Osborne claims eighth win

Norfolk driver also wins championship

With a 399 point lead on second place, Robert Osborne of Norfolk wrapped up the track points title, but he put the cherry on top by winning the championship night "A" feature.

Osborne got his first pole position of the year with second in the points Vic Lovejoy of Meadow Grove. Many people thought with Osborne on the pole the race was over before it started, as Osborne has won seven races from his 12th starting position for most of the season.

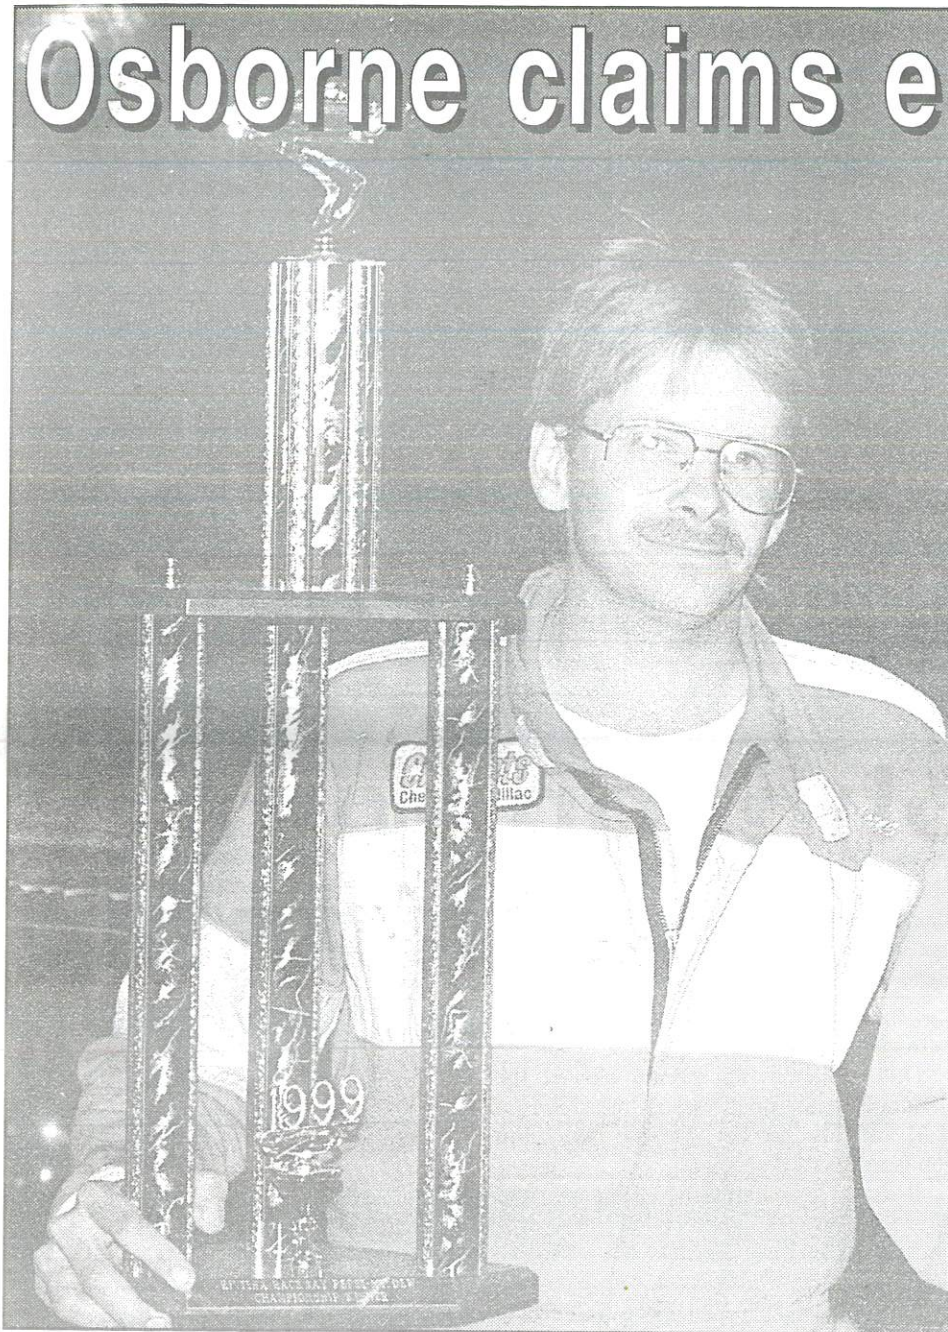

But Lovejoy never left the rear bumper of Osborne, as the two powered away from the rest of the field.

