Hames claims first win

The Street Stock main event had only one incident, but it left several cars mangled.

However, for Jason Hames of Crofton it was smooth sailing out front of the pack.

Rick Hansen of Norfolk led the first lap, before Hames took over on the second lap.

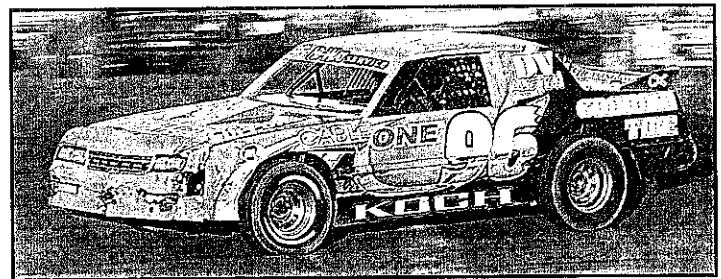

Several laps later Brian Koch of Norfolk was taken out and it stacked up the field. TeJay Mielke of Norfolk took the hardest hit leaving his car without a straight piece of sheet metal.

On the restart, Hames was let loose again and he pulled away to lead the final laps.

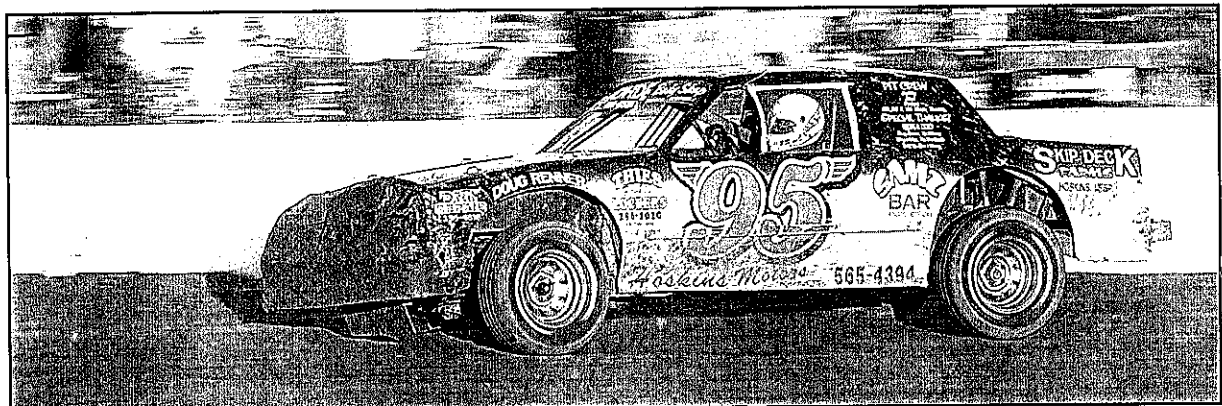

Hansen raced second until the caution came out. However on the restart both Ryan Rohde of Carroll and Chad Bruns of Wayne slipped passed.

Hames picked up his first win at the track after starting in the 2000 season. Rohde finished out the race second, backing up his win from the previous night.

Brian Koch (96) overcame trouble early in the "A" feature to finish fourth.

Ryan Rohde (95) flies down the back stretch during his heat race. He later finished second in the "A" feature.

Chad Bruns runs through turn four during his heat race. He later finished third in the "A" feature.

Bruns posted his second top 5 in three nights, taking his best effort at third place.

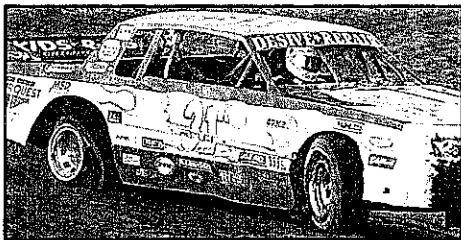

Koch worked his way back through the field to finish fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Eric Vanosdall of Winside.

Jason Freeman of Bloomfield won the "B" feature with Tad Behmer of Winside and Brad Brabec of Norfolk finishing second and third, respectively.

