Junior Coover (10) driving for nephew Kyle Coover leads Roberts Osborne (35) and Chad Jensen (73) in their heat race. Coover later won the "A" feature.

Uncle takes nephews car to victory

Kyle Coover of Norfolk took the night off for a wedding last week and turned the driving duties over to his uncle, Junior Coover also of Norfolk.

The older Coover is no stranger to the track, but has not run a full schedule since 2005 when he finished 10th in the points.

Coover took full advantage of his outside pole position in the "A" feature and went straight out front.

He led the entire 25-lap feature for the win. It was his third win in three seasons. His last win also came in his nephew's car on August 12th of last year.

BJ Haase of Norfolk took his best finish since his win on May 8, 2004. He finished second to Coover.

Chad Jensen of Norfolk settled for third, as he was able to get along side Haase, but could not get the bite he needed off the turns to make the pass for second.

Fourth went to Cody Cox of Norfolk. It was his second top 5 in three weeks.

Rounding out the top 5 was Jim Johnson of Plainview.

Mike Benson of Wakefield returned for the second week and won the "B" feature over Tom Wagner and Billy Sukup, both of Norfolk. All three drivers advanced to the main event.

Wagner had the best finish in the "A" when he finished ninth.

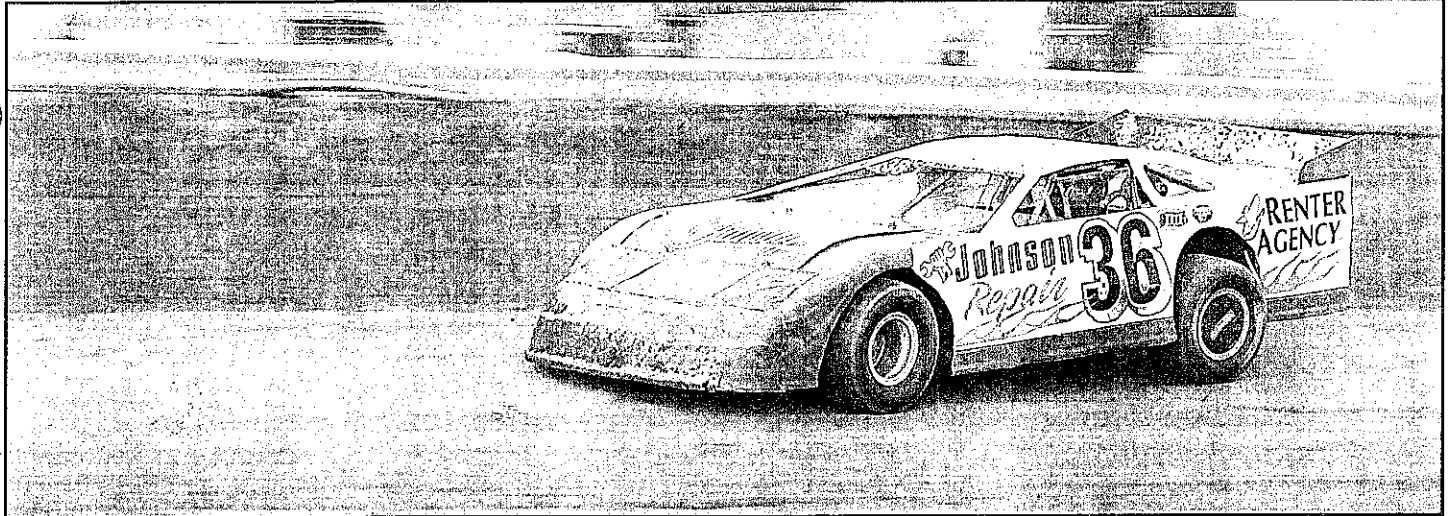

Jeff Haase of Norfolk, Johnson and Robert Osborne of Norfolk each won their heat race. It was Haase's third win and Osborne's and Johnson's sixth win.

