Osmond driver takes second win

Jim Johnson of Osmond did not have the pole position like he did the week before in the Street Stock "A" feature, but it was the same result — the win.

Johnson said he got a good restart, following a scramble back in the pack that brought out the caution before the drivers completed one lap.

On the restart, drivers lined up single file putting Johnson sixth in line.

"I got a hell-a-va restart," said Johnson, who went from sixth to second in less than a lap passing most of them before exiting turn two.

The only thing standing in front of him and checkered flag was rookie Pat Herley of Norfolk. After only one lap, Johnson was leading the 15-car field and pulling away again.

"I took it easy again," said Johnson, who tried to miss the holes in the track. "The new axles should be here for next week."

Johnson broke an axle on opening night, but since then he has led 29 of 30 laps in the last two "A" features.

Johnson finished out the race, only looking back once to see his large lead.

"I hope I can do it again," said Johnson, who thought it was his first back-to-back and knows a three-peat would be a first.

Back on the track, second went to Herley, who raced only cruisers until this year. Herley was able to keep the car out of trouble and pointing in the right direction in his first career "A" feature start.

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield finished third to give him his third top five finish of the year.

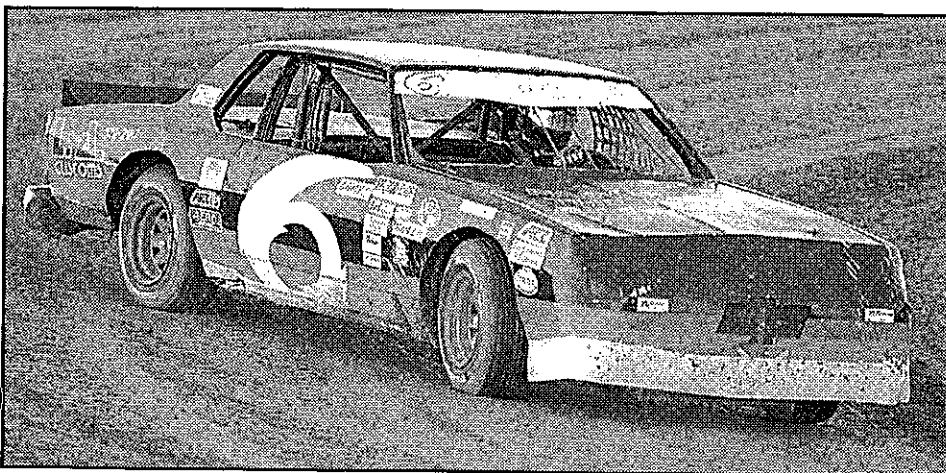

The Johnson brothers have had successful beginnings. They are the only drivers to have wins this year.

Fourth went to Travis Loecker of Bloomfield and Darrell Doerr of Plainview finished out the top five.

Ned Bertschinger of Creighton won the "B" feature leading Jason Jensen of Pilger to the line. Third went to Nick Cautrell of Bloomfield.

Randy Bertschinger of Creighton won the "C" feature over Kevin Hoffart of Norfolk. Third was Jason Throener of Pilger.

Heat race wins went to Dennis Martz of Norfolk, Nick Opfer of Hartington, Chris Johnson and Mike Timm of Pierce. It was Chris Johnson and Opfer's second wins, while Timm and Martz picked up their first.

Pat Herley (6) roars out of turn four in his heat race. He later would finish second in his first "A" feature start.

Roth returns to winning; Wagner makes his return

Rough track

It was a tough night of racing Saturday night at Riviera Raceway, as many cars pulled off the track with bent up sheet metal.

A rough racing surface was to blame for most of the metal crunching, especially turn three, which developed a deep rut in the middle of the groove.

