Johnson wins third feature

A flat tire during the May 29 "A" feature has been the only miscue for the Bloomfield team of Chris Johnson in 1999, as it was the only night he did not finish in the top five of the Street Stock "A" feature.

And even more amazing is he has placed inside the top three eight out of the 10 nights of racing with his worse finish coming at the seventh place.

Returning to the winner's circle Wednesday night, Chris Johnson ties his brother Jim Johnson of Osmond for the most wins this year with three wins each.

"The car ran consistent," said Chris Johnson about his win.

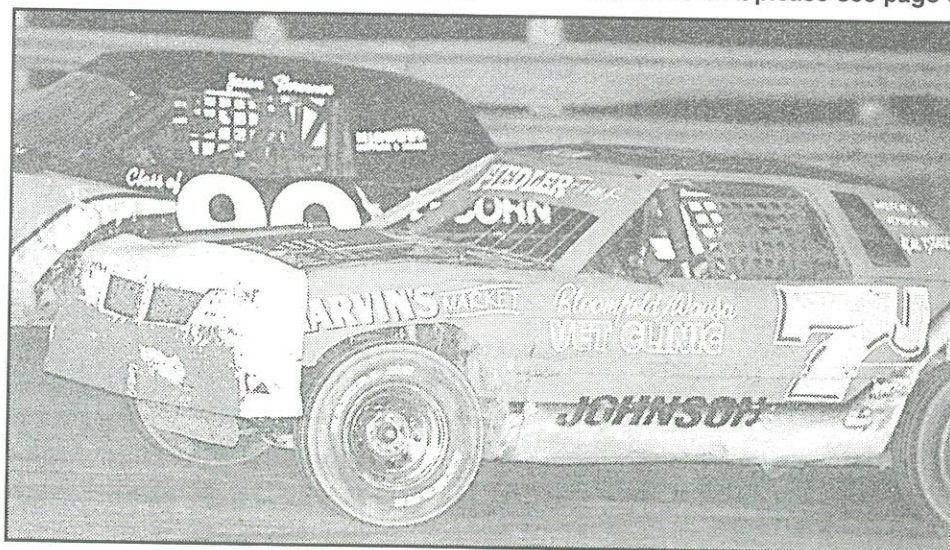

Chris Johnson started near the back of the 15-car field and would slowly work his way to the front.

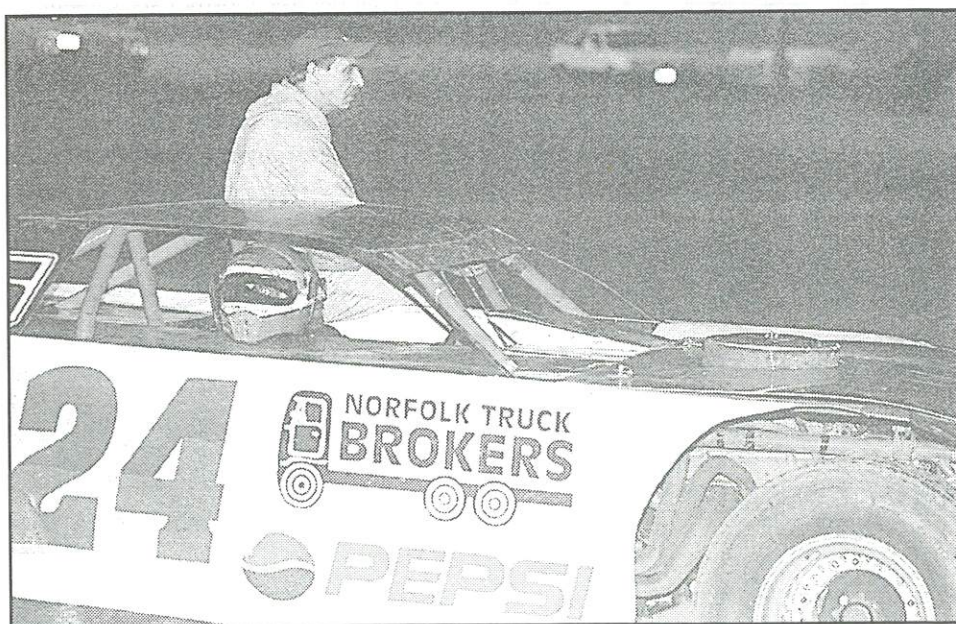

The 15-lap "A" feature was marred by five cautions for mostly cars spinning all alone. Pilger's Jason Throener would lead the first nine laps, before Chris Johnson made the pass to take the lead.

Chris Johnson started 11th in the 15-car field and had moved up to ninth after three Above, Chris Johnson stands in the winner's circle with his wife Shannon after winning his third "A" feature of the season. Right, Johnson (7J) gets along side Jason Throener (99) during the "A" feature.

Car owner Russ Wilken gets a ride back to the pits after Tom Wagner (24) won the Grand National "A" feature. It was the second straight win for the team.

Chad Jensen (73J) looks to have Reggie (ish ninth, while Roth was 13th.

