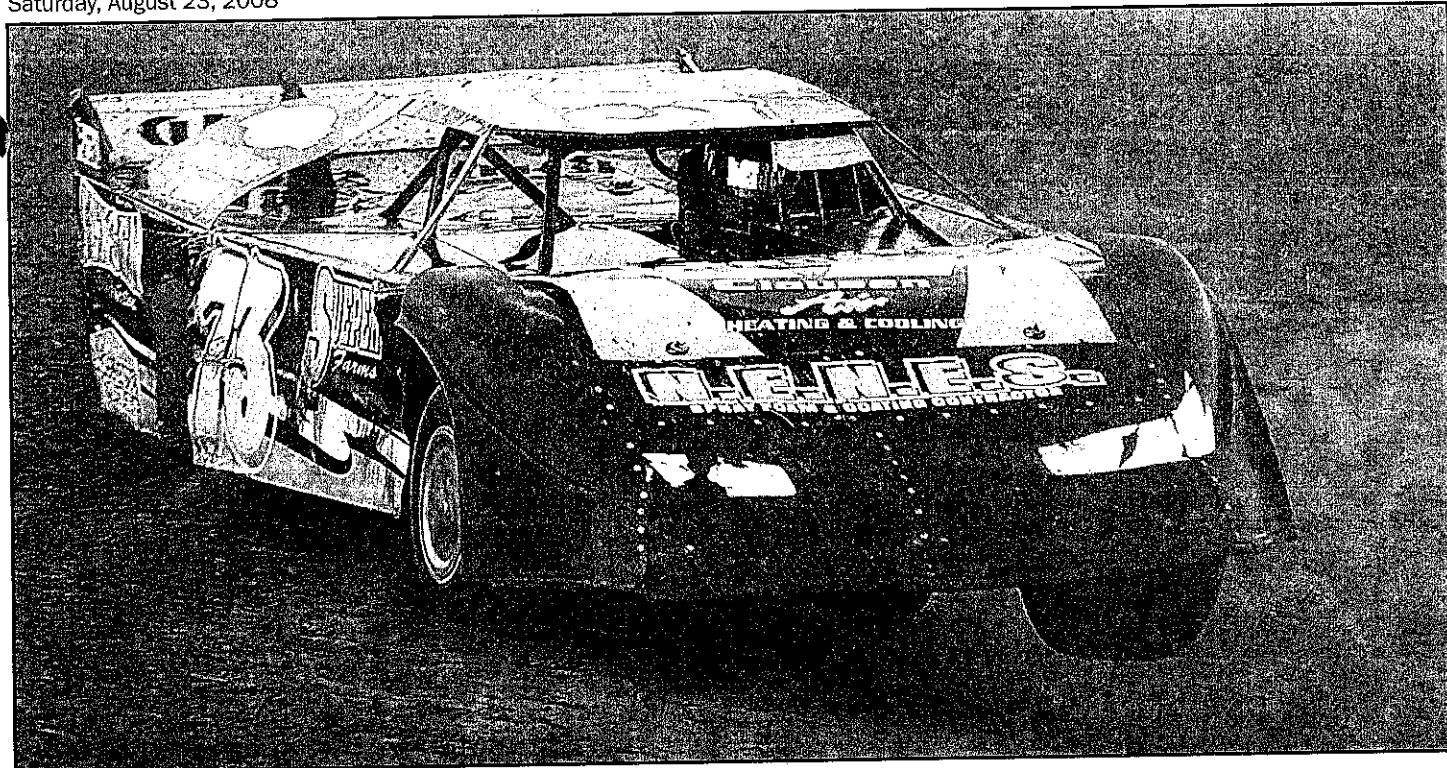

Chris Johnson leads the points, 40 a head of nine-time returning champion Robert Osborne of Norfolk. Jim Johnson is 86 points out of first.