In fact, the two pulled away so quickly they were closing in on the rear of the field in five laps.

Travis Roth of Bancroft brought out the first caution when he spun in turn one and two. On the restart, Osborne and Lovejoy pulled away and again they were closing in on the rear of the field when Bob Milander of Norfolk lost another motor bringing out the caution.

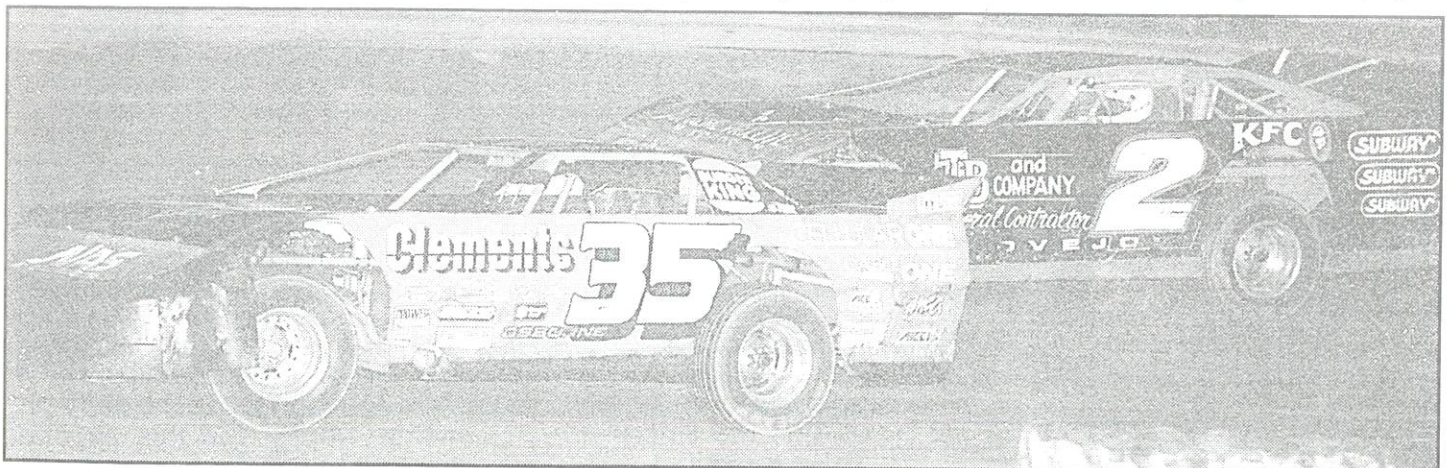

Another seven laps went by when Steve Matthies of Norfolk was turned around in turn two, which brought out the final caution of the race.

The last nine laps went straight through, as before Osborne and Lovejoy pulled away. On the final lap, the two had caught the slower cars and as the two exited turn four, Lovejoy got beside Osborne, but came up less than a half a length from Robert Osborne was able to hold off the hard-charging Vic Lovejoy throughout the 25-lap feature.

Brothers
duke it out
for feature win

Chris Johnson wins feature: championship

It was a family feud in the Street Stock division in both the points and feature race.

The Johnson boys have dominated the points standings for the couple of seasons, but it was Chris Johnson of Bloomfield who walked away with both the 25-lap feature win and the track championship — his second in two years.

Jim Johnson of Osmond won the championship before his brother, but was coming second to Chris Johnson the last two seasons.

The brothers, Chris Johnson and Jim Johnson exchanged the lead during the 15-lap feature.

With Chris Johnson on the pole for the race, he led the first lap, but a mix up in the back of the pack brought out a quick caution.