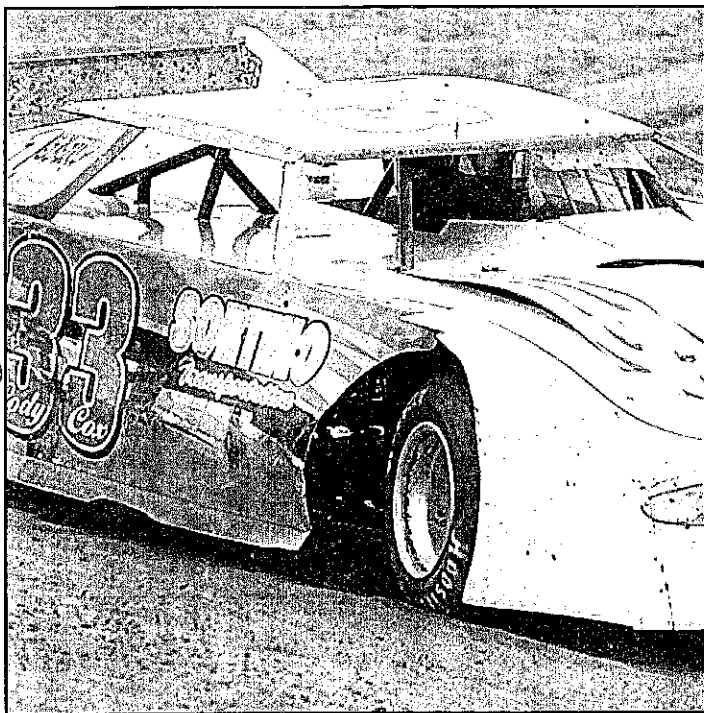

Chad Jensen (73) could get inside of BJ Haase (4) but was unable to make the pass for second place during the "A" feature. Haase finished second and Jensen was third.

BJ Haase (4) exits turn four in front of Jeff Haase (94) in their heat race. Jeff Haase won the heat race, but BJ Haase later took a runner-up finish in the "A" feature.

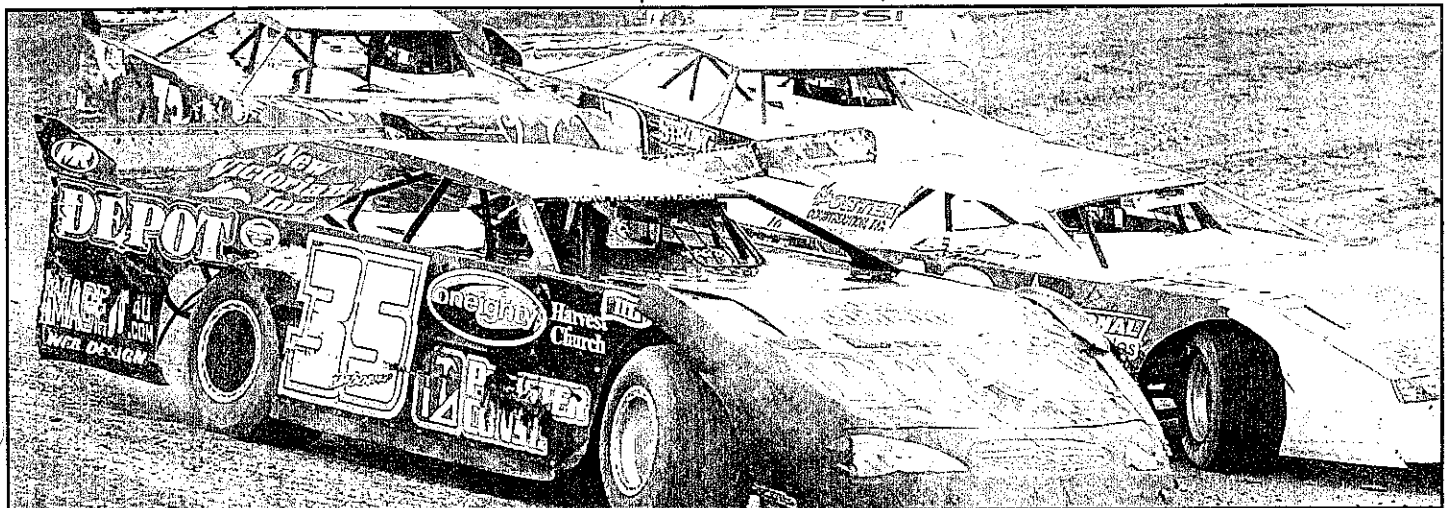

Jim Johnson (36) cruised to a fifth place finish in the "A" feature, after he won his heat race.

