Osborne returns to winning

It took an incident in turn four to help Osborne pull off his fourth win of the season last Saturday, as passing was difficult in the early part of the race.

Osborne said he had trouble passing on the high side and at one point fell back. But an incident in turn three and four would give Osborne the break he needed.

Mike Beckman of Creighton, who was running second at the time, spun out causing a chain reaction involving four cars, which stacked up in turn four. Because of the incident, Osborne would gain those five spots to run sixth after seven laps.

On the restart, Osborne would take three laps to break into the top three and another four laps to take over the top spot from Bob Milander of Norfolk.

Mark Henery of Norfolk would take over the top spot from Beckman. Henery would lead four laps before the four-car pile up would occur. Three more laps would click off the counter, before Milander would get around Henery.

Milander held off Osborne for four laps, but on lap 15 Osborne took over the lead for good.

Osborne pulled a slight advantage over the rest of the field and said he was taking it easy when he came up on Haase, who was limping around after the earlier incident.

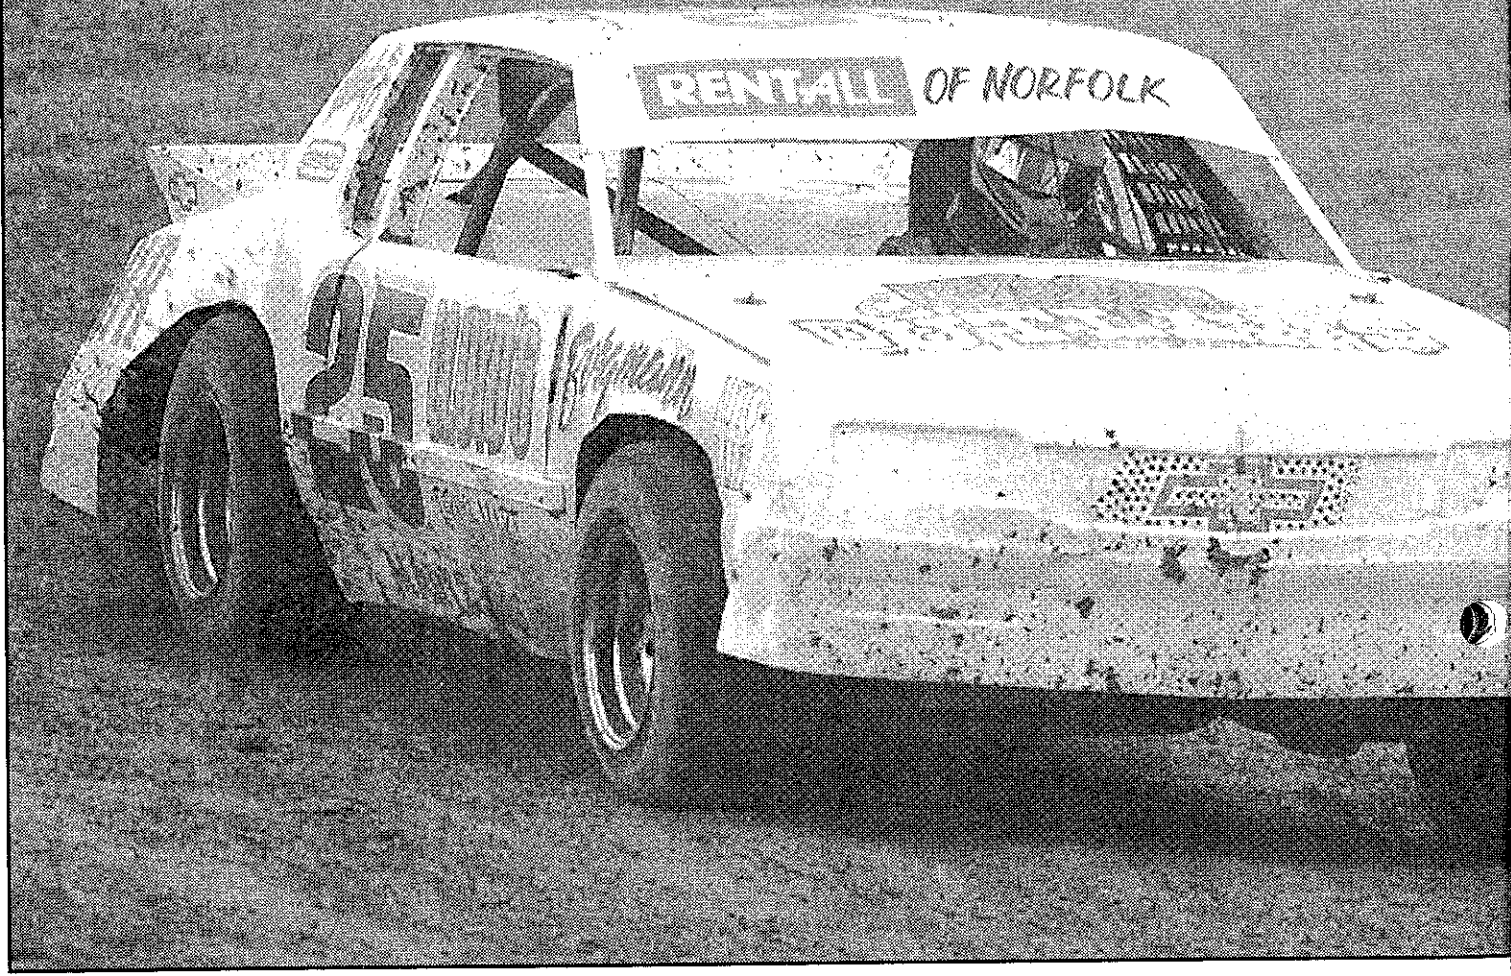

"I didn't know where to go," said Osborne. With the surface breaking up on

Martz stays out of trouble

Norfolk racer claims first season victory, third career

It was a matter of time that Dennis Martz of Norfolk would pick up his first Street Stock "A" feature win of the season at Riviera Raceway and Saturday night was his time.

Martz has been in position and has the car to win, but has run into bad luck throughout the first six nights of racing.

Last year Martz finished the year with no top five finishes in 14 "A" feature appearances, but already this year, he has finished four times in the top five.

However, they have not come easy.

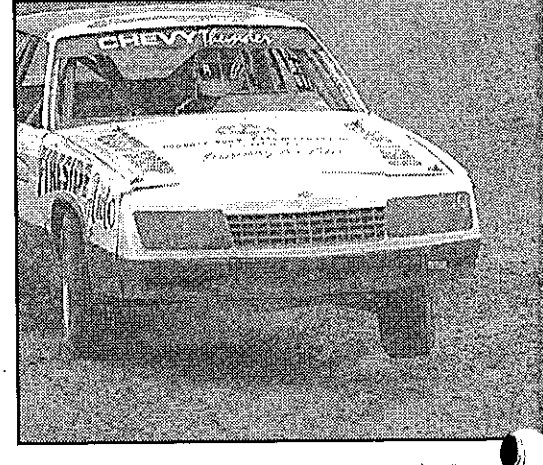