On the restart, Chris Johnson pushed going into turn two and opened the door for his Jim Johnson to dive low into the lead.

The duo would go nose-to-tail for eight laps before water was splashed onto the track causing the second caution.

On the restart Jim Johnson held the point until he slid sideways in turn two. Chris Johnson then dropped low to pass his brother. Chris Johnson just got by when Jim Johnson came down the track to gather his vehicle up.

One more caution period slowed the field and on the final restart Chris Johnson held off his brother for the win. Jim Johnson finished second.

It was Chris Johnson's fifth win and 15th top five. Jim Johnson held onto second for his 14th top five.

The third spot also changed hands several times throughout the race. Travis Loecker of Bloomfield held the position for seven laps before Dennis Martz got for the spot.

Nick Opfer of Hartington took the spot from Martz, when Martz lost a tire. Loecker regained the position passing Opfer three laps from the end.

Opfer was fourth and Greg Johns of Osmond finished fifth.

In the "B" feature, Nick Cautrell of Bloomfield won the race over last week's winner Jason Jensen of Pilger, and Jim Kimmel of Norfolk.

Heat race wins went to Johns, Loecker, Jim Johnson and Chris Johnson.

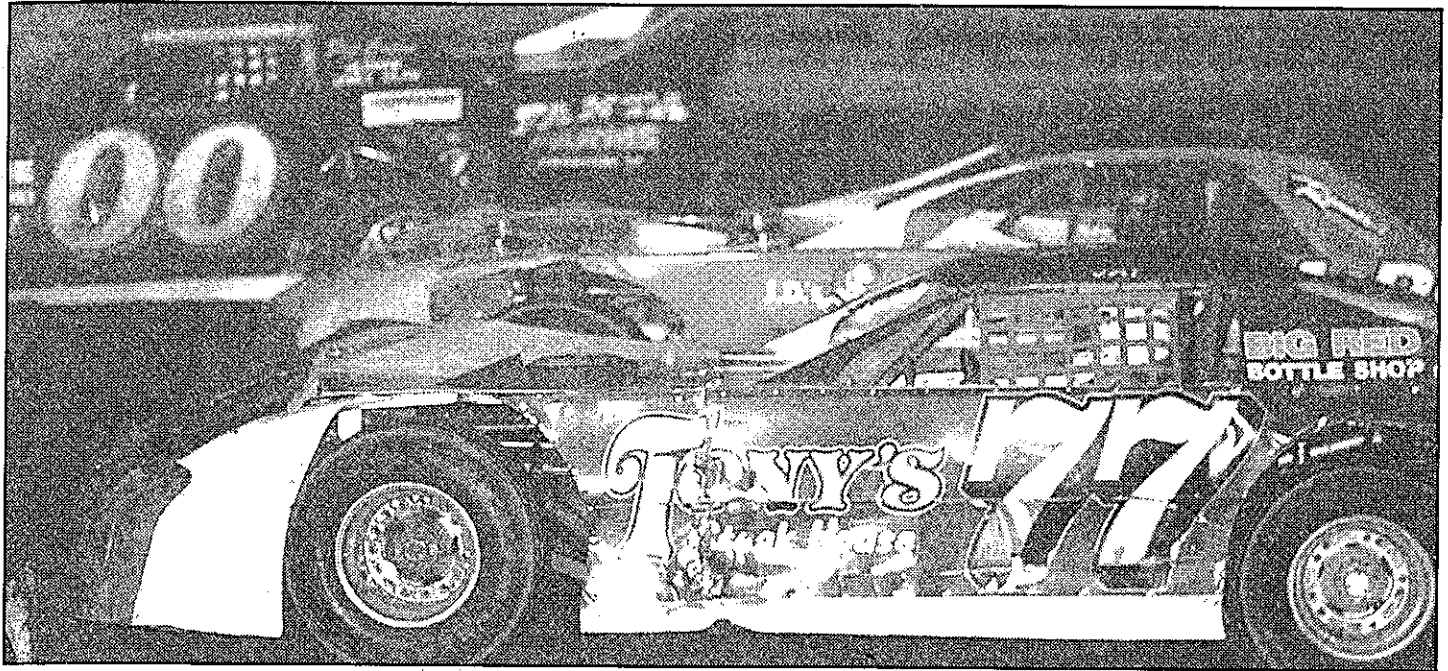

In the points battle, Chris Johnson won the championship over his brother by 77 winning his second of the season.