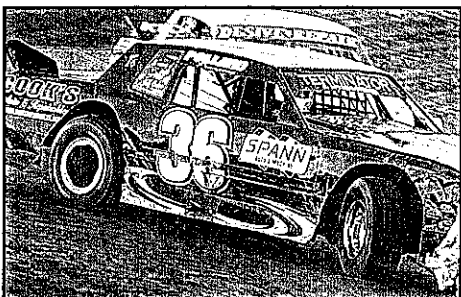

Rohde, Koch and Shawn Primrose of Norfolk each won their heat races.

Rick Hansen (35) loses a right rear tire during the "A" feature. Hansen lead the early in the race.

Fred DeSive (31) has a tire go down during his heat race. His still managed to make the "A" feature where he finished seventh.

Eric Vanosdall collected another top 5 with a fifth place finish.

TeJay Mielke (77) got caught up in someone doings in the "A" feature. Brian Koch (96) was also a victim.

Jim Johnson (36) captured his second win of the season.

Johnson wins on seven cylinders

Grand National driver Cory Haase of Norfolk looked to have won his second feature since his first full season in 2002, but a late race caution erased his chance.

Haase led from the drop of the green flag and led 23 laps until the final caution came out with two laps left.

The caution came out when Chris Johnson of Bloomfield and Chad Jensen of Norfolk battled for second. Both drivers ended up at the rear of the field.

Jensen was looking to pass Haase for the lead, but was unable to find away around.

Johnson, who had worked his way up started challenging Jensen for second.

With time running out, Johnson pushed the issue and spun Jensen. Johnson was sent to the rear, as Jensen suffered a flat tire.

That put Jim Johnson of Plainview into the picture. Jim Johnson, who started the race on seven cylinders, found the high side was working for him and he steadily moved through the field.

The caution moved him to second and on the bumper of the leader. On the restart, Jim Johnson took little time to get by Haase and won his second of the season. Haase finished second his best finish of the season.

Doug Tomka of Stanton took home a third place finish, as Brad Vogt of Norfolk finished fourth in Jason Throener's ride.

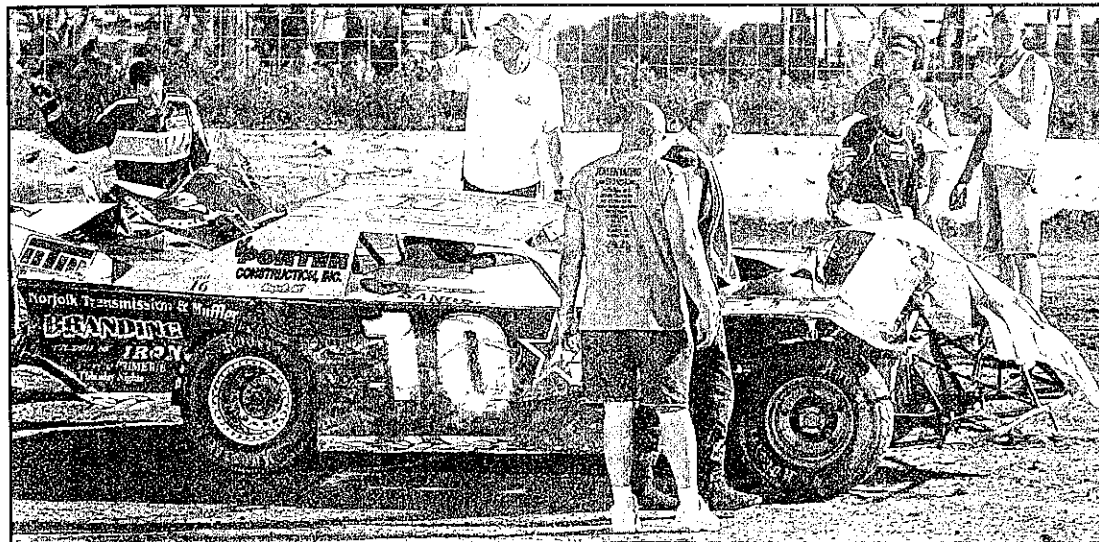

Rounding out the top five was Jason Re of Thurston.