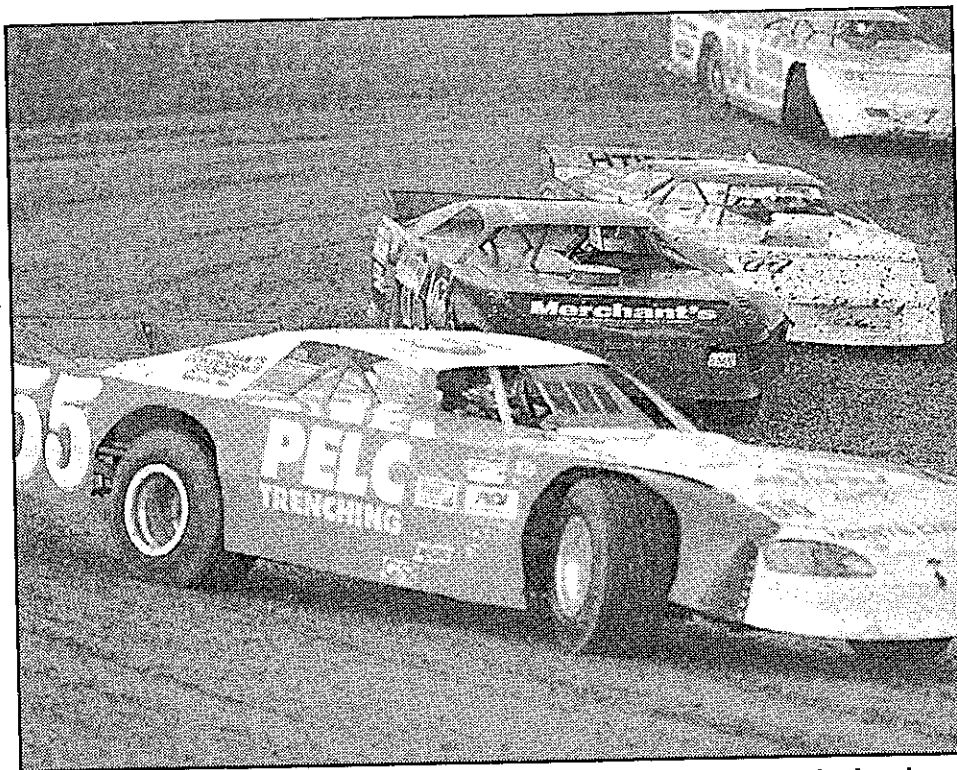

The large pot hole was no problem for veteran Grand National driver, Reggie Roth of Bancroft, who pulled off his second win of the season.

Roth also nearly rolled his car a couple times in turn three lifting both right side tires off the dirt.