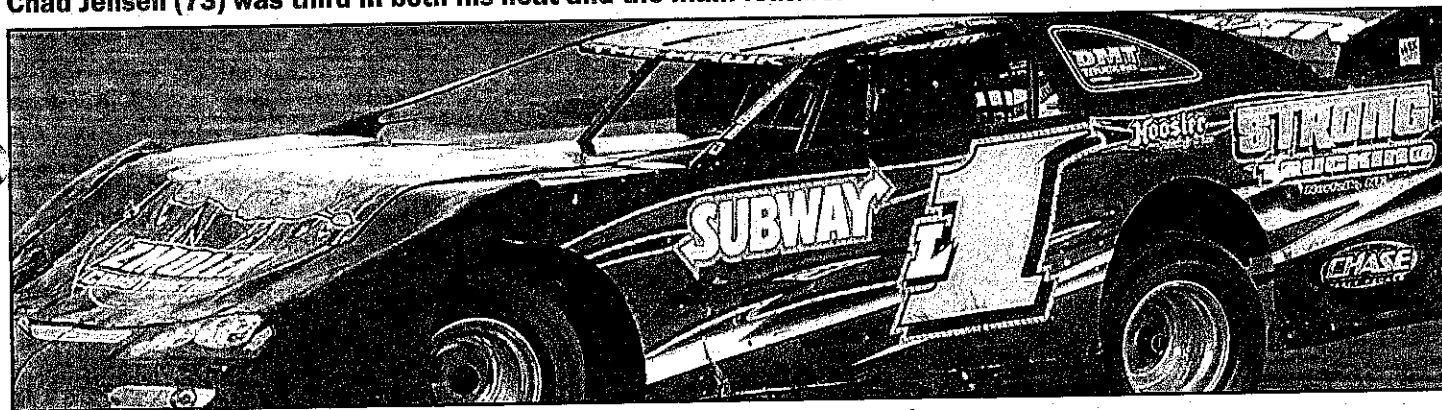

Ben Sukup (07) was second in his heat and eighth in the feature.

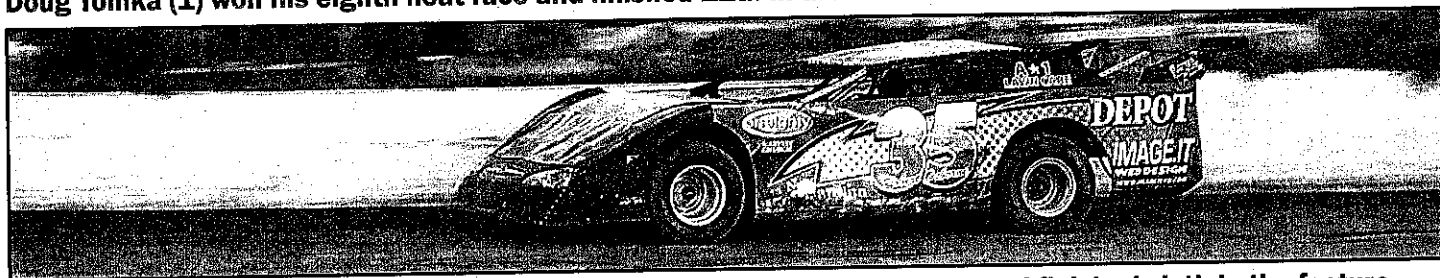

Jeff Haase (94) works his way to the inside of Heath Harrison (53). Haase later finished fourth in the "A."