Cody Cox of Norfolk won the "B" feature. Tom Wagner and JR Strong, both of Norfolk transferred with Cox to the "A."

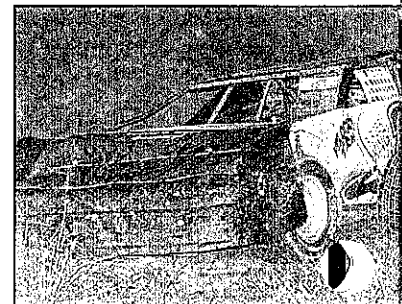

Haase, Vogt and Tomka each won their first race.

With four nights remaining, Defending track champion Robert Osborne continues to lead the points title. Jensen loses little ground, as Jim Johnson passes brother Chris Johnson for the third spot. Jeff Haase rounds out the top 5.

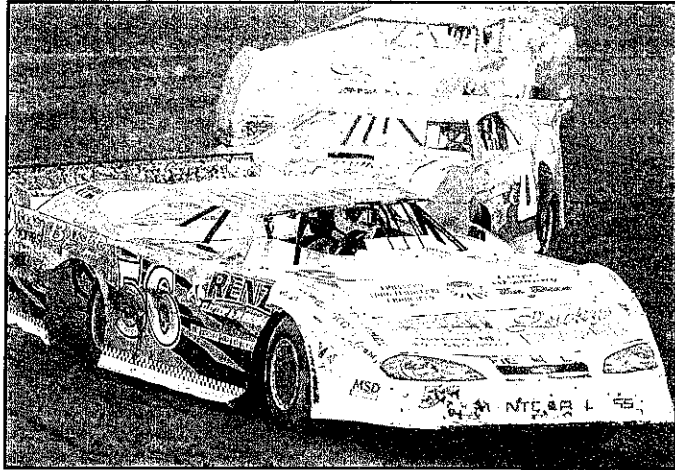

Only 101 points separate first and fifth.

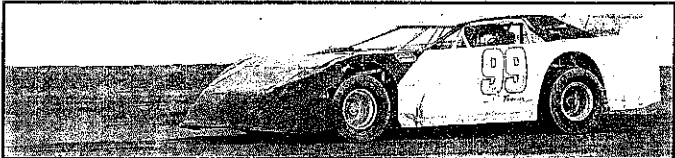

Kyle Coover (10) has his stock car towed from the track after getting caught up in a pile up during the "B" feature.

Warren Jensen (28), Cory Haase won the "A" feature. Haase went on to win in the race.

Jason Renz (56) leads Mike Benson (71) and Taylor Caldwell (90) during their heat race. Renz finished fifth in the "A" feature.

Brad Vogt (99) picked up a top 5 with a fourth place.

21) and Mike Benson (71) stack up during lead 23 laps, however, he finished second

Taylor Caldwell (90) rides his car back to the pits after hitting the front stretch wall. He was trying to avoid a pile up in turn four.

Heath Harrison (53) leads Johnny Kerby (25) in the "A" feature. Harrison took the win and Kerby was second.

Harrison finds way to victory after melee

Going into the last Saturday, the Hobby Stock class has had eight different winners in 12 nights of racing.

Two more drivers were looking to put their names in the win column. However, it did not work out so well.

The first 10 laps went smooth with MD Sehi of Norfolk leading the first four and Michael Tomasek of Norfolk leading the next six.

A caution came out after the completion of the 10th lap, which bunched the field.

On the restart, Tomasek went back to work, as both Jim Spencer and Jeremy Hoskinson, both of Norfolk quickly worked their way through the field to second and third.

After taking the white flag, the three cars managed to bounce off each other and they started spinning blocking the back stretch.

With the track blocked, other drivers had nowhere to go and started a chain reaction of crashes.

Matt Kersten of Norfolk took the biggest ride when he turned upside down and then was struck violently again while in mid air. Everybody climbed from their vehicles.