Wagner lands — victory lane — again

After finding victory lane only four nights earlier in the Grand National division, Tom Wagner of Norfolk motored his way to the front and again took home the top prize.

But unlike his first win, when he built up a lead, Wagner had the pressure of Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove knocking at his back door, along with Mike Beckman of Creighton held the lead for the first three laps, before Doug Tomka took over to lead lap four.

Tomka would then pull a slight advantage over the field, similar to what Wagner did Saturday night. However, the only difference was the single caution period that would erase Tomka's lead.

Travis Roth of Bancroft looped his Grand National in turn one and got stuck on a tire bringing out the only caution of the race.

That put Tomka first, who led 18 laps of the 25-lap race, Wagner second and Lovejoy third.

On the restart, Tomka managed to lead lap 21, but would slide just a little high coming out of turn three, opening a crack for Wagner to get on the inside.

Wagner jumped all over the throttle when he saw the opening and grab the lead on lap 22.

Wagner said he kept the car close to the tires and out of the slicker part of the track, which was through the middle.

But the race was not over for Wagner.

Lovejoy would get around Tomka on the next lap and started working on Wagner in the closing laps.

"I saw Vic all the way through the corners," said Wagner.

Lovejoy could get along side Wagner, but Lovejoy could not get the bite off the corner to make the pass.

"He raced me clean," said Wagner.

Wagner would grab his second win in two nights and his fourth top five of the season.

Lovejoy rolled through second and Jeff Haase of Norfolk was third. Tomka held on to finish fourth, while points leader Robert Osborne finished fifth.

In the "B" feature, Raymond Haase of Norfolk easily held off Osborne for the win. Steve Matthies of Norfolk finished third.

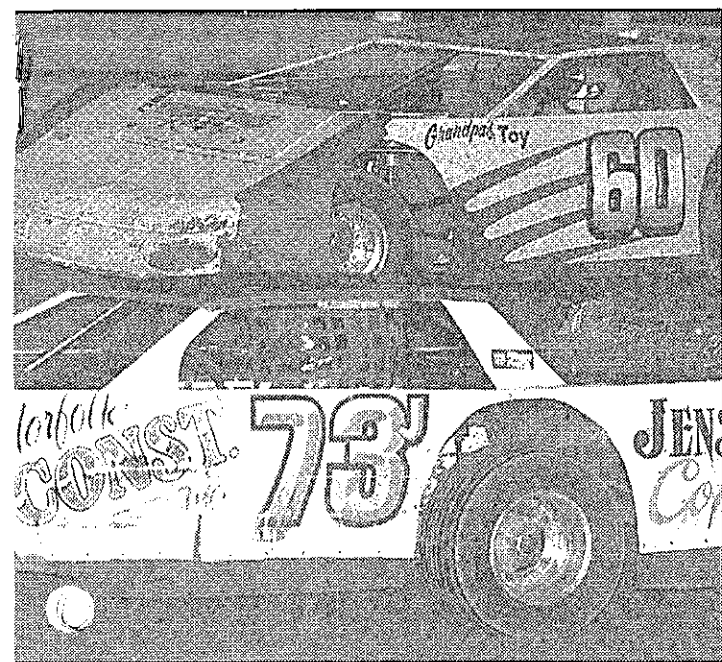

In the heat races, Lovejoy took the first one, Jay Smith of Norfolk claimed the second and Mark Henery won the third.

In the points, Osborne continues to lead. Lovejoy and Smith trade places. Lovejoy is now second and Smith is third. Jeff Haase stays at fourth.