Martz started the feature on the inside of row five and before the field could complete the first lap an incident brought out the caution.

Martz found himself running fifth on the restart. By the fifth lap, he had moved into the top three. He battled with Brian Wagner of Creighton for several laps, before getting by and setting out for race leader Nick Opfer of Hartington.

With four laps to go, Martz grabbed the lead from Opfer. Martz said he ran the last few laps as hard as he could.

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield followed Martz passed Opfer and was charging after Martz in the closing laps. Johnson would come up short giving Martz his third career victory.

Johnson would finish second, giving him his sixth top five finish. Johnson has the most top fives in the Street Stock division.

Opfer would hold onto third place making it his fourth top five.

Darrell Doerr of Plainview continued to run consistent and finished fourth. It was his fifth top five in seven tries.

Osmond's Jim Johnson, who overcame problems in his heat race, rounded out the top five. It was his fifth top five.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk, in his second appearance this year at the track, won the "B" feature over Tina Derickson of Hartington and Scott Fredrickson of Carroll.

Kimmel led from the drop of the green flag. Travis Loecker of Bloomfield made a bid for the lead on lap seven of 10, but Kimmel and Loecker touched. Loecker blew a tire, ending his night.

Loecker, who lost a tire in his heat race, was forced to run the "C" feature which he won. Not qualifying for the "A" feature was the first time this year and the second time in two years, he did not make the "A" feature.

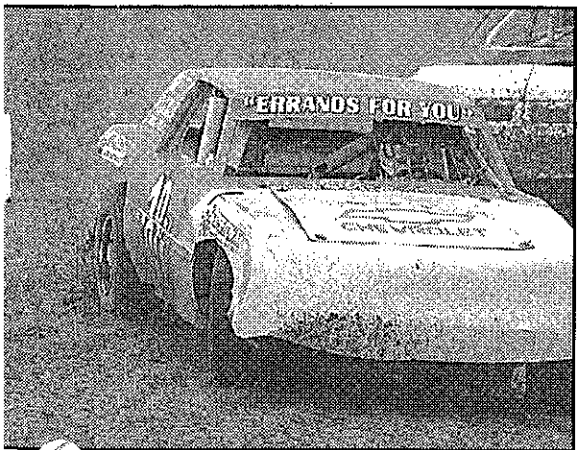

Heat race wins went to Jason Jensen of Pilger, Terry Walker of Norfolk, Chris Johnson and Martz.

It was Martz and Chris Johnson's fourth hit race wins and Jensen and Walker's second of the season.