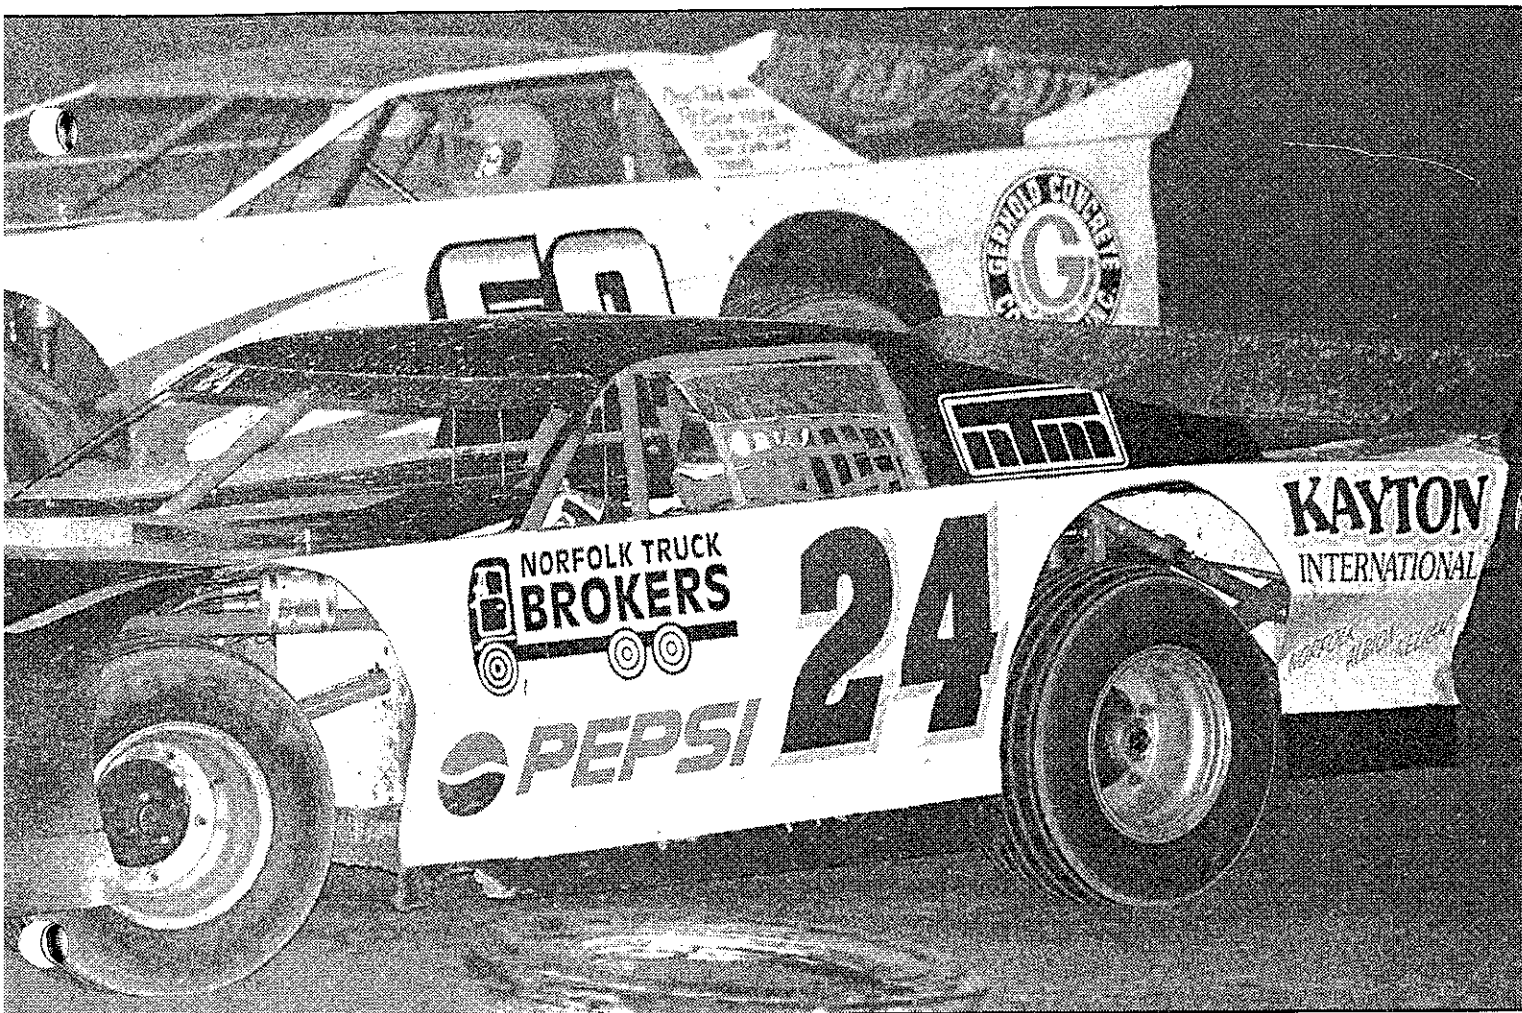

Like his first victory on opening night, Roth had a car to beat in the closing laps that he had to get by.

In the first week it was Robert Osborne of Norfolk and Saturday night it was Norfolk's Tom Wagner, who makes his return to the sport after a couple years of layoff.

"It was good being there after being out (of racing) for two years," said Wagner about running out front and eventually fin-

Steve Matthies (55) leads a group of cars out of turn four during heat races. Matthies third place in the "A" feature was his best finish this season.

not enough to slow winner down ishing second to Roth.

Wagner, who led 13 laps, was Roth's last hurdle he faced in the 15-car field. Roth tried to find room on the bottom of the track, but resorted to making the last pass on the high side following the last of four cautions on lap 14.

It took Roth five laps before he could make the pass and lead the final seven laps to win his second of the season.

Wagner took second and Steve Matthies of Hoskins took home third, his best finish of the year. Fourth went to Robert Osborne of Norfolk, his third top five finish of the season. He is also the only driver to finish all three nights in the top five.

Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove rounded out the top five.

