Osborne earns fifth feature win

Norfolk's Robert Osborne, who has dominated the Grand National points battle, put himself back in the winner's circle picking up his fifth win of the season and his first win since June 12.

Osborne avoided trouble in his heat race to make it to the "A" feature, making him and Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove the only drivers to run all 15 "A" features this year.

Osborne started from the outside of the sixth row along side Lovejoy. Osborne was able to move into the seventh spot, but had to check up for a slower car, which dropped him back to the ninth spot after eight laps.

He then turned his talents up a notch and set out for the front. In four laps, he broke into the top three and was running second a lap later when the caution came out for a mix up in turns three.

Osborne said he was passing most of the cars on the high side despite the lower line being faster. He said slower cars bogged down the inside line, giving him a clean shot around the top of the track.

Following the third of four cautions, Osborne restarted the race behind race leader Mark Henery of Norfolk with 10 laps to go.

Osborne said Henery blocked the lower groove, so he drifted his car through the middle of the track and cut it low coming out of turn two to get along side Henery.

With a big grin on his face,

Wins/please see page 8

Doug Tomka jets out of turn four down the front stretch during his heat race. Tomka has been a front runner in the "A" feature and continues to get the first win of the season.

Johns captures first "A" feature in 21 career starts

It was a dream come true for Street Stock driver Greg Johns Saturday night at Riviera Raceway, as he picked up his first stock car win of his career.

In only his 21st Street Stock start, the Osmond driver found victory lane.

Johns started his career last season, running only six races and at the end of the season he said he would be back.

He returned to the track this year with a goal of winning.

"This is what I have been waiting for," Johns said after the race.

Johns' season turned around several weeks ago when he got help from veteran Travis Loecker of Bloomfield on changing the set up on Johns' car.

Johns struggled the first part of the season, as it seemed mishaps hunted him down.

Reborn Johns has torn up the field posting a second and a win in the last three nights.

Johns started seventh in the 15-car field. It took him only four laps to break into the top three behind race leader Scott Fredrickson of Carroll and Brian Wagner of Creighton.

By lap eight, Johns had run down and passed Wagner, but it looked like laps would run out before he could catch Fredrickson, who had the lead every lap so far.

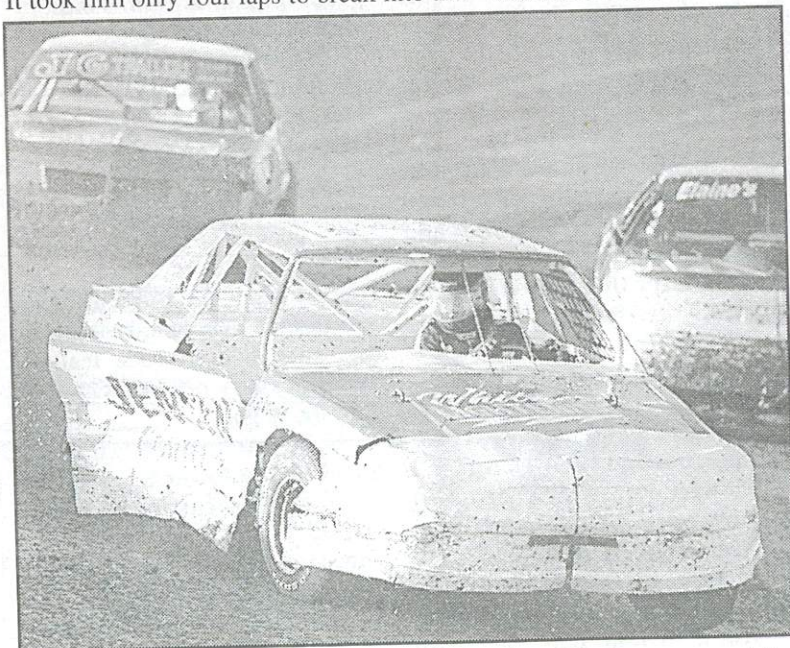

But Johns' bad luck turned into good luck, as a caution for spun car eliminated Fredrickson commanding lead.

With six laps remaining, Johns used two of the laps to get by Fredrickson and win his first career win and post his fifth top five finish.

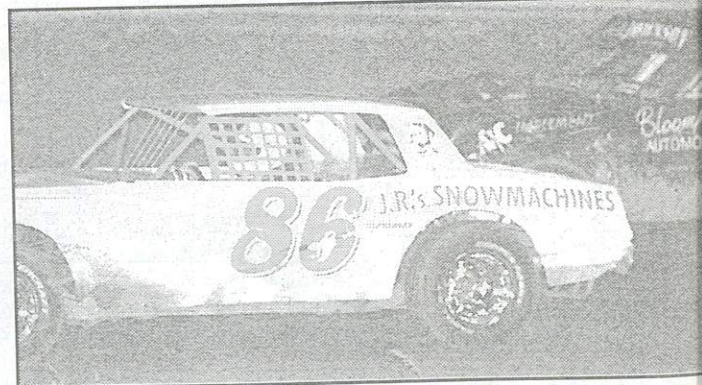

Fredrickson, who has seen his fair share of bad luck finished second for his best finish this season. Third went to Wagner, who all so had his best showing of the year.

Fourth was Loecker and Darrell Doerr of Plainview rounded out the top five.

Dennis Martz won the "B" feature, as Jason Throener, Jason Jensen and Loecker won their heats.