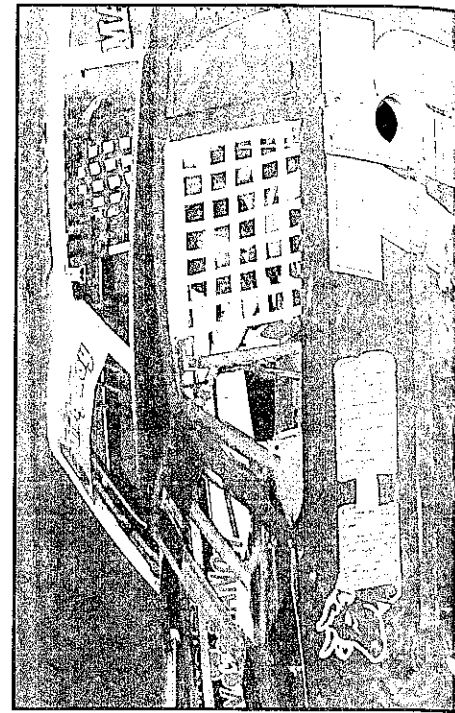

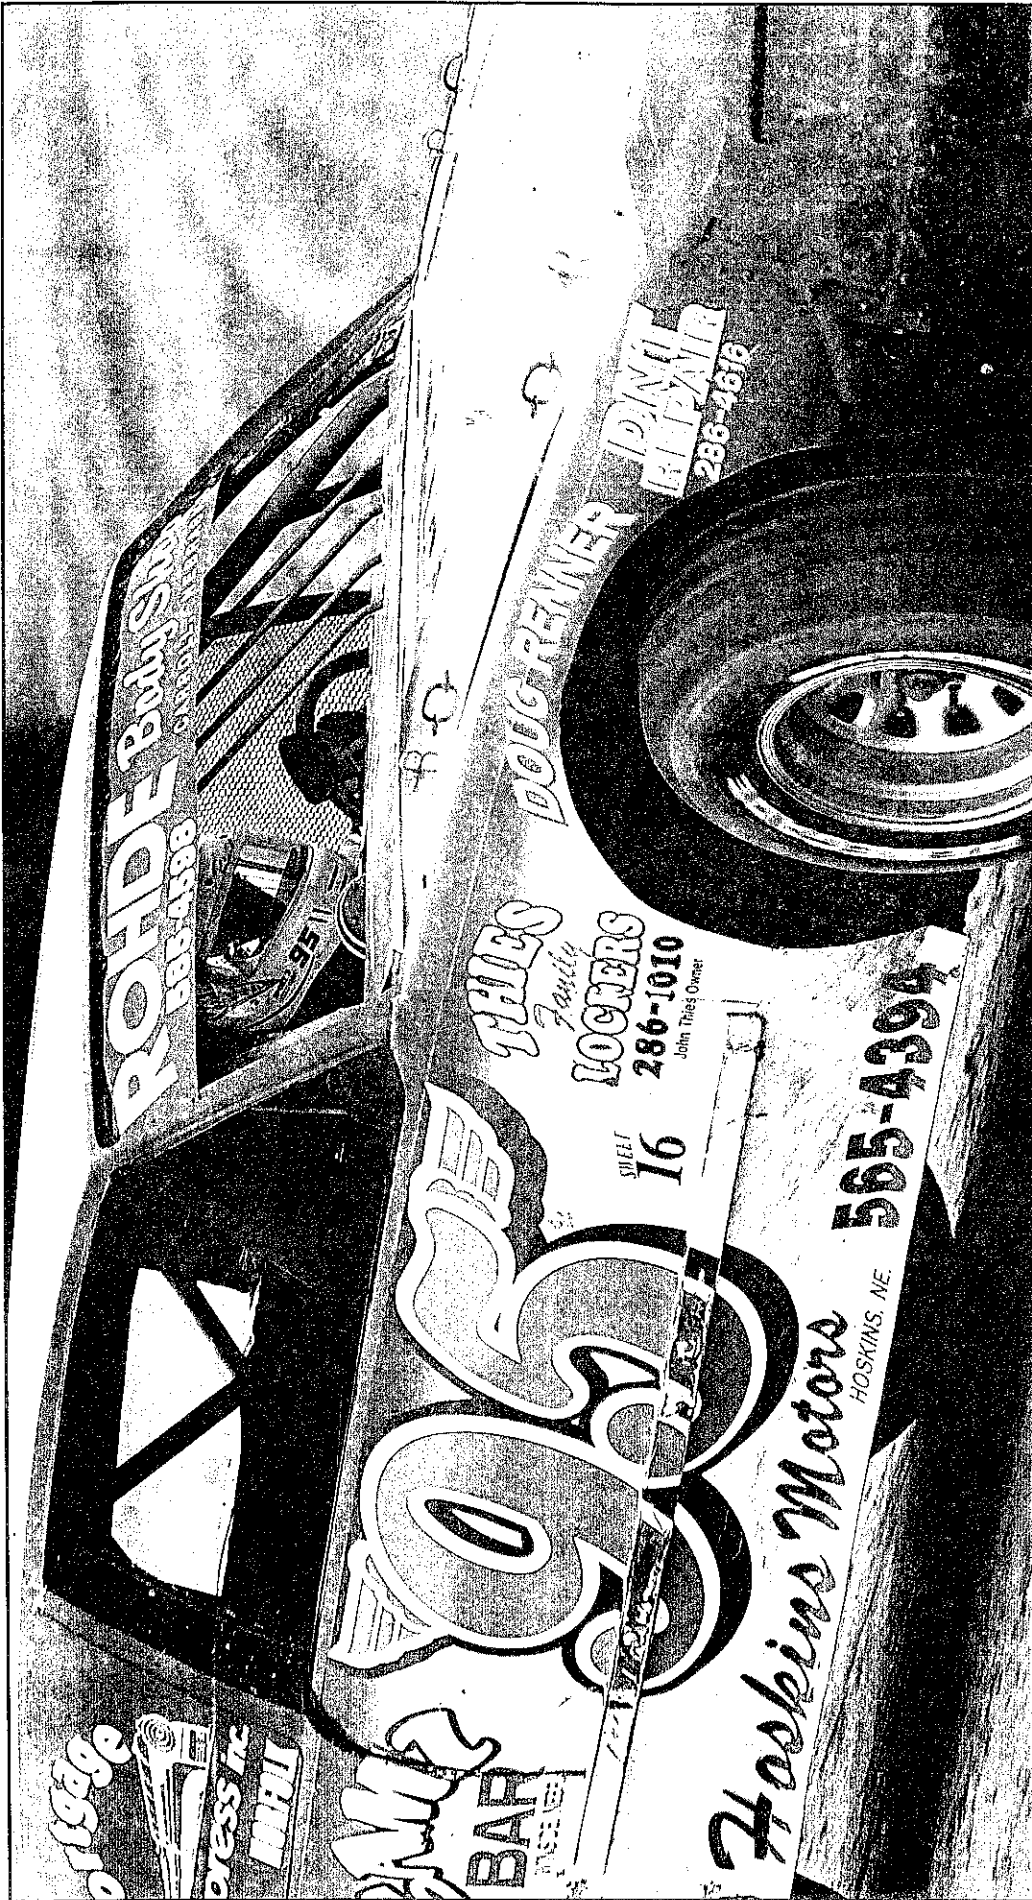

Cody Cox (33) finished fourth in the "A" feature.

Robert Osborne flies by the rest of field onto winning his heat race. Osborne finished seventh in the "A" feature and continues to lead the track points.

Ryan Rohde (95) won his heat race and later was awarded the main feature win.

Rohde awarded Kesting trophy

It was another night when the race winner was announced after the night was over. TeJay Mielke of Norfolk had taken the checkered flags first, however, he did not pass post race inspection. That gave the win to Ryan Rohde of Carroll. However, he might have won outright if had he as no caution came on. Rohde regrouped and was running third for the first nine laps. He slipped past Tad Behmer of Winside on lap 10 which turned out to be the pass for the win. It was Rohde's first win since July 8 of last season.

Nick Cautrell of Winside was also disqualified giving up his third place spot to Tad Behmer of Winside — his fourth top 5 finish. Team 12 took the next two spots. Ron Peitritt and Shawn Primrose, both of Norfolk, rounded out the top 5. Rohde, Behmer and Primrose each won their heat race. It was Primrose's sixth win, Behmer's fourth and Rohde's third.

DRIBBLES

Troy Bruns (75) battles with Ron Pettitt (12) in the "A" feature last week. Bruns finished second in the event.