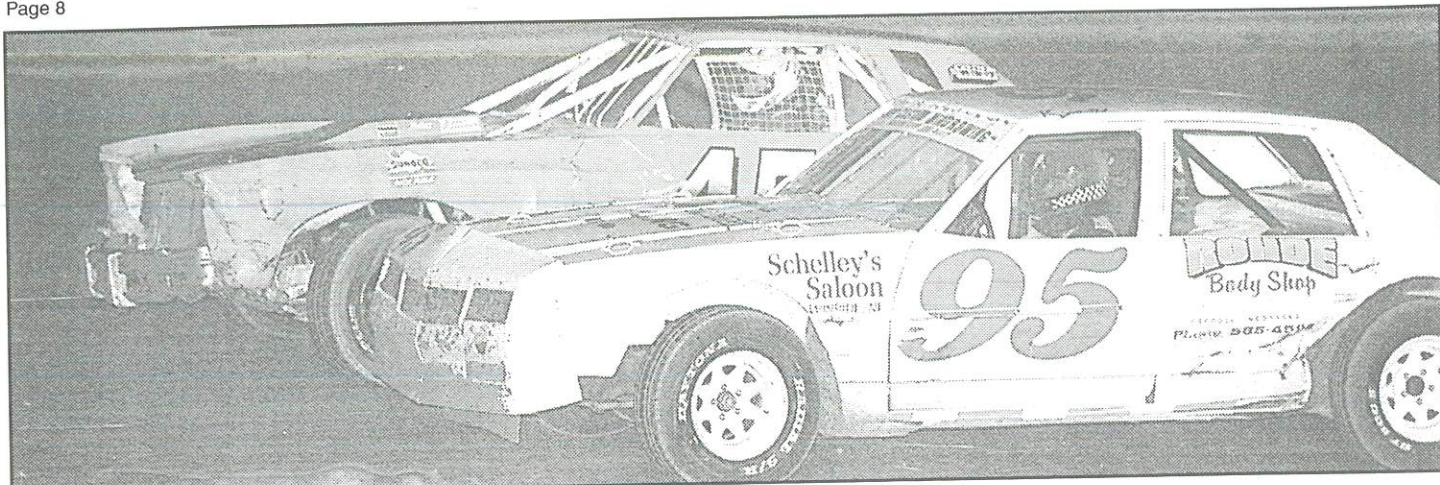

Again the biggest mover is Tom Wagner, who now jumps into the top five at fifth.

Sixth is Raymond Haase who drops one spot. Bob Milander of Norfolk remains at seventh. Mark Henery advances Mike Kruse's car to eighth.

Hardest hit was Travis Dickes of Madison falling three spots to ninth. Rounding out the top 10 is Steve Matthies, who remains at the position.

laps. Two laps later, he was running seventh. Chris Johnson would break into the top three on lap nine and go three wide with Travis Loecker of Bloomfield and Throener across the line for lap nine.

A caution flag was thrown on the next lap and on the restart, Chris Johnson got around Throener to lead lap 10.

Loecker was able to get around Throener a couple of laps later and tried to run down Chris Johnson.

Loecker got to with in a car length, but Chris Johnson would win. Loecker, who has struggled the last three races brought home second — his best run since his win on May 29.

Third went to Dennis Martz of Norfolk, his sixth top five of the season. Last week's winner, Nick Opfer of Hartington would come through the "B" feature to finish fourth in the "A." Rounding out the top five was Greg Johns of Osmond. It was his third top five finish of the season.

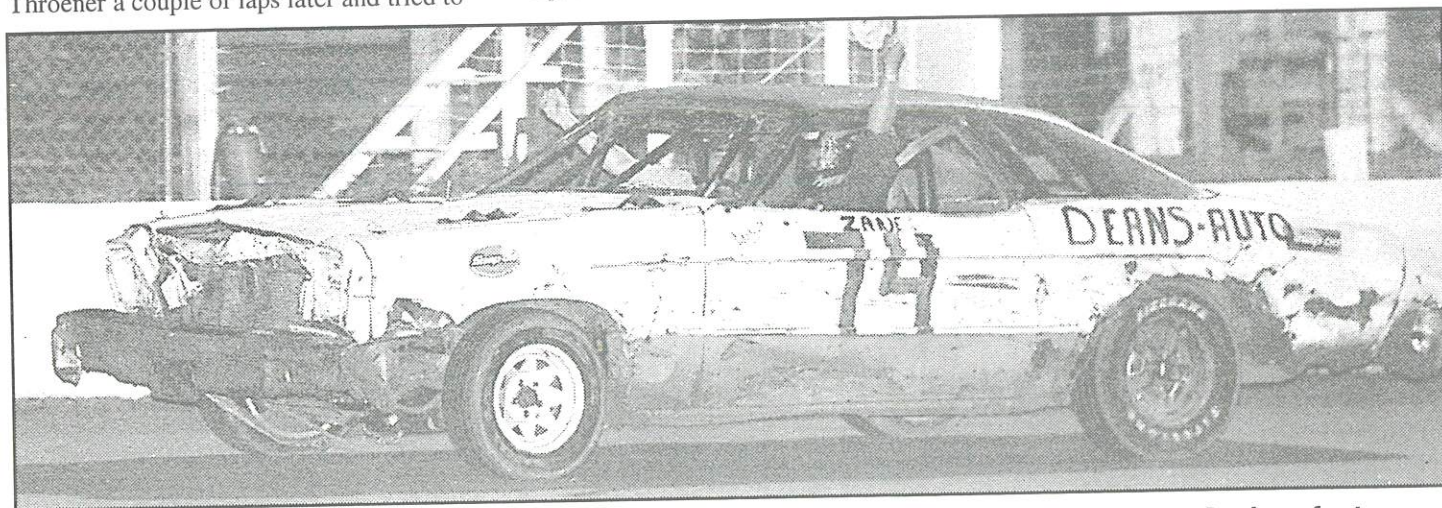

Opfer won the "B" feature over Ryan

Rohde of Norfolk and Nick Cautrell of Bloomfield.

Heat race wins went to Loecker, Scott Fredrickson of Carroll, Cory Haase of Norfolk and Chris Johnson. It was both Haase and Fredrickson's first heat race win.

In the points, there were no changes in the top 10. Chris Johnson extended his lead over the rest of the field. Jim Johnson sits second — 76 points back. Dennis Martz follows in third.

Fourth is Loecker and fifth is Opfer.

Zane Ruther and Neisha Twaddle celebrate as they cross the finish line winning the Cruiser feature.