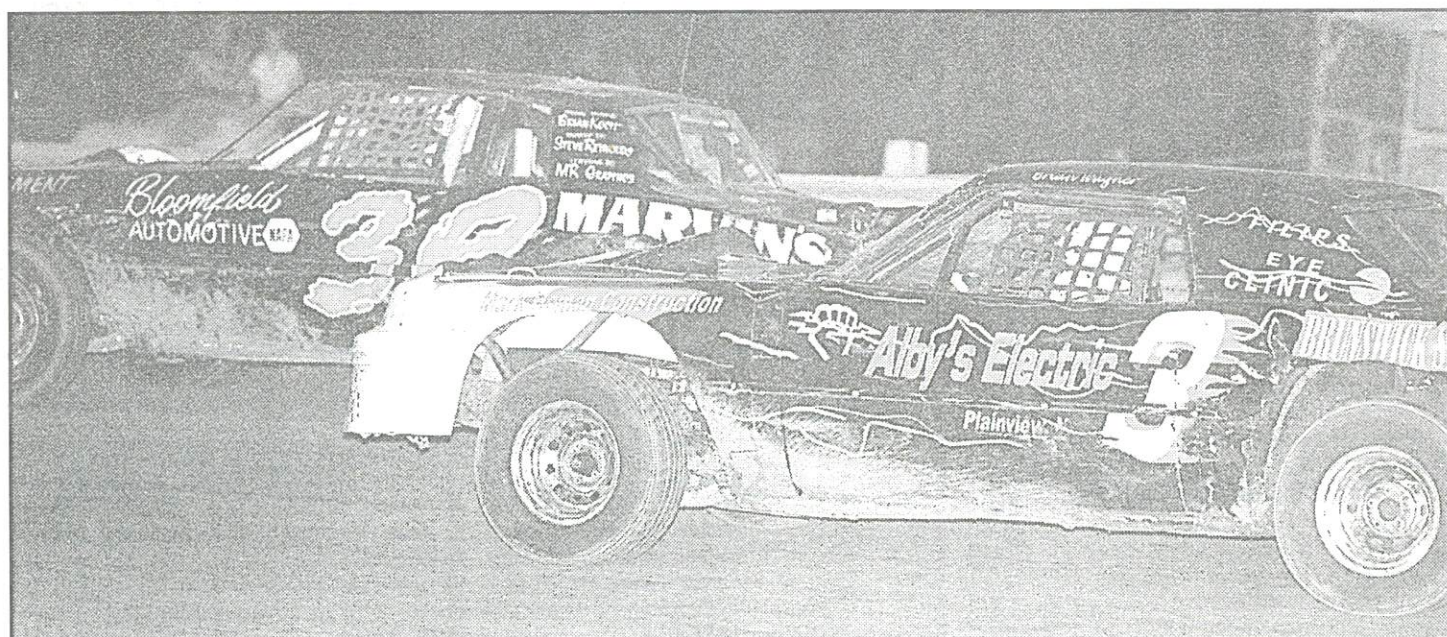

Jason Jensen (4) looks over to see his door panel is barely hanging on during the heat races.

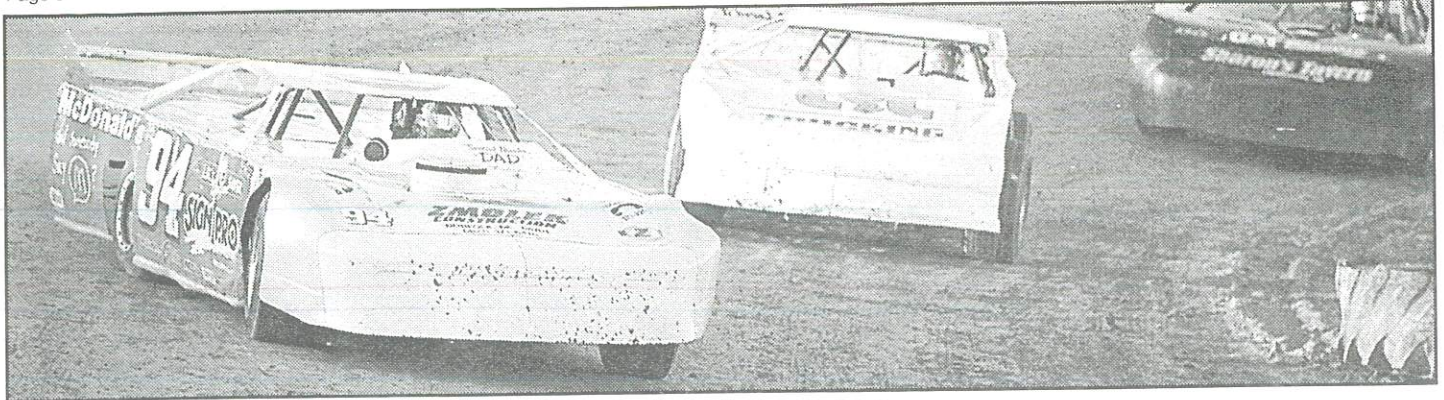

Greg Johns (86) gets by Scott Fredrickson (38) to point of the "A" feature.

Scott Fredrickson (38) holds off a speedy Brian Wagner (3) in the later stages of the "A" feature. Both drivers had their best finishes of the year. Fredrickson finished second and Wagner was third.

Jeff Haase (94) leads cars out of turn four during his heat race.

Jon Haase (45) slides through turn four.

Chet Herley and Nick Rajae (76) took the cruiser feature win.

Osborne said it was drag race down the backstretch as they raced to turn three. Osborne said he had enough confidence to run hard with Henery to avoid an incident.

Osborne won the battle through three and four and drove onto his fifth win of the season and his 13th top five of the season.

Henery hung to second, as Jeff Haase of Norfolk took home his second third place finish and his sixth top five.

Matthies continued to run well and placed fourth, as Lovejoy grabbed another top five.

The "B" feature was won by Reggie Roth of Bancroft. He paced Bill Wells and Keith Hansen to the finish line.

Winning heats were Haase, Tom Wagner and Chad Jensen.