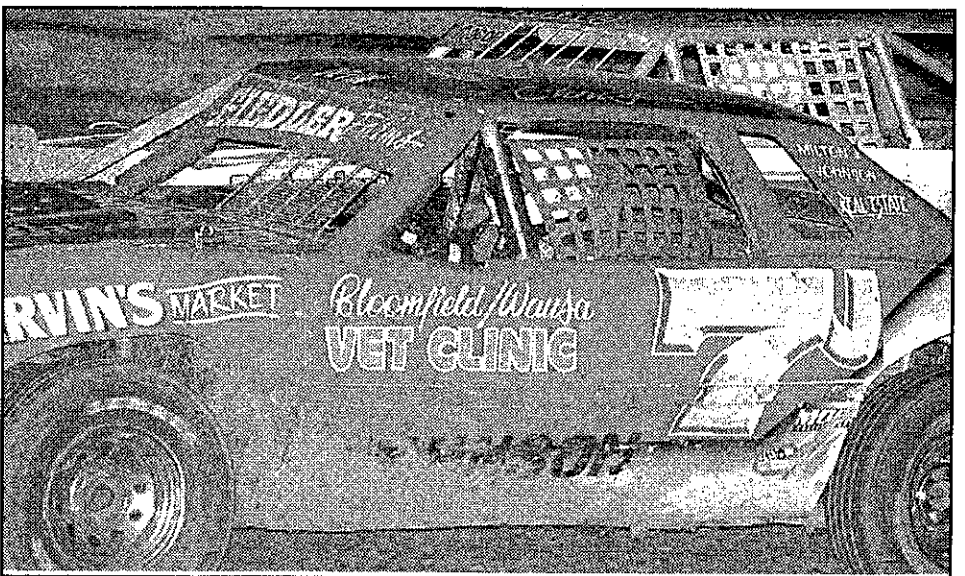

In the points race, Chris Johnson's second place in the "A" feature moved him in front of his brother Jim Johnson. Jim Johnson falls to second.

The next seven positions stay the same with Loecker third, Doerr fourth, Martz fifth, Opfer sixth, Greg Johns of Osmond seventh, Mike Timm of Pierce eighth, Walker of ninth.

Two drivers are tied for 10th. Brian Wagner moved four spots to tie Hoffart, who moved up two points.

car from hitting anything when a rough heat race. Kevin Hoffart (18x) was able to finish second in the heat race and seven in the main event.

Chris Johnson (7J) gets to the inside of Darrell Doerr (13) as he heads to the front.

Osborne

the top part of the track, Osborne said he could only move up a half a groove.

He said his car got tight and he had to adjust his brakes to loosen it back up.

Using only the back brakes, Osborne said he was able to loosen the car up enough to get around the corners.

Osborne would go onto win taking his fourth of the year and his sixth top five finish in seven races.

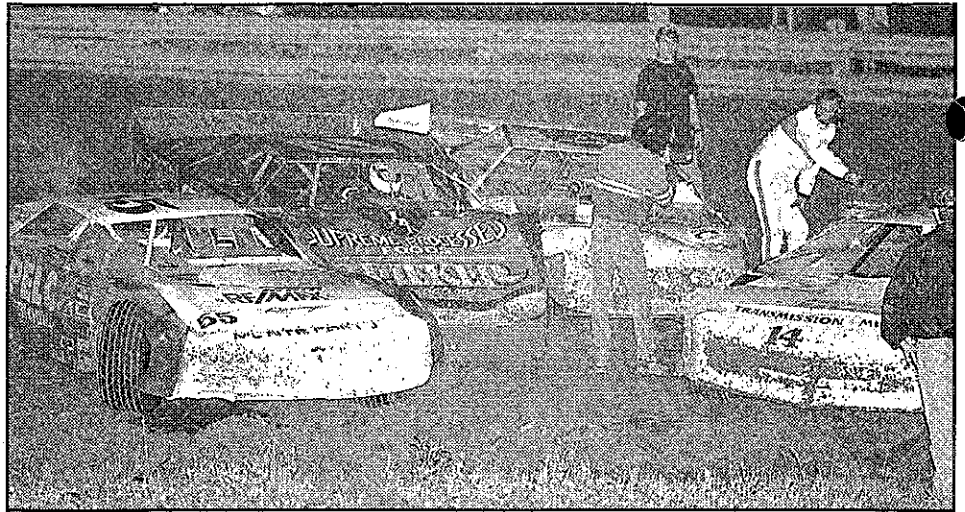

Bob Milander, who lead laps through the middle portion of the race, took his best finish of the season at second, his first top finish.

Third would go to last week's winner, Mark Henery of Norfolk, who was back in Mike Kruse's Grand National.

Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove claimed his third "B" feature win of the year, over Jeff Pendergast and Chad Jensen, both of Norfolk.

He sat on the pole and led flag to flag. Lovejoy would run eighth in the "A" feature.

Heat race wins went to Henery,

Beckman and Osborne. It was Osborne's third win and Henery and Beckman's first of the year.

In the points standings, Osborne extends his lead over Jay Smith of Norfolk.

Lovejoy and Matthies remain at third and fourth, respectively.

The biggest mover was Milander who moved up five positions to fifth.

Haase held onto sixth, while Travis Dickes of Madison fell two positions to seventh. Raymond Haase stays at eighth. Kruse's car moves up three places to the ninth position, while Keith Hansen of Norfolk dropped from seventh to 10th.

The cruiser team Mike Peterson and Trevor Cook (8) escaped injury when their car flipped over and landed on the car of Mark Risor and Jason Uehling (42) during the cruiser feature.