Telaj Mielke (77) caught a break after spinning and causing a pile up. He was leading the "A" feature at the time. The caution, however, had come out for a safety reason on another car. Mielke went onto winning, but failed post inspection which cost him his trophy and extra money put in by the Dale Kesting family.

Tad Behmer (20) took the heat race win and finished third in the "A" feature.

Ron Pettitt deals with his window net during his heat race. He grabbed another top 5 finish in the feature later.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11) was perfect last week. He won both his heat race and the "A" feature.

Vollbrecht wins both heat and feature

There are only 15 laps in the "A" feature of the Hobby Stock class, but last week Nelson Vollbrecht must have felt he was at the Brickyard 400.

Vollbrecht jumped out front and endured five cautions, three of which came in the final four laps.

Each time Vollbrecht got back into a rhythm, a caution slowed the pace again.

On one restart, Jim

Kimmel of Norfolk was running second and he tried to get under Vollbrecht on the restart.

Kimmel made contact and nearly spun the Stanton High School driver. Kimmel backed off and allowed Vollbrecht to regroup.

Vollbrecht did regroup and went back to work and won his first career feature. It was also his third top 5 this season.

Sean Spann of Wayne made a last lap pass to finish second. Spann broke into the top three on lap 13 of 15-lap feature. He challenged Kimmel for second on lap 14 and made the pass on the final lap.

In a new stock car, Kimmel returned to running up front. After winning five features last season and the