Osborne won the main event, winning his eighth of the season. Lovejoy, who had won the feature a week earlier, finished second. It was his 11th top five of the season.

It was a battle for the third spot with Jay Smith, Mark Henery, Jeff Haase and Matthies, all of Norfolk.

Matthies held the third spot for six laps. Following the first caution, Smith got by Matthies on the restart, as did Haase moving him into the fourth spot.

Haase took four laps to pass Smith, when Smith slipped up high. Haase went by with Henery on his tail.

On the final restart, Haase held off the charge of Henery, but Henery got by on lap 18 and brought home a third place finish.

Fourth went to Smith, who battled back for the position. Tom Wagner of Norfolk made a last effort to finish fifth.

With only 17 cars attending championship night, no "B" feature was run and all cars qualified for the "A" feature.

Winning their heat races were Smith,

Lovejoy and Osborne.

In the points, OSborne won with a 399 cushion over the second place Lovejoy. In the final nights of racing Lovejoy pulled a 154 lead over Smith. Smith finished third.

Henery's third place moved him ahead of Haase for the fourth spot, as Haase dropped to fifth in points.

The biggest jump in points came at the sixth spot when Wagner moved up two positions to sixth. Raymond Haase of Norfolk stayed at the seventh spot. Matthies fell to eighth when he finished 11th in the feature.

Milander and Chad Jensen of Norfolk remained ninth and 10th respectively.

Johnson

points. Chris Johnson was the returning champion from last year.

Jim Johnson had a 38 point lead over Loecker, who was third in points. Fourth went to Martz and fifth to Opfer.

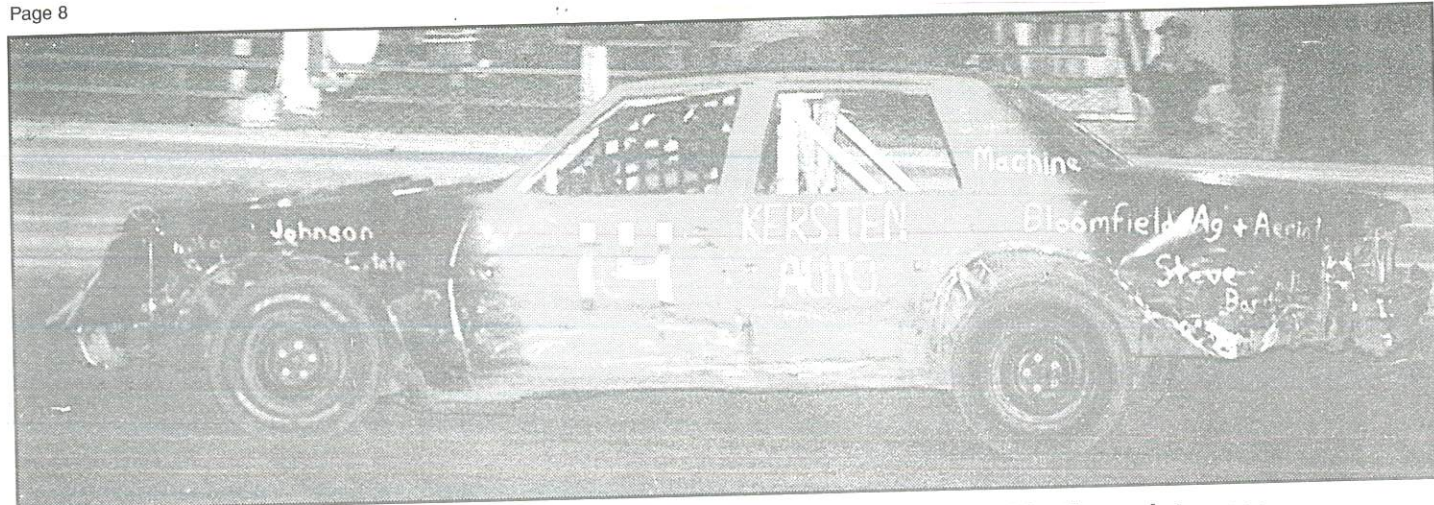

Despite losing a motor a week before, Darrell Doerr of Plainview did not make the trip Saturday, but hung for the sixth spot. Seventh went to Brian Wagner of Creighton.