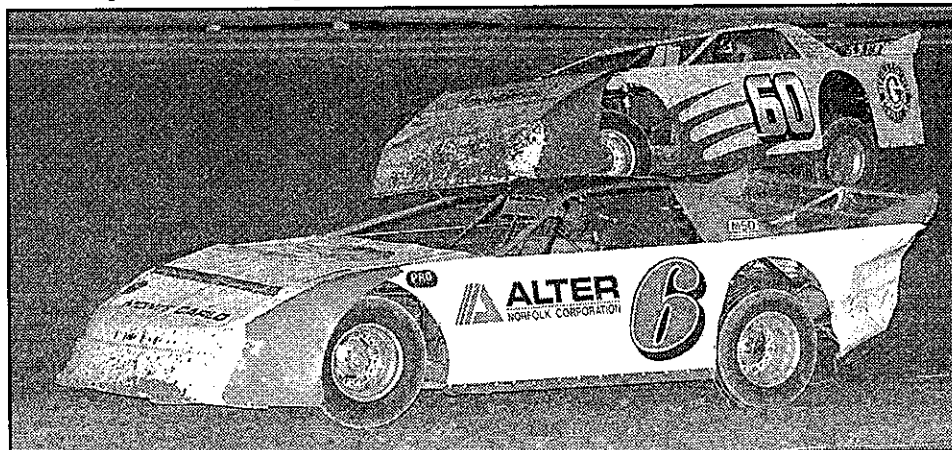

Keith Hansen of Norfolk won the "B" feature over Chad Jensen of Norfolk. Third went to Raymond Haase of Norfolk. All three advanced to the "A."

Heat race wins went to Jay Smith of Norfolk, Travis Loecker of Bancroft and Travis Dickes of Madison. It was each drivers second heat win of the season.

With Reggie Roth's win he pulls to within two points of point leader Osborne. Third in points remains with Smith, as does Lovejoy at fourth. Travis Roth jumps to three spots to take fifth place.

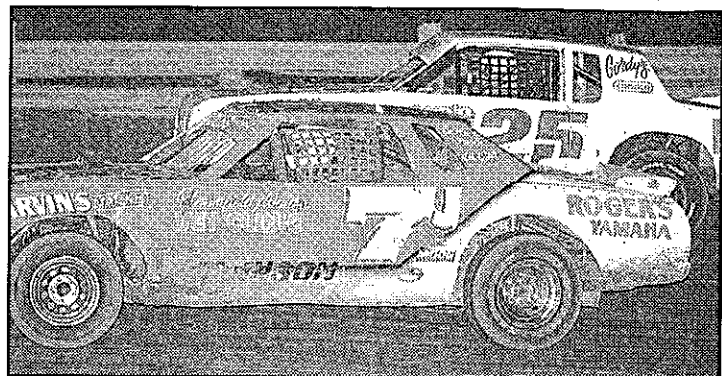

Hansen stays at sixth, while Haase falls two spots to seventh. Also falling was Dickes to eighth. Bob Milander remains at the ninth spot. Wagner makes a four spot leap into the top 10.

Reggie Roth (60) found two wheels may not be as good as driving on all four. He hooked the right side tires in turn two and nearly lost control going around J.R. Clausen (6) during his charge to the front of the "A" feature.

Brain Wagner (3) prepares to take hot laps.

Chris Johnson (7J) and Dennis Martz (25) battle in the "A" feature.

The points battle tightens to a tie for the lead between Chris Johnson and Loecker. Each have 230 points. The duo are also the only drivers to post top five finishes in the first three weeks of racing.

Jim Johnson makes a two spot jump from fifth to third in points — 21 points back. Darrell Doerr falls to fourth, as Martz holds onto fifth.

Opfer climbs one spot to sixth, as Timm climbs two spots to seventh. Ron Pettitt of Pierce remains at eighth, while Greg Johns of Osmond slips to ninth. Johns finished third in his heat, but had trouble in the "A" feature, where he did not finish, placing him 13th out 15 cars.

Hoffart holds the 10th position two points more than Jensen.

Jeremy Kerber and John Uttecht speed down the front stretch to pick up the Cruiser "A" feature win.