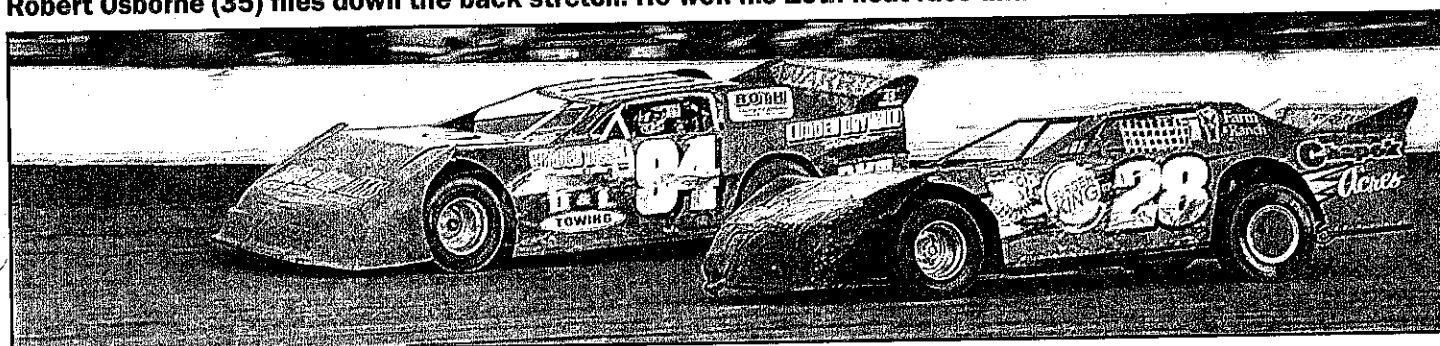

Chad Jensen (73) was third in both his heat and the main feature.

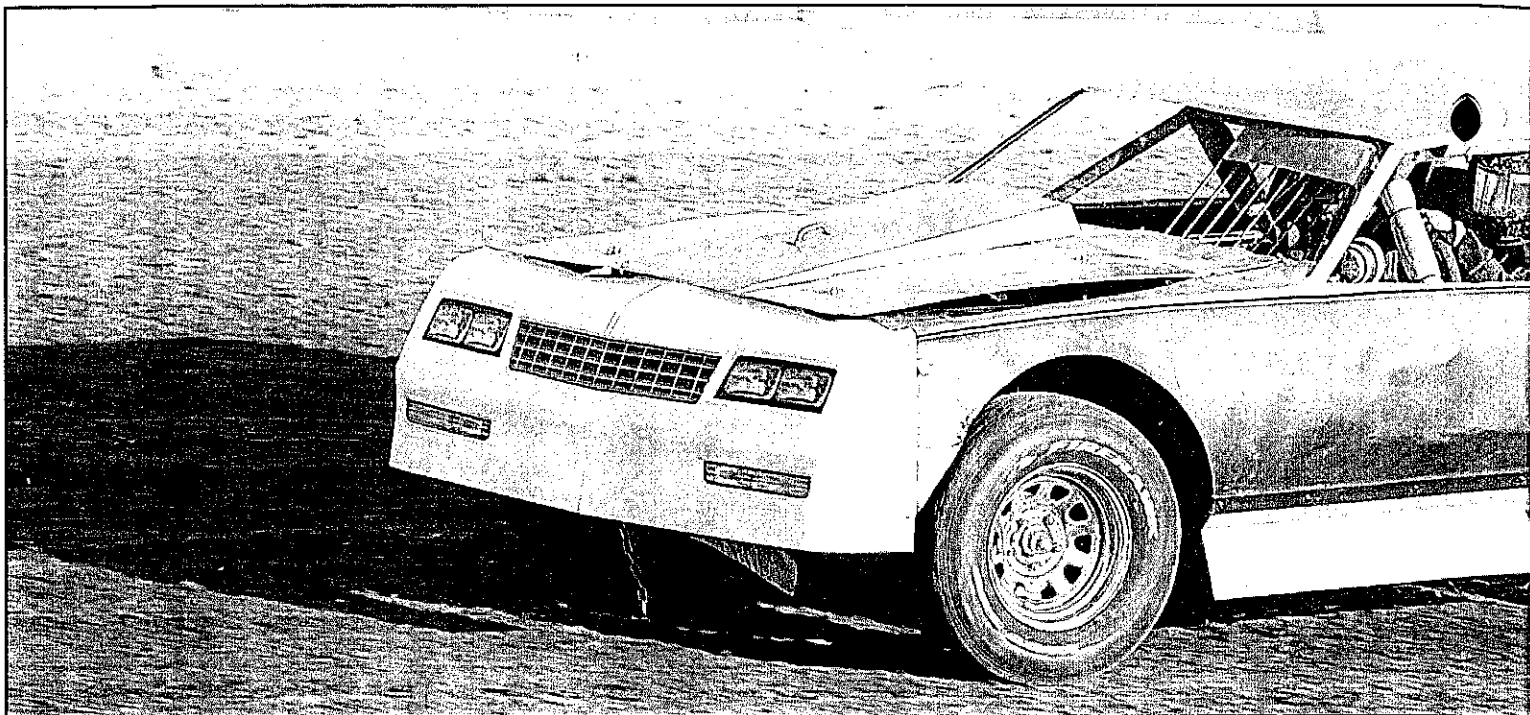

Doug Tomka (1) won his eighth heat race and finished 11th in the "A" feature.