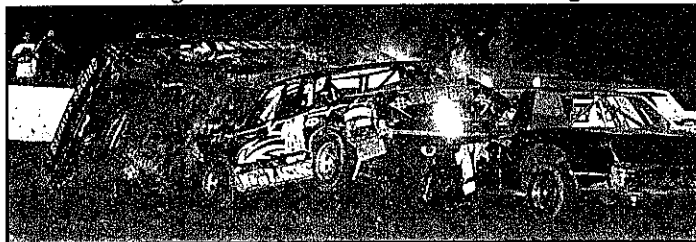

The incident knocked out five cars from the 15-car field.

On the restart, Jeremy Brabec of Norfolk inherited the lead with Heath Harrison of Thurston running second.

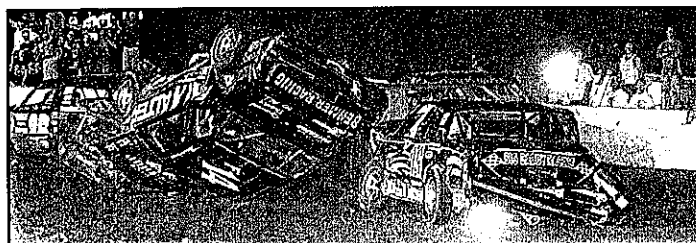

With only two laps left, Harrison quickly made his move and jumped out front. Johnny Kerby of Wisner also got by Brabec and tried to run down Harrison. Harrison out raced Kerby to the checkered flags.

It was Harrison's first night at the track this season. It was his third win in his third season at the track.

Kerby equaled his best effort with his second runner-up finish. Third went to Brabec and Tom Marksmeier of Norfolk grabbed fourth. Rounding out the top five was Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton.

Matt Kersten (14) gets flipped on his top and then spun around during the "A" feature. Kersten walked away.

Jim Kimmel (17) gets spun on the back stretch before the rain hit Aug. 4. Kimmel strikes the wall.

Barg does it again

There has been only two different winners in the Hor-net class so far this season. Or should one say two different cars and four different drivers have won this season.

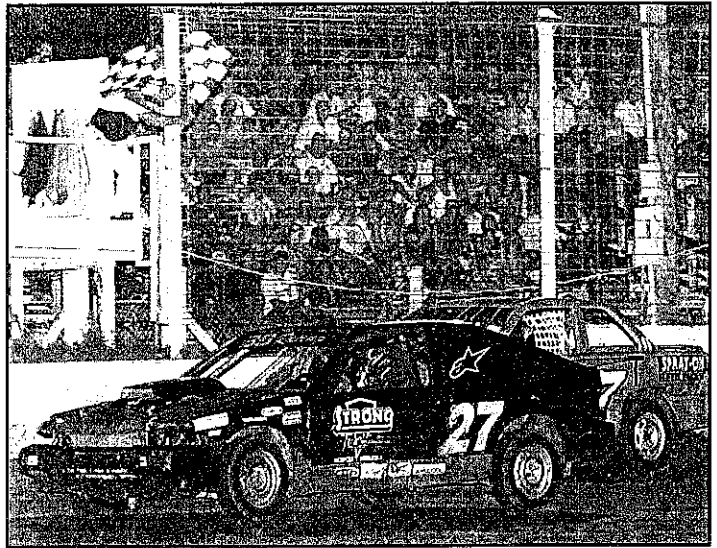

Jeremy Barg and Eric Sloan, both of Norfolk share a ride. Barg equaled the number of wins between them winning for the second straight time last week.

Shannon Pospisil has five wins and his second driver Cody Thoene has one.

Last Saturday, Chris Collins of Norfolk led the first three laps. Following a caution, Barg took over the top spot on the restart.

Ryan Crisp of Norfolk made a last attempt to catch Barg at the checkers but came up short for his first time at the track.

Angie Collins of Norfolk finished third, Matt Haase of Norfolk placed fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Pospisil.

Jeremy Barg (27) edged out Ryan Crisp (07t) to take the checkered flags. It was his second of the season and the cars fourth.