The only change in the top 10 from last week came at the eighth and ninth place finish. Johns' fifth place moved him to eighth in the points, while rookie Ryan Rohde fell to ninth, the highest rookie finisher. Rounding out the top 10 was Mike Timm of Pierce.

Travis Loecker (9x) gets by Dennis Martz (25). Martz suffered a flat tire and left the track early.

Mike Kersten and Jarred Smith won the Cruiser "A" feature and second in the points race.

Kersten, Smith win race; Steckelberg, Beltz win title

For the Cruiser team Joel Steckelberg and Chris Beltz, all they had to do was finish the Cruiser "A" feature to claim the Cruiser track points.

Struggling in their heat race they manage to finish the race and make it to the "A.," which basically gave them the championship.

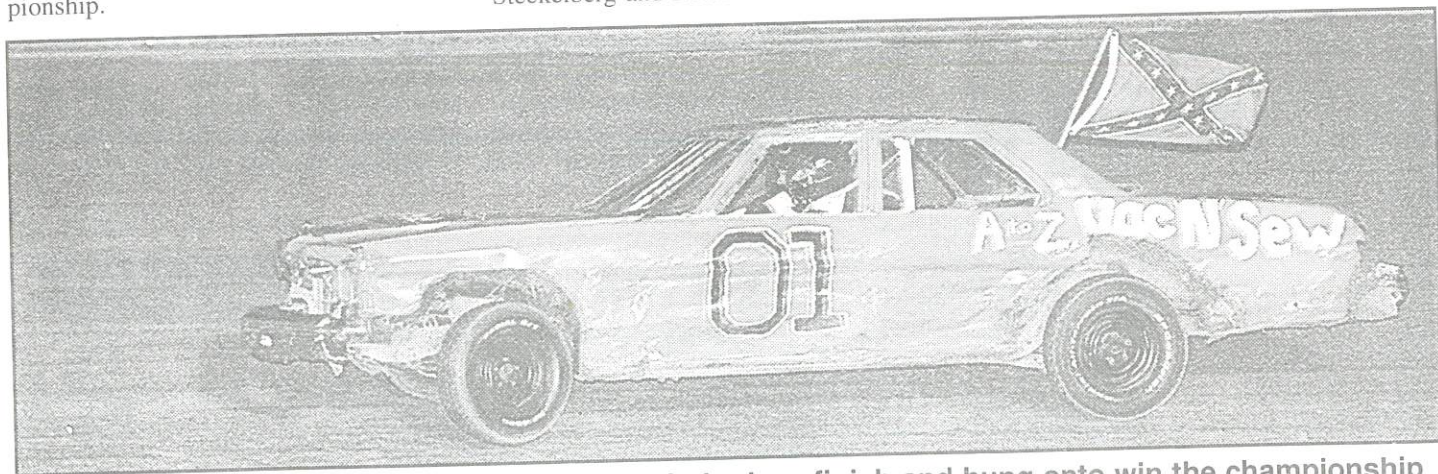

The duo's engine was ready to give up, but they manage to finish ninth in the "A" feature giving them enough points.

Second place in the points went to Mike Kersten and Jarred Smith, who did everything they could do to pass Steckelberg and Beltz. Kersten and Smith won the "A" feature and their heat on the night.

Kersten and Smith led from the first lap and never looked back.

Second went to Ryan Steckelberg and Chris Harris, as Wade Lawles and Mike Auten was third.

Joel Steckelberg and Chris Beltz limped to a ninth place finish and hung onto win the championship