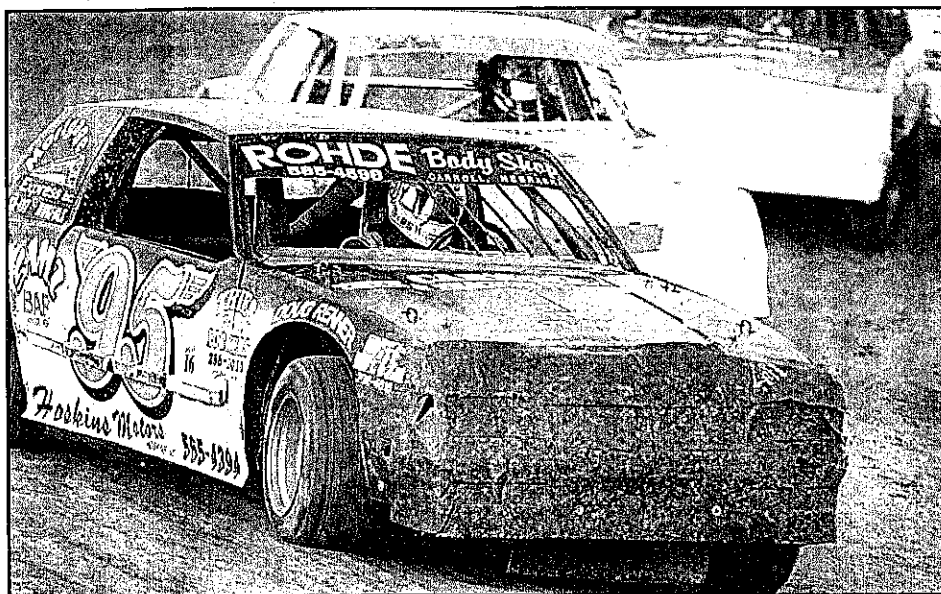

Robert Osborne (35) files down the back stretch. He won his 10th heat race and finished sixth in the feature.

Warren Jensen (28) and Kent Behmer (94x) cruise down the back stretch in their heat race.

Brad Vogt (X) captured his first "A" feature this season.

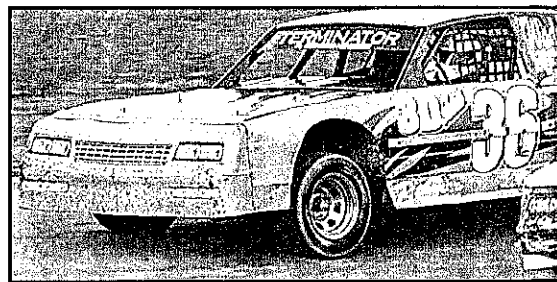

Ryan Rohde (95) exits turn four during his heat race. He won the race and finished 11th in the feature.

