Pettitt captures season opener

Ron Pettitt (12) takes the checkered flag in the "A" feature last week.

Former champion uses second chance

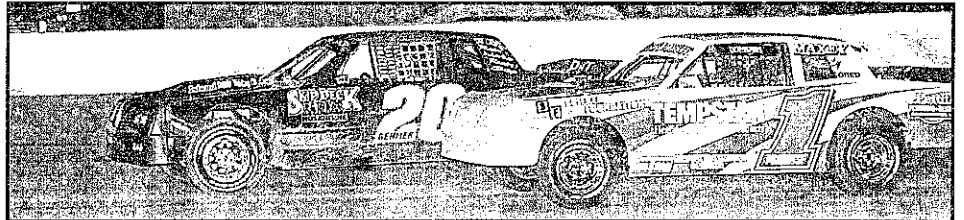

Past track champion Ron Pettitt of Norfolk must have thought it was his night as he started the "A" feature from the pole position.

But when the green flag dropped, it was everything Pettitt could do to keep the car going forward.

He quickly dropped out of the top three and by the time the first caution came out after the fifth lap, he was sitting fifth.

Meanwhile, the battle at the front of the pack was between Tad Behmer of Winside and Shawn Primrose of Norfolk.

Behmer led the first six laps, with Primrose patiently waiting for his chance to dash to the front. Primrose had successfully gotten by Behmer, but a caution gave the lead back to Behmer.

The race took a complete turn after the third caution when Pettitt said his car came to life. He showed that when he slipped past the top three cars in one lap and zipped into the lead and never looked back in his win.

Ryan Rohde (95), Jason Freeman (38) and Ryan Wessendorf (3) race through turn three and four during their heat race. Rohde struggled in his heat race and made the "A" feature through the "B." He finished second in the "A."

Tate Weinrich (46) placed fourth in the "A" feature.

Osborne starts season with a victory

Eight-time defending track champion Robert Osborne of Norfolk led from the drop of the green flag, as he started on the pole for the "A" feature last week.

The 25-lap race went caution free for first 16 laps and by lap seven Osborne was already dealing with lapped traffic.

Following the first caution, the race was stopped five times. Following the restarts Osborne searched for the fastest way around the track. Chad Jensen of Norfolk, who was nipping at Osborne's heels for most of the race, had enough to keep pace, but could not get around. Osborne managed to hold off Jensen the entire distance.

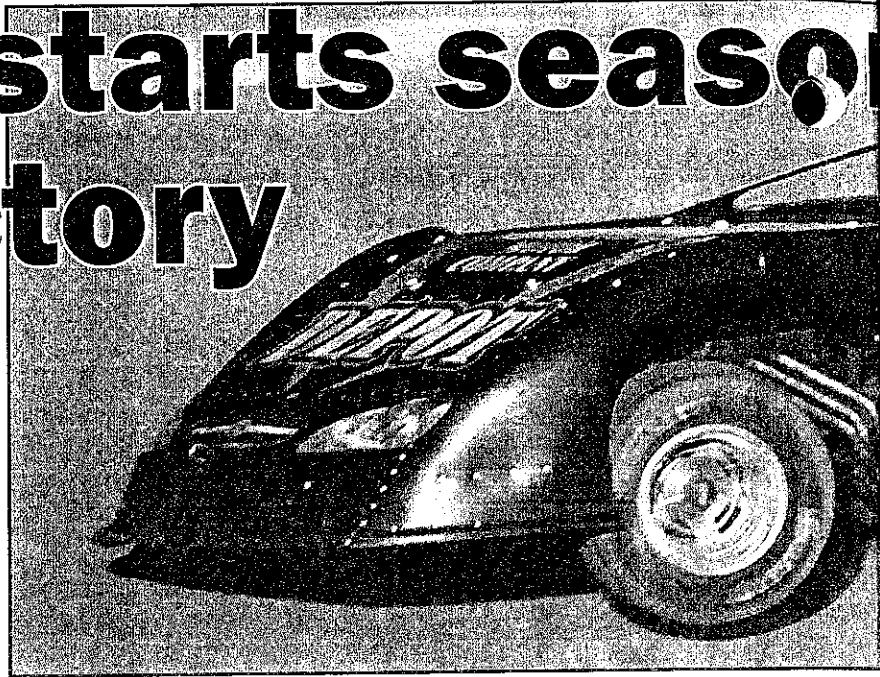

Billy Sukup of Norfolk battled with Jensen on the restarts, but was unable to capitalize.

With eight laps left in the race, Chris Johnson of Bloomfield started challenging Sukup for the third spot. Johnson made the pass on lap 18, however, Sukup was ahead on lap 19. By lap 20, Johnson took the spot for good.

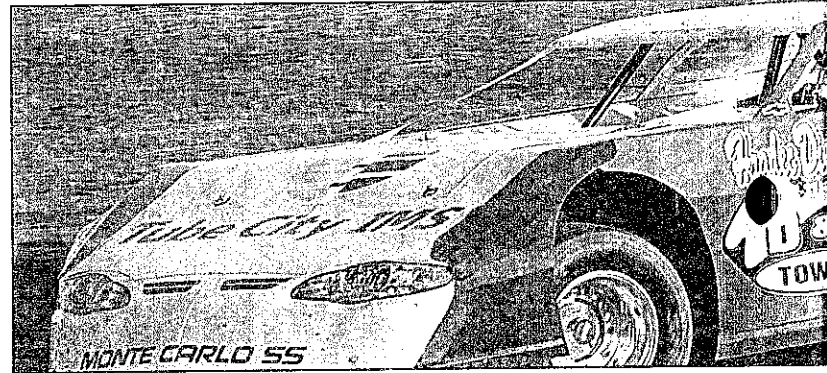

Osborne picked up the win with Jensen second. Johnson took third. Taylor Caldwell of Stanton and Jeff Haase of Norfolk slipped passed Sukup for fourth and fifth respectively.

All 17 cars were allowed to run the "A" feature, so the "B" feature was not run.

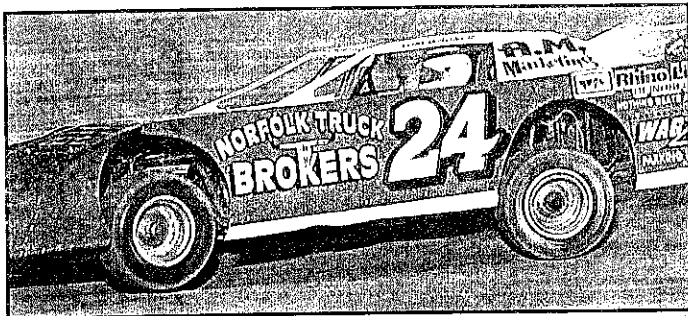

Osborne, Tom Wagner of Norfolk and Cory Haase of Norfolk each won their heat races.

Norfolk's Matt Haase, the grandson of local legend Raymond Haase and son of veteran driver Jeff Haase, took home second place.

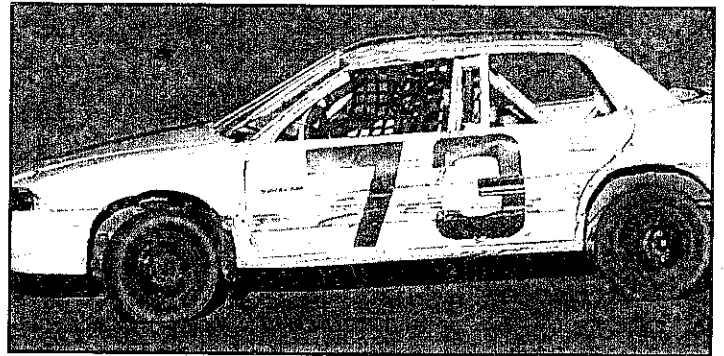

Travis Wortmann of Hartington placed third, as Ross Wortmann of Hartington finished fourth. Rounding out the top five was Kevin Haase of Norfolk.