Vogt returns to

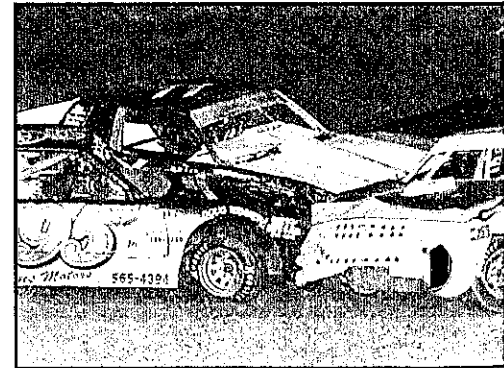

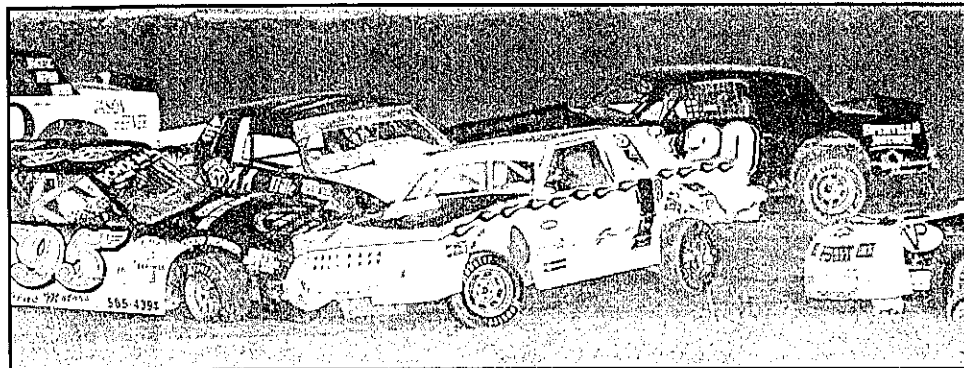

Pierce Street Stock driver Brad Vogt's last win at the track came in the Grand National division July 29, 2005 and his last Street Stock win came Aug. 28, 2004.

Vogt ended the streak by winning last week.

Sean Spann (23) spun in turn two. He lucked out when the caution came out for a different car in turn three.

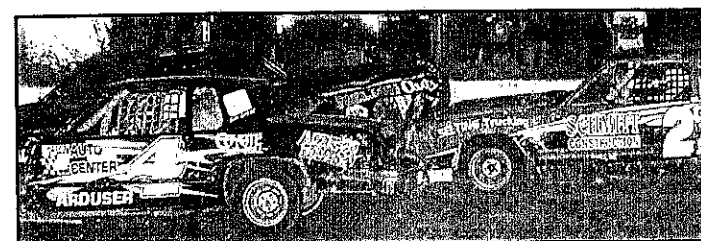

Jason Wilkinson (27) and Grant Hurlbert (85) took second and third respectively.

Jim Spencer took a heat win and finished fifth in "A."

Three wide did not work and Jim Kimmel (17) ended up in the wall.

Spann capitalizes on break to win

Sean Spann of Wayne has finished second three times this season, but he finally won his first of the season. His last win came on last season's championship night.

But it was an interesting climb through the 15-car field

Spann spun out in turn two after completing the sixth lap. However, moments before that a car spun on the other end of the track. A caution came out for the incident across the track.

That gave Spann his spot back. Four laps later he moved out front to lead the final six laps for his first win of the season.

Grant Hurlbert of Winside led the opening nine laps but dropped a spot to points leader Jason Wilkinson of Neligh. Wilkinson finished second and Hurlbert wrapped up third.

Jeremy Brabec of Stanton worked his way from a 11th place starting position. He finished fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Jim Spencer of Norfolk.

Wilkinson holds an 11-point lead over Spann in the overall standings.

Koch does not look to be slowing down

With area tracks outlawing rear-wheel drive Hornet stock cars, Brian Koch's race car is seeing its final days of competition and they are not going out quietly.

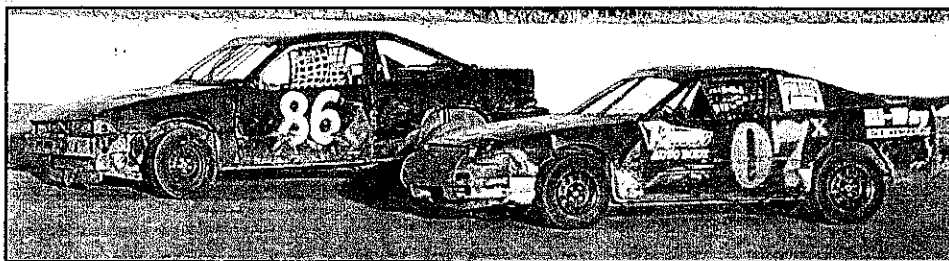

Koch's car added the sixth win Saturday night taking only three laps to move out front after starting 10th in the 15-car field.

He was third after two laps.

Kevin Haase led the first two laps, he only fell back one more time to points leader Eric Sloan of Norfolk. Sloan was second and Haase was third.

Fourth went to Luke Daily of Norfolk and rounding out the top 5 was Adam Wagner of Norfolk.

Brian Koch (07x) and Luke Daily (86) race in their heat. Koch won the "A" feature and Daily was fourth.

Kevin Haase (9) and Ryan Chrisp (44) compete in their heat. Haase took third in the main event.

Jared Rodgers (7) races through turn four.
